Trustees Adopt Gay Rights Policy

By John Bartholomew
The SUNY Board of Trustees voted Wednesday to bar discrimination or harassment against students or employees based on "sexual orientation or sexual orientation."

The action, which came as a surprise to both students and administrators at Stony Brook, was generally greeted with support.

A handful of students in the Gay and Lesbian Alliance (GALA) cheered and cheered when told of the trustees' action. "We've been lobbying for a very long time to get that passed," said Paul Thibault, GALA's treasurer. "I think it's a shame that it took so long." He said it was very common for gay students to be harassed and that SUNY's new policy might not change much, but it would at least establish that discrimination on campus is wrong. He said gays were often teased and harassed and that while he had not experienced discrimination in grading, housing or hiring, stories of such incidents were common.

Other gay and lesbian students agreed, saying that they had to change rooms until they found a roommate they could get along with and were often afraid of letting people on their hall know their sexual preferences.

Bruce Baber, a former student and GALA officer, said, "Harassment is common, and all you have to do to read the walls around here to see that."

Doreen Hopkins, president of the Health Services Center Chapter of the United University Professionals, the union representing most faculty and professional staff, said the union supported the trustees' action. "I'm very pleased that they made this statement," she said, explaining that the union's position is that employees should be free from all forms of discrimination.

Baber and Thibault said GALA had gone to University President John Marburger last year requesting that the university issue a policy statement like the one the SUNY trustees just passed and that he had declined. They said that he didn't seem to recognize discrimination against gays and lesbians as a problem. "I'm just glad that it happened in spite of President Marburger's refusal to do anything about this," Baber said.

Marburger said the Stony Brook administration had not issued such a policy statement because they knew that the SUNY trustees were working on it. He said that the language and format of anti-discrimination policies were generally based on Federal anti-discrimination laws but that there were no federal statutes against discrimination on the basis of sexual preference. As

Students Protest U.S. Military Policy

Candlelight Vigil Ends
Day of Demonstration

By Andrew Blumberg
Inspired by the United States' invasion of Grenada, an informal coalition called by one of its members the "No F-111 Alliance," held a rally yesterday in protest of U.S. military involvement in Lebanon, Latin America and Grenada.

At its peak, about 300 people joined the rally, which was held at the quad in the academic mall. Participants carried the national flag and carried signs and banners, of which some read, "No More Bushido!" and "How Many More Must Die?" The rally lasted almost four hours.

Members of a number of groups were involved in the effort. Many of these groups belong to the Cultural Center, which includes minority groups such as the Haitian Student Organization, the Latin American Student Organization and the Caribbean Student Organization. Cultural Center President Rudolph Owens said that he opposed the invasion of Grenada because "it's basically an aggressive move, and I think it's totally ridiculous that they claim they are going to set up a democracy when we ourselves don't have one." A number of people addressed the rally which had an open microphone. Among them were two members of the department of Sociology: Page Henry and Bruce Hove. Henry called the late Prince Bishops Bishop, who was overthrown in Grenada before the American assault, "a remarkable leader," and the bishop regime a "progressive regime." He called the murder of Bishop a crime but he said he did not believe that military intervention was "the particular way to deal with this crime." He added that he did not believe that the medical students on the island were in any danger. "I think the invasion itself did more to put the students in danger than any internal conflicts in Grenada," he said.

Bruce Hove also stated his opposition to U.S. forces in Grenada. "We have read old martial alphas that are running the country," he said. "There were the allies, there will obviously be the righties."

Justice Dep't Files Suit In Baby Case

Baby's Father
Grants Interview

It began as a private, non-searching matter between the grief-stricken parents of a deformed baby girl and their physician. However, the decision made by Baby Jane's parents to allow their severely deformed first-born child to die a natural death instead of undergoing life-prolonging surgery has become a public affair as the U.S. government steps in to examine the situation.

To protect their privacy, court officials have not revealed the names of the parents who would speak, until now, only through their attorney, Paul G. Smith. However, now that the Justice Department has become involved in the case, the parents, who have asked to become co-defendants in a suit to block the release of their baby's medical records, have begun to speak for themselves.

In a brief telephone conversation with STATESMAN last night, Baby Jane's father, who requested anonymity, spoke of his and his wife's involvement in the case. "We can't understand the consequences of the situation," he said. "We can't

U.S. Sues SB For Medical Records

By Keith W. Johnson
The U.S. Justice Department has filed suit against University Hospital in order to force hospital officials to turn over the medical records of Baby Jane Doe against her parents' wishes.

The suit, which was filed Wednesday in Federal District Court in Brooklyn, is the first action of its kind taken by the government to obtain the private medical records of a patient. The suit contends that the government must examine Baby Jane's medical records to determine whether her civil rights have been violated when the hospital acceded to her parents' request against life-prolonging surgery for Baby Jane.

The Court of Appeals ruled last Friday that Baby Jane need not undergo corrective surgery against her parents' wishes and approval of an alternative treatment of her illness and condition, ruling that the parents made a reasonable decision and should not have been subjected to further litigation through all three levels of the state's court system.

Now over three weeks old, Baby Jane

Grad Student Elected FSA President

By Elizabeth Wasserman

Graduate student Chris Fairhall was elected president of the Faculty Student Association (FSA) by members of the FSA board last night. The board also considered and voted down an unprecedented move to pay the FSA president for some of the time spent doing the job.

Fairhall is the successor of three-year FSA president Richard Bentley, who served during the period where the not-for-profit corporation transformed from having annual deficits to where it is making money.

