STAFF + RETIREE LUNCHEON:

The word is out - luncheon gets rave reviews!

Perhaps you've already heard from staff who attended the June 15th luncheon . . . it was a good time for all! About 65 people attended of which 1/2 were staff and 1/2 were retirees. . . some retirees came from Florida, some came from Connecticut, and others came from local areas. After an introduction by Jeanne, Chris gave a short talk on change in the libraries (both in the physical plant and the method of accomplishing tasks) and humorously added that all retirees were welcome to return to work. Rueben Weltsch gave a discourse on the early years at Coe Hall, Planting Fields in Oyster Bay, through the years he worked at Stony Brook. Don Cook briefly commented on the progress of the libraries and noted many of the separate libraries are now under one roof. During lunch a slide show of photos, including many of the "old staff", played automatically. The luncheon was plentiful and afterwards all were entertained by our "onsite" comedian David Bolotine. David light-heartedly recalled many staff and their uniqueness.

If we do have a second annual staff + retiree luncheon make sure to come! Here are a few photos from this event; the CD with 20 photos is located in the Director's Office. You're welcome to borrow this CD, or any of the other CD's of library events, by sign out at Maryanne's desk.
