WEEKLY NEWS QUIZ (Feb. 3)

Name	SCORE (OUT OF 5)
------	------------------

1. Just before the Vancouver Olympics opened, an athlete died in training. Answer two of the following correctly:

What sport? What country did he represent?

What was his name? What caused his death?

- 2. A student in South Florida is now suing her principal for being suspended for
- 3. How many states were snow-covered last week?
- 4. U.S. forces launched a new offensive this week in what country and against what enemy?
- 5. Walter F. Morrison died last week at age 90. He was credited with inventing what toy that became a staple of college campus recreation.