As the new president of FSA, which oversees the business on campus, Fairhall later said his priority is: "working up the most plan to increase student use of it, combating the more than $200,000 utility fee it pays to the State and to put in motion the plans for a central campus bar or refreshery."

Fairhall completed his undergraduate degree at Stony Brook and has served in such positions as Policy treasurer and FSA secretary. He currently studies in the School of Urban and Policy Sciences.

Other officers elected at the annual meeting were Daniel Melucci, the university's chief accountant, who was elected to a fifth year as treasurer by the 21 student staff and faculty FSA membership. Marjorie Shalen, an assistant professor of dentistry, was elected vice-president for the second consecutive year. And undergraduate Fung

Lam was elected as secretary of the board.

Debate at the meeting centered around an amendment Bentley sought to make to the by-laws by adding a clause to make it possible for the president alone to collect up to 20 hours of minimum wage payment per week for work associated with the position. In a 11-5 vote, the board chose to bar the clause and as it stands now, none of the corporate officers may receive payment from the net profits of FSA.

Policy President David Gansberg, elected to his second term on the FSA Board of Directors last night, was supportive of this move passing. The only way you have an ample amount of time to free up some time from some other area of your life. The optimal duties of the FSA president he referred to were in the course of the past year such as the first full year of operation for the Bank of New York's economic center, bringing practice courses for graduate entrance exams to campus, and to set policy goals for the future, with which Fairhall agreed.

Of the future, Fairhall said, "Undoubtedly I think I can, and the whole board can do a lot for the students. We want to do a lot of work as far as going out to the lodge meetings, to the cafeteria and to the students."

Role Reversal At Its Best

by Alice Behringer
Let's examine the following theory: the more commercials there are promoting a film, the more likely it's a flop. The first step in disproving a theory is to find evidence against it. Here is the evidence.
It's been a delightful comical look at the changing times. The recent, overlooked theme of role reversal is handled in a sensitive, humorous manner. Michael Keaton and Ted Gurr are Jack and Caroline Buller. Like every other family in suburban Detroit, Jack goes off to work and leaves Caroline behind to watch their three kids (Ash, Kenny, and Megan) and take care of the house. It's a nice, typical scene until Jack gets laid off by a corrupting boss.
Both Caroline and Jack look for jobs, but Caroline's more successful than Jack. She gets a position as an associate at the Schwann-Heard Advertising (continued on page 7W)

See the Changing Woody Allen

by Greg Uster
"He was the phenomenon of the twenties. To think that at that time he was as well known as Lindbergh is astonishing." Zelig, the documentary on the life of the fictional character Leonard Zelig (Woody Allen), begins with this statement by Susan Sontag. Others who comment on Zelig's life are Saul Bellow, Irving Howe and Bruno Bettelheim.
What is Bruno Bettelheim doing in a Woody Allen movie? "Zelig" takes place during the American Jazz Age—the twenties. It is the story of how Leonard Zelig, the "Human Chameleon," becomes the talk of the world. Leonard Zelig is neurotic. When in the presence of others, Zelig becomes like them. In the presence of two tall men, Zelig swells to two hundred and seventy pounds and discusses the problems of obesity with them. In the presence of a Chinese person, he develops unmistakably Chinese characteristics. Woody Allen is very funny in a series of such poses.
It is psychiatrist Sigmund Freud (Mia Farrow) who is assigned to Zelig when he is committed to Manhattan (continued on page 3W)

BETH—MAYBE WE still need "curtains and a thing for the light," but we've come a long way since August. Love ya roomie!—Dawn

HAROLD—HALOWEEN, EOB, true confessions, him, her, skinatention, 4:00 AM, sleepwatching, big mac, "Ture." There is still so much more I want to share with you. Love you—Nellie

KERRIE—THIS SEMESTER is coming to an end and although it did go quickly, it was great! Let's make next semester even better. I know we will not be living as close as we were, but we will spend just as much time together. I have so many memories and can't wait to collect even more. I love you dearly and although 4 weeks might seem long, it will go quickly and we will be together again. Just you and I, forever yours—Bill

TO ALL OUR friends—Good luck on finals and have a great vacation. Looking forward to the "New Year" and an even better semester. Love—Corey and Melissa.

MARBLE EYES—It has been a wonderful semester, one that I am very reluctant to let go. Although I am very sorry to see it end, I know next semester will bring more happiness and beautiful memories. From going to the mall (every day), to pints of Haagen-Dazs, to Jack-La Lane's, to Rye and cokes at EOB, to cuddling with each other, I will miss all these things I do with you during our time away from each other very much. I give you all my love, forever. Love—Big white, and creamy

TO THE MEMBERS of the Volunteer Resident Dorm Patrol—You're all terrific! Thanks for making this a fantastic year. Good luck and we're looking forward to seeing you on the shift board next semester. Here's to special events, special friends, and El Torito happy hour! Love—Exec. Board

AMMANN C-2 GIRLS are #1. Happy Holidays and thanks for being such a great bunch of women to a roving commuter.—Gregg

WHITMAN A-3—THE best hall in Stony Brook thanks for making my first semester as R.A. "not a job but an adventure!" To Sue and Mike: Good luck in your future! For the rest of you: Who can believe it—It's gonna be even better in '84!

TO ALL MY new friends in O'Neill—I'm gonna miss you! Love—Rance

DEAR LUZA, Tina and Dawn—Shut in a bucket! We deliver promptly! Love Ya!—Rance

TOMMY—BEWARE of flying ice cubes!—J & C

TO ALL MY poison's—I'm really gonna miss ya! Remember me! Love—Matthew (not Jughead)

TO THE FELLAS of O'Neill F-3—What a long, strange trip it's been and let the good times roll!!! You've been such a special part of our lives...we love you!!! Peace, love, and happiness for the new year!!! From—The gals of O'Neill E-2 (P.S. Does anybody have a quarter?? If you do, bring it down Jan. 23!!!)

TO THE GIRL whom I fell in love with—Thank you for being here when I needed you. Our love will last for ever. Nothing can stop us now.—A member of SBVAC

TO MY FELLOW James trouble makers—(You guys know who you are) Good luck on your finals guys and have a great Christmas. Hope you feel better Lynn. Love you guys—The Algevacado

JENNY—I'M NOT going to miss you. Nor will I feel sad. I'm certainly not going to wish you good luck!—John (P.S. I lie a lot but I'm not crazy.)

TO THE LADIES of Langmuir C-3—Thanks so much for making my last semester here very enjoyable. You are all very special. I'll be back to visit. Love—Andy (Remember Alice, we gotta start working on children.)

ROBERT, TO THE someone who I've let myself laugh and love with, fight with, cry with, win and lose with, share my innermost feelings with, and really care about. Just wanted to take the time to tell you how special you really are to me. Love—Laura

HEY WOTE—Here is your personal. Good luck and keep in touch. Love—Mote

TO MY DEAREST Evan—I am very sorry for calling you an asshole so many times.—Ellen

SUITE 211—A FINE Christmas to all. This semester has been a good one eh?? I can't decide which fine event means more. The stupid "Look-down-get-the-nose" joke, watching "You-know-him-you-love-him-you-can't-live-without-him," warm fuzzies, der-man, watching "The model" sleep, tuberculosis, waiting for Fred to install the smoke alarm, "Heh, hsh, hsh, ladies." The capitol of Nigeria is...Port. I want a moose, flying cactus, (Thank-you Petel), separated Phil, those fucking trees, slotting Fred, O'd's, Hobnails, in buckets, Que?, G.H., Bowie, Mick, Howie Mandel, white & brown tables, yeah right, can we talk? I love you all in a big way! Have a good one, eh??! Best wishes—The Beaver

ONE FOR THE money. Two to the show. FREE, with limo. La Cage Aux Folles.

STEPH, NANCY, DEBY—What a great semester, late night studying, crossword puzzles, Sunday breakfasts, test patterns, road rally click (click), Grouches, brain cancer, warbin' on it, funny stuff! Yeah! Great! Sign and take it in stride. I could go on and on. Good luck on finals. We can handle the pressure. Jim Martino—C22 wishes you well. You will be missed! To all our other friends—Good luck on finals and have a great vacation.—Suz-y

SHELLY—"CAN I just tell you," you've been a fun/crazy/considerate roommate. "Meanwhile," I'm really gonna miss you. Good luck job hunting. Love—Belina

SUE—I CAN'T BELIEVE you're leaving already but I promise to listen to your reviews on GSM. Please at least see the movies instead of trying to fool people, who really won't believe you. But get a new watch because you'll end up getting 45 minutes late and you'll miss the first 1/2 of the movie. Now really, I enjoyed our night on the town and Kavasa. But I would appreciate that you leave Mark alone because now he's all mine and I don't like you becoming an obstacle in our relationship. And please next time you drive please have your registration. A Statesman press pass really won't get you anywhere in the real world.—One third of the monage faux pas.

DEAR JEANNINE—Point film point—Happy 20th birthday. Thanks for always being there. You're a great friend. Love ya—Diane

GARY—YOU'VE SHOWN me more about myself than you'll ever realize. I'll miss your warm hugs when "ferociously" needed. I love you and hope we'll stay in touch. Good luck—Bew

DODI, SUZIE, Petie, Corrine—I can't even begin to thank you guys for all that you've done since I moved into Kelly D. I love you all—Burt MUUUSSH—IT'S LIKE high school. Endless hours of handholding—the ultimate pleasure. It's all I need and all your gonna get (and as far). How about some B-Day cake? Sh-t yeah!!

BEN D-2—TO THE boys (and girls) of the "office."—Thanks for being friends— with a capital "F." "N."—B. Blow

TERESA—GOOD LUCK with your new position! I know that you will do just fine. It's been great working with you, Moyla—Barry, still sports director until Dec. 23!

A.B.—ALL GOOD things must come to an end, and this is the end (you used up your eligibility in football). Just don't forget your many years on D-3 (and that is an understatement), from the Saloon to the Bridge, you were a helluva RA, an inspirational coach, and a great friend to all of us. We love you like our grandmother.—The boys

TO ALL THOSE who know me (and obviously love me)—Bye all, it's been tons of fun. And I'm gonna miss you all— Lots of love—Silvana (Zippy, La Bambola Kalliana, The lady with the whip, and any other name you know me by.)

DAVE OWEN—WHERE did you come from? and Cary Sun—Like make up your mind if you're working for Statesman or the Asian Students Assoc. okay? No one knows either of you or even likes you cause you work for the business dept. Try to grow taller both of you, so you'll look more important okay? Lots of luck! Love—Silvana

JIN P.—YOU wouldn't be editor if I didn't think you could handle it. Good luck with sports next semester! I'll be there if you need me!—Barry More

FELIPE—I'VE ONLY known you a short time, but what we've shared means a lot to me. I'll always remember you dancing, C & C, mesc, and the long nights. Story Brook won't be the same without you. I'm really going to miss you! Best of luck in all that you do. Love—A B3'er

BABE—JUST A LITTLE message to let you know that I think about you all the time. The last month has been terrific. Let's hope for better times in the months ahead. Happy holidays! I hope you don't mind it if I give you your Christmas present a little early, maybe December 24! Love always—Your Lady FOTOMAT—DO YOU, are you, and why? I know you can figure it out, you're not all that dumb. The next 5 o'clock call will be more obscene—I promise— except my phone's not working right now, so just keep looking out your window for inspiration.

ANA—WORDS CANNOT express my feelings for you— so forget it.— no, but really, meeting you this semester's been one of the better things that've happened to me in my life. Love—Seb —Oh You know who

G.T.—WHY, WHY?—M.N.

ANDREA—THE LAST two paragraphs I've written to you get bounced, but they've said more or less the same thing— We're friends, we care. What more can I say?—Mark

SUE—I'M GLAD I had you under me all semester— You know as well as anyone how I like it on top. Most of everything I have to say has been said— Get a watch Miss Cream Cheese—Ho, Ho, Ho—Love ya—Bob

MOYLA—HOW'S THE kids?— The car's still running fine— Happy Anniversary. Love—Your Ex. (itchy finger) "Bob"

GEOFF & MARTHA—Two preps—Ho, Ho, Ho, you two make a lovely couple— Cans & coupons, cans & coupons....

BARRY—YOU WERE a great RA— for when it lasted— we certainly could use you down here if you change your mind.—Mark

100 WORD HOROWITZ—Take a bit out of crime! I really don't hate you.—"Bob"

SILVANA—GOT any records?—"Bob"

KAAAYKOOO—We got a real puker here, what're we gonna do about her? Baby Falefel loves ya.—"Bob"

SOOOSAN—Don't go! I'll really miss you if you go. Remember my canary in kindergarten? Isn't that enough sadness and trauma for a child's life? I really love you— honest. Love—Mark

RAY—I THINK THIS semester's done wonders for our friendship. And Mike— Absolutely no hard feelings whatsoever. And Al, Al, and Doug— When are you going to move? Oh, Anshul— You know what I'm thinking, so I won't bother.—Mark

GINA—Even though we're both the surviving type, it looks as though at least one of us made it, but then again, you know me— always the optimist— Oh— Hi Richiel, and Pinnie, cruisin', flizy, and all the rest— Thanks for everything. Love—Mark

SILVANA—I'm really sorry you are leaving us. You were also there to do the work and even more. Good luck to our "S & M" Lady!—Barry

MARA, RITA, 2 Sues, Jeff B., Jeff V., Jim, Phil, The Crew in PSY 201—Thanks for all the bizarre and not so bizarre things to remember. Here's to marry more next year! Love—Nancy

DOUGLASS 115—WHERE SHOULD I start? No more table dancing eh? Chuck it's 7:00 and dark, you can get up now. DeCive you steas get your mind and other body parts out of the gutter. Mike, no more mud ball (at least not without asking Renee). McSween, you study too much, but at least you still vomit occasionally. Hey God, let's get burnt, okay? What a semester. The closest thing we've had to the "semester that never was." Where's the door to the circular domicile, I can't find it! Show me the way crisp, before I develop flotation psychosis. What's with these trick fire extinguishers and these exploding watermelons? Anyone up for a head bouncing? Throw that porch monkey down, break his neck. Then we'll tear his head off and f---k his esophagus. Where we goin' tonight? OBI, EOB, Park Bench, Rumrunner, Heartbreaks (what a dump) Manhattan, Hatter, where do I go. Let's have a party instead! I'm not cleaning, get John to do it. One down, one to go, let's go real crazy and do it!—Tony

BEILINDA—I LOVE you dearly. Thanks for everything, especially for being my friend.—BRI

DEAR WHITMAN B-12—Thanks for being such a great group of guys, for making me a part of the family and for "putting up with me" It's been such a great year! Love always—Seb

TO THE "BA"—Thank you so much for the present! You kept your promise a secret! I had no idea you were my "Secret Santa"—Tony

DEAR STATESTAFF—I don't really have anything to say, but this— Have a very DOE Christmas!—The "BA"

DEAR PAUL—Thank for being you! Such a great friend and everything else! Have a great vacation and I'll see my "D" soon. Love always—The Sick Bear

TO EILEEN—Happy Birthday. You've done a wonderful job participating in the psychology experiment of living with me. I hope your birthday is as much fun as --- is. Love—Helene

JOHN—I CANT really say everything I want to. Our 3 1/2 years as roomies have been the greatest. Always remember all the great stories, esp. the ones no one but us know about. This isn't a goodbye, just a thanks. Take care and graduate.—Andy

TO OUR RA—Happy Birthday and Happy Holidays.—From the F-2 Zoo

DEAR JUDY—HERE is one more personal to add to your wall! Thanks for being such a good friend. Love your friend—Helen

TO LIZ, RAY, Ana, and the rest of the Statestaff—I will seriously miss you all a lot! I have had some great times here, and I will be back someday. I love you all—Barry M.

NKS—WORDS CANT say what you mean to me. Luv ya. Happy B-day 1-16 Ruth

TRIPOD—WE LOVE you, for it's the laughter and the craziness that brightens our day! We also want you to know that we're very proud of you and we'll miss you! Congratulations!—Fric and Frac (P.S. It's too bad you're not rich!)

DEAR DOT—I JUST wanted to thank you for being a helpful and caring roommate. I will never forget the good times that we had in the past year and a half. Congratulations and good luck in the future. I'll miss you! Love—Elsen

HEY SPITZ—HERE's to next semester! You're wonderful to put up with my moods— much love from the upstate girl (aka Fran)

A.B.—IT'S AMAZING how two friends can live together for four years and still be friends. I'm glad we stuck it out (it had nothing to do with the big room or color TV). Good luck on Wall Street, hope you make a lot of $.—Your roommate and buddy always—JW

LANGMUIR STAFF—Thanks very much for the gift and all your help this semester. Special thanks to the D-wing staff and Debbie. The whole staff is the greatest on campus. I'll miss you all.—Andy

OKAY WAGNER—HERE'S your personal. Thanks tons for the Pink Floyd posters. And keep your hair all messy you look like a real reporter who's been up all night. It's been real "wicked" getting to know you absolutely. Who are you going to say rude things to when you're drunk when I'm gone? Best of luck! Love—Silvana

KEVIN—YOU'RE FINALLY leaving this school. I don't know what I'm gonna do without you. You've been a real special friend to me, one of the best! Honey, good luck with whatever you do you deserve it! Please, no more statutory raping. Love—An A-2 admirer

TO THE SWEET little girl selling roses for Valentine's day—Every since I saw you, I wanted you to be mine. My love for you grows as each day passes. The last 8 months have been the greatest. NYC Summer of '83, Wilkes, Holbrook, Kennedy's, and C.P.—Presidents, T. Meads, Even SUBS weekends. Making Hippy Flippy and having fun. Sharing my love with the girl I have always dreamed of. I love you forever. Love—Your one-eye monster, Cyclops

WOOKIE—WE'VE HAD our troubles but that's all behind us. Let's hope things can get better than they already are! Love—Papi

TO ALL the babes I know—Hope you all have a great holiday season.—Cary

TO SILVANA AND Sue—Take care because you guys are getting into the real world and getting real jobs. It's been a pleasure.—Cary

THE PASSWORD is....Lushel Arlene, Suzy-Q, Sheila, pass or play? Here's to many more! Love and friendship always—Sue-shi

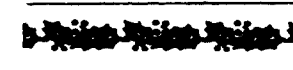

DEAR #2—HERE's to one crazy semester that started a late night in August. It's going to be difficult to top it but let's try! There are just too many things we haven't done yet.

COOP—WHAT CAN I say? We went through a lot of hell together this semester, but we pulled through. You've been really great and picked me up all those times I was down. I hope I did the same for you. We also had a lot of fun— remember spot, Hemits, etc. I don't know what else to say except I love you and I'm glad we became as close as we are. Love always—Jess

PAM—IT'S BEEN FUN taking classes with you this semester. We'll have to do it again next semester. Happy Holidays and Happy New Year. Happy Birthday too! Love—Terry

GLENN—YOU'RE still a hunk. We're still lusting after you. Be honest Glenn, is it really 59 picas? We really love you.— Silvana and Sue (P.S. You can stop eating Wheaties, we know you're a man!)

ANDY M.—WELL HERE'S that personal, I promised you. I can't believe that you'll soon be leaving to go upstate. But, hey you won't be able to get rid of me that fast. I promise that if you'll allow me to come and visit you, I will. And I promise you'll enjoy it. I know I will. And next time you go to feel my ribs, don't try anything funny or you'll have red marks streaked on your cheeks. (Only kidding) Or would you enjoy that, you aggressive man. Say why don't you give me a call or come down today, so we can procrastinate some more before we study. Hey maybe we can procrastinate before together, then study together and then maybe relax afterwards. (I'm sorry if this is a bit forward but we really don't have much time left to procrastinate together before you leave.)—ANA (P.S. It's o.k. with me if our children are Jewish. Oh the answer to your question has 7 figures in it, you guess.)

MARK—WHAT CAN I say that hasn't been said already. Although I guess I can forgive you for stealing those albums in the beginning of the year. Ooops or wasn't I supposed to say anything about that. Well it's not that I'll miss you when we leave for intercession, for if I don't see one of my best friends, I'll be really hurt. I'll make sure to warn everyone about asking you how was intercession. Oh, by the way I made sure that everyone knew not to leave their albums just lying around.

JUDY, LILLIAN, Nora, June, and Lisa—It's been great living with you guys! I'll miss you all, have a great vacation, come visit next semester. Take care. Love—Jan

PIC—THANK YOU for a wonderful semester. I hope we can continue this teacher-student relationship. Remember, if loving you is wrong I don't want to be right.—Zag

WALLY—CONGRATULATIONS! I'm going to miss having you around next semester. Enjoy work! Remember "Native Fechenkuale." Love always—Chunnie!

ALANA—YOU BROUGHT zest, sex (appeal) tits and bitchiness to our suite, we love you! You're a maniac! Love—Jan, Denise, Jane, Nanette, Denitza

MOOSE #1—YOU STOPPED "commuting" for me— Start again, for me. One year 8 months 15 days and I still love you! Your (original) Mossette

HEY CHUCKER—HERE'S to gulping "22", tates, bitching, popcorn, chuckee cheeses, El Torito and loving "sweet" mates. There'll always be a place for you. Love ya—Denise

ALAN—YOU'VE BEEN a great friend and MA and we're really going to miss you. The late night nook parties just won't be the same. You better visit next semester. We luv ya.—The girls from D-2 (P.S. Thanks for fixing the showers.)

PEE-PEE GIRL—It's been a very happy 10 months for me and I feel that there is more to come in the future. Merry Christmas. I'll miss you over break, but Philadelphia is not as far as it seems. Next semester you can zing it to me in English, while I drive you around in my wreck. Try not to be a nervous, psycho wreck and I'll try to not be such a topper. You know I've got a point, but I'll put a hat on and maybe no one will notice. Thank you for really caring. Love—Da Poo-Poo Boy

IGOR—THESE PAST two years have flown by. You're the closest person in my life and I'll miss having you here with me. Congratulations on your graduation. I know you'll do just fine. See you on the promenade! All my love forever—Christina

AMMANN STAFF, C-2, Vee, Lara, Celis, Joan, Tom—Thanks to you I'm leaving S.B. with a lot of fond memories. I'll miss you. Max, I sure as hell will miss your messages! Silvana, Pedro, Rich— Europe is waiting for us! We are there! Delia and Joan— When are we going sailing? Alright I'll settle for 7-11! Lara— Languages and math— will the twin ever meet? Tom— You did your damndest to get me through ECO and COMP. POL. I C-2— The best always comes last! Vee— Who else will ever understand me? I'll miss you most! Let's always keep in touch! So much to say— so little paper in the world! Thanks to everyone at S.B. for making me what I am today. I'm finally a graduate!—Liz R.A.

MIKE D.—CHEM lab won't be the same without you twol Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!—Megan

TO MY C.C. (with honors of course)— Sometimes I just need someone to hold and someone to hold me tight. Then I think of you. Love—No. 2 (for now).

P.E.—YOU ARE a real P.I.G. You have been a good roommate. Congratulations on your graduation. Wish you the best. I shall miss you. George wants to smell you. Nined wants to sniff you. Joe wants to hug and kiss you. Dave wants to stick his stump. Kumar wants to fill you up. Yours— Love, always— D.P.M.

TO THE REAL winner of the EOB dance contest—Your costumes were essential, but it was your originality and execution that stole the show.—A voice in the crowd

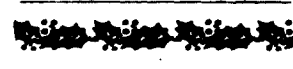

DEAR ANOY—I live for that Irish spring smile. You've made my first semester... different. Thanks. Love—Kim

TRUDY & Doreen—Now that the semester has ended, I just want to say how glad I am to have best friends like you two. We've become very close through the ups and downs of our first semester. T.P.—Your the greatest roommate and Dor— never forget M.P.s. Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!—Megan

OPEY—WHAT SOUTHERN accent? Thanks for the book and typewriter. Happy 18th in Jan.—SB

LUCY, SLEEPY, Snorty, Opey— Dec. 19 at 7:40 it's all over. Beware! Happy Holidays. Love—SB

TO MY FRIENDS—Check ignition and may God's love be with you. Change is good, but memories are delicious. Good luck, forever.—Marilyn

MERRY CHRISTMAS Dom, Ro Ro, Nadine, Sharon, Elsie, Claudie, Phil and The 8th and 13th floor— Good luck on finals—Mike Burp I love you with all my heart. Merry X-mas and Happy Anniversary. Luv forever—Dottie

DEAR ERIN—First of all, do we get fired when you leave. Second of all, who are you dating this week and most of all we will miss you very much and we all over you! Love—Loren, Nancy, Lori, Haylene, Steffi, Teri, Jackie, Susan, Sheri

CONRAD—FOR ALL of those times that you made me laugh when no one else could, and for helping me through the rough times and for just being you...Thanks I'm gonna miss you. Take care and stay in touch. Love always—Cheryl

DEAR CONRAD—You are the sweetest guy in the whole world, and we love you a lot. It's not everyday that you meet someone as special as you. We're gonna miss you, and we're starting to cry. Lots of love and success always and keep in touch. Love you lots— Frannie and Cheryl

DEAR GAIL—Yes, here it is your personal. Try not to be too excited, okay. As usual I'm at a loss for words— so have a great holiday & we'll see what next semester will bring. Love—Me

DEAR VIRGINS—Ever since you girls moved to Gershwin you've seem to have lost those highly endearing F-2 morals. We guys are extremely upset; wanted to corrupt you ourselves. Try to be good, we still love you all & we hope to see all of you on New Year's Eve. Love ya—The boys of B-12

DEAR BEAR—What can I say. Thank for all those little things, big things & everything else. Most of all thank for keeping my roommate occupied & out of my presence— I just love having a single. Until next semester— It's been real. I guess.—The other bear

GLENN—IS IT TO late to switch to news? Thanks for all your help and support you have given me. Although at times I want to change my mind about leaving, I know for sure that I'll be back in Fall '84. Thanks for everything!—Barry

LEE—HERE'S TO football! Beer chugging and of course my dieting inspiration. I'm glad we've become friends. Good luck! We'll miss you. All my love—Sharon

LEE—THERE ARE no words to express what our friendship means to me. Only something this special can happen in 3 months. We've gone thru some tough times together, but more importantly, we came out of it learning from each other. There's too many good times to list. You and I will always have the memories, which is all that counts. It totally burns me out, you're graduating. I'm glad you were a part of our lives on D-1. At least you're going out as a champion. We'll all miss you. Good luck forever. Shameshow I know you'll get whatever you wish for in life I love you.—Karen

ALANA BITCH! Chucking-dancing, sneaker, "sex"! Monk! Don't grow up— please! I love you.—Jennifer

SMEG—THIS IS it, after a long awaited arrival, it's finally here. The personal you've been waiting for. "I want to serenade you way down over yonder under the X-mas tree in N.Y.C. while eating chocolate-chocolate chip cream" Love always—You flaming fagget

DIANE—YOU'RE my favorite DJ and I like knowing you. Merry Christmas.—F.

CATHY—SITUATION Desired: D.F.B. needs the red bow removed from his.....Please act immediately, it's getting limp! Desperately yours—Ninja

LAFAYETTE—I KNEW that would catch your attention— Well —, we're going to miss you! Remember: NRs, HSs, Fine Arts, Spencers, D-3, Stage XII, will you share? I just saw my —, China Girl, Escapes, There are a lot more but you have the idea. You're a great person and great friend. We love you! Love always—Glo

SCOTT—HAPPY 21st birthday and Merry Christmas. Always remember the great times. K Lover? Sherri

JOHN—MOOSE! Congratulations on graduating. Now a policeman? Well Street will always be there for you and so will I. Love always and forever—Jennifer

ELIZABETH—WHAT AM I going to do without my roommate for a month. No one to go to Haagen Daz's with, and what about the fact that I'll have to be getting up to go to work every morning and I won't be able to say go to a later session. But most of all, I'll miss our late night talks and all that other stuff that makes you so special. Well by now you should be able to tell by the sound of my voice that I am very upset and can't go on discussing this.

ANN—ANOTHER SEMESTER gone & we're still here! Talk about miracles. Only one more semester to go for me so let's make it a blast. We've been through a lot the short time I've known you— John, Henry, Art (both of them), Tarzan, dimes, mica, El Torito, Big Barry's, (Howard Johnsons?), birthday presents (it still tickles) and even trips to my dorm. Have a Merry Christmas & Happy New Year. Don't worry, I'll still bother you over intercession (after all, doesn't everyone know your number? 331-0001)

FRAN—HERE'S YOUR personal, I know you expected it. Thanks for being there these last, how many weeks has it been? Sometimes I need a friend, sometimes I need a lover— you know that, you've seen that— and your there— we've both felt it. As long as we do we'll have more fun, exciting times to come— so I hope not to lose sight of it...By the way, was I your first (person to write you a personal)?

BRYNA, JIM & Ruth—Have fun away from the dungeon. Merry Christmas & a Happy New Year! See you in Jan. but till then, keep the faith. (P.S. Bryna, Karen still want George's underwear for Christmas.)

COLLEEN—WON'T next semester be so much fun without Evan? No more endless, insane arguing...no more 24-hour sports line...no more, "promises, promises," "hold me," no more, "which part didn't you understand..." no more...no more...it will be fun, won't it?

CARY & DAVE—Merry Christmas & a Happy New Year to you too! Rest up now because I'll be cracking my whip next semester. After all, you do want to learn how to run a zoo, right? (P.S. Cary, I'll buy.....I'll meet you by "your" office. Dave, you had better start recruiting. Wednesday nights will be awfully lonely w/o Cary or myself.)

MARTHA—GOOD to have you in the department. I expect 5 pgs. of ads from you for the first issue! (I'm not kidding either!)

MELANIE—IT'S a felony! Be happy. I'll miss you! Who'll be my "sister?"—Gigi

D-3—ONLY THING I can say is thanks for the memories of the last 4 1/2 years. I'll remember this hall especially, as well as those who have left already. Never forget all the great times, esp. the parties. Always carry on the tradition. God bless and Happy Holidays to the greatest hall on campus. Love—Andy

GLENN—HERE'S TO one more semester of insanity. I just hope for no more Ina meetings & etc.—Terry

SILVANA—MY FORMER chair mate, here's to graduating and leaving the dungeon. Who said Saint John's alumni don't go places!—Terry

JENNY AND KATY—I lucked out when I got one of you as a roommate and the other as a roommate. But the both of you mean so very much to me. You are two very special people. Thanks for being there when I needed you and for giving me an amazing semester. I hope that my luck never runs out that I lose neither one of you. Lots you both lots.—Lynn

HELEN—JUST taking "time out" to wish you a Merry Christmas. The jinx is alive and well.—Paul

JOHN (CTS)—YOU'LL always be there with me. We've been through much together. The times we've shared, tears, laughter, and fun have helped me grow. You're my special and best friend and I'll always be there. I wish you the best in the future— go for it! Remember 5/28/89! I'll miss ya! Love always—Norma

THE GREATEST roommate Eve— You've been a great part of my life. Times we've shared, thoughts, laughter will be cherished. You're beautiful and I know that I'll miss your understanding. Remember: all-nighters, dopey/grumpy, 3rd floor garbage drops, so alike and different, son-of-a-gouch, "it's 1:00, I let you sleep, go to bed," cleaning, garbage women of KC. Keep up the great work. Miss ya. Love and friendship—Norma

EVA, JENNIE, Mary, Lisa, and Lisa—You've been a special part of my life for the past year 1/2. You've given me a great start, wonderful memories and lots of laughter. Remember: bathroom convos, 3 AM bathroom cleaning, karikaze parties, Twirp's green elf boots, Shane's dancing, Eva's computers, Mary— she is there— no? Jennie's tie dye's, guys in 122, 118— you're the best, smurf slippers, fudgetown, mushrooms, garbage women and more! The best to you all, I'll never forget that KC 222— this is the place to be. Love always—Norma

DEAR ALISSA—It wasn't possible to dedicate the entire issue to you but I can still wish you a happy birthday. Next semester should prove to be interesting.—Paul

PAUL & MIKE (Douglass 220)—I hope that you guys can lose gracefully. No hash in the cordon bleu. Please.

THE BOYS OF B-12—Even though Whitmans is so damn boring you guys made living there a hell of a lot of fun (with the exception of the liberal & the purtain, of course.) Too bad Gus is leaving us next semester but we can look forward to the dude, I think. Well, this being a family paper I can't possibly express my true feelings, so — you all.—Me

ROOMMATE—I'll never forgive you for convincing me to move to the damn suites—it really sucks over there. I can honestly say that I won't miss your ugly face over the intercession especially considering that we're going skiing together. Anyway — you & the wife.—Your Roomy

DUKE—IF I could reach up and hold a star for each time you've made me smile, an entire evening sky would be in the palm, of my hand. Love—Norman

DEAR BETH—I want to thank you for being a wonderful person and the best girlfriend one can dream of. Last ten months were very exciting. Remember our trips to Playland, Great Adventure, the days (and nights) in Westchester and a lot of other good times we've had here at Stony Brook. Well, I hope we have many more good times together. (P.S. Got to call Bill to wish him Happy Holidays.) Love—Sergey

AS AD.... GRADUATING?? Congrats— but farewell to squash lessons, meaningful chats (and showers!) I'll miss you! Love and luck—Janine

33 HASKEL LANE—Good luck on finals Edes B., S.kkkk. L-hang out V., A. the great B., J. 4.0C., L. equant M.I Love and rent—J.never there K.

TO ALL OF you I've worked with this past semester—it's been great. I know some of you won't be here next semester, but I wish you the best of luck. And to the ones who will be back at the grind next year, let's try to be out of here when real people are out on the street. Good luck.—J.P.

HELENA—Happy graduation! We wish you the best of luck. We'll miss you!—The guys from 104.

BETH—YOU'RE the greatest. I'm very fortunate to have you as an RA, as well as a roommate. Love ya always—Colleen (Purplette)

TIMMY, BILLY, Hanky, Congratulations on your leaving the Brook. You guys are certainly leaving a lot of memories behind. Skank— The laughs, the drinking, and the partying have been many. Let's keep it up next semester during your weekly visits. Spud—I'll definitely miss your sarcasm, your Pasta-King pictures, and the "You're a DICK!" I'm counting the days till the Super Bowl, and till spring break. Slinger—I'll miss you more than I can ever tell you. There has never been a better roommate! You've taken a lot of sh-t from me, and never complained...I don't know why. Best of luck to all of you!—Cary

SUE—WELL HERE it is the last issue, only one more week and I don't know what to say. Some efficiency expert! Oh wait you can pick out my drapes, but you'll have to make an appointment with my secretary. Whatever the future holds for you, I hope that it makes you happy. If things look bad just tell me and I'll give Ed a ring. In the meantime, stay healthy and happy.—Jim

FATHER FITZ—Good luck with your future plans. We love you—A-14

PAPA TOSO—Congratulations! You're now a Stony Brook alumnus. Good luck in your future endeavors and don't forget us. We love you—A-14

STACEY "NO Name" Cohen—It doesn't stink having a little sister up here after all! Good luck on your first college finals week! And remember— Christmas Eve is only one more week away...Love—YAZ

Dear Glenn—You're stuck with us! Liz—Relax a little, will you. Photo Matt—Stay out of trouble. I know it won't be easy. Hundred Words—A whole semester at college and still? Barry—Doel Everybody else—Chill out, take it easy, and enjoy. Love—Andrea ADVICE—Never try to touch an old flame again...You just might get burned!

EVAN—WHAT CAN I say? Things aren't looking so hot now, and a small part of the blame goes to me. What happens next might be what you've been avoiding your whole life. It will also be probably the most significant part of your life. I hope things turn out well. Rena can teach you something you may soon need. It will help you immensely. As for the purple room, it will go down in history. The clash was quite amusing. Maybe we added a little bit of color to each other's lives, do you think? (P.S. Thanks for the new wife!)

TERESA—YOU'VE got more class than you probably realize. 83 was a good year. Let's not forget. Love—Howie

MIKE D.—SORRY I never have time to talk to you when you call the office. I'll have a lot more time to talk now that I'm graduating. Who knew when we used to talk about our prospective ulcers we'd get to be such good friends, not to mention documentary partners. Please keep in touch and don't forget the days of wine and newsreel. Love—Sue (P.S. Uh, guys...Hey...)

DEAR CINDI (The world's fastest tailor)—There's so much to be said for 1983...let's just leave it at "Merry Christmas." Love—Howie

ALANA—YOUR friendship has meant a lot to me. The memories we have, will be cherished forever. I wish you much happiness and success in the future. You're the greatest Mom. Love always—Your daughter Purple Princess

BROTHER BREUR—We have shared so many experiences together. Thank-you for always being there when I need you. Love—Your Purple Sis (P.S. Peanut M & M's are better. I can't wait for next semester honey!)

MR. PURPLE—WELL It has definitely been an interesting year. I have no regrets. We have shared a lot together, that will be a part of me forever. Time will tell what lies ahead in the future, even though "there's no such thing as a purple sunset." Thanks for being there for me. Love ya always—Purplette (P.S. You weren't such a bad guy after all! You blew it kid. Good luck with your marriage in Florida.)

DEAR ALANA—HERE'S to tea, curry, kingdoms and blackberry brandy. Good luck always and never forget that "it just doesn't matter" Love—A Fellow Squire

MARCIA AND CALENA—Remember that Saloon days, "disco chicks," and B-37? Yes, our wild, impetuous youth was fun, but life doesn't have to end after college. Does it? You know, "I was gonna do it, I was gonna do it but the knife wasn't sharp enough." Yes there were weird events then, too. You've both been an important part of college for me, and you're both beautiful people. Please keep in touch with the "real world." Much love—Sue (P.S. Marcia, I don't know where you're coming from, or where you're going to, but would you quit ruining my rap already?)

JAMIE—Where are you? We have to get together before you go to California and start your film career. I know, I know, you're a Leo and I'm Leo...and I'll regret it but I've got to stay in New York and well...Love—Sue

DEAR NORMA—After all that's been said and done, I still can't help feeling you're the only one. Merry Christmas. I love you. Love—Howie
