

Special Pre-Rally Edition

Statesman

Newspaper for the State University of New York at Stony Brook and its surrounding communities

Tuesday, April 13, 1982
Volume 26, Number 61

Major Rally Against Education Cuts In Fine Arts Center Plaza Tomorrow

Faculty Senate Endorses Plan

By Howard Saltz

The University Senate unanimously endorsed tomorrow's rally against the proposed federal budget cuts at its monthly meeting yesterday, at which faculty members were urged by student members not to penalize students who do not attend classes.

The rally sponsored chiefly by the undergraduate student government, Polity, has been endorsed by University President John Marburger, the Graduate Student Organization, the Civil Service Employees Association and the United University Professions, (UUP) the union that represents about 1,300 faculty and non-teaching professionals on campus.

The University Senate, which is composed of about two-thirds faculty, did not make any statement regarding the cancellation of classes, as some of the rally's organizer's had hoped, because it is not empowered to do so. Marburger, who can cancel classes, recommended that students having classes from noon to 3 PM while the rally is in session should go to classes and the rally as well, since few students have classes for the full three hours.

"I think a university is a good place for various forms of expression," Marburger said, "and I think it's [the rally] an entirely appropriate thing to do."

One problem, according to Polity Sophomore Class Representative David Gamberg, has been in reaching the faculty, although UUP President William Weisner sent letters last week and called department chairmen yesterday. He urged university employees to use their lunch breaks to attend the rally if they cannot take time off from their work.

The University Senate, brief in its discussion of the rally, did not discuss not penalizing students for missing classes, although that was supported by about a dozen students present. Yesterday's meeting was only the second time in this academic year that students were represented by more than one or two individuals at the Senate, even though undergraduates hold 10 seats. The only other time they turned out en masse was for the debate on the length of the academic calendar last semester.

Statesman photos: Michael Chen (top), David Cohen (middle), Robert Weiss (bottom). The Fine Arts Center Plaza (bottom) may look something like the streets of Washington D.C. last month (top) during a massive student rally against the President's proposed cuts to education programs. Polity's Mace Greenfield (middle) gave the University Senate a glimpse of tomorrow's rally at the Senate's meeting yesterday.

The Senate also applauded a statement by Assistant Sociology Professor Bruce Hare which emphasized the proposed budget cuts' effect on the lower classes. A hardening of the social classes will be the result of the cuts, Hare said, as some of the students who would attend private schools will be forced to go to public institutions, and economically disadvantaged students who would have gone to public schools will be forced out.

By John Burkhardt

A handful of music groups and about a half-dozen speakers from off-campus will be on hand tomorrow at a Polity-sponsored rally protesting cuts in student aid programs tomorrow from noon to 3 PM in the Fine Arts Center Plaza.

Polity Sophomore Class Representative David Gamberg stressed that the rally is just a part of Polity's campaign against cuts in student aid, but said the rally was a special effort to energize the students, "to mobilize the troops, so to speak," and encourage everyone to keep working against the proposed cuts. He also said Polity wants everyone to feel that lobbying and protesting is enjoyable as well as work.

"We're gonna deliver with a dynamite show, if the weather is okay," he said.

Congressman Tom Downey (D-Amityville) and Michael Harrington, noted author and social critic, will be among the speakers, and Lou Stevens, a popular Long Island folk singer and a few other music groups that Gamberg said were well received by students during Fall Fest will be performing at the rally. Skits by campus performers are also scheduled.

One musical group, Horizon, will begin playing two hours before the rally begins in order to draw a crowd, Gamberg said. And music will continue after the rally is over.

"Students' power are in numbers, but numbers are worthless if people don't vote," said Polity Commuter Senator Barry Ritholtz. Polity and the New York Public Interest Research Group will be setting up voter registration tables at the rally. Ritholtz said that traditionally, students do not vote in large numbers, and this has kept congressmen uninterested in student concerns. By getting more students registered, he said, they would get Congress to take them more seriously.

"Hopefully, students will see this is important enough to show up. Even if they just register to vote it'll help. And they'll have a good time. This is the event of the year as far as Stony Brook is concerned."

Gamberg said they were hoping to draw several thousand people including some from Suffolk County Community
(continued on page 3)

wusb
90.1 fm stereo

and

Statesman

PRESENT

Marvin Kitman

Executive Producer

- T.V. Columnist, Newsday
- Television Critic, Tomorrow Show, NBC
- Irreverant Wit
- Executive Producer, The Marvin Kitman Show

TODAY

Noon - 1:15

Lecture Hall 111

Riots Sweep Jerusalem

Jerusalem (AP) — Palestinians rioted throughout the occupied territories yesterday, enraged by a Jewish gunman's attack on the hallowed Temple Mount. Israeli troops and police used rifle fire, rubber bullets and tear gas to battle the worst Arab rioting in years.

Israel Television counted 30 disturbances in Arab East Jerusalem, the occupied West Bank and Gaza Strip, and said 30 people were wounded — 16 Palestinian Arabs hit by Israeli gunfire in four separate riots and 14 Israelis or foreign tourists mostly injured by rocks hurled by Arab rioters. One soldier, hit by a rock in Nablus West Bank, was among the Israelis injured. A television cameraman suffered a bullet wound in the shoulder, apparently from a ricochet in the narrow lanes of Jerusalem's walled city.

Police sources, meanwhile, said the suspect in the Easter Sunday shooting would appear before a magistrate today. Police have imposed a news blackout on the suspect on orders of Interior Minister Yosef Burg, but sources in the investigation confirmed state radio reports that he is Alan Harry Goodman, 38, an American immigrant.

A rooming house manager in Baltimore, Maryland, saw a photo of the suspect and told the Associated Press that he "definitely" recognized the man as a former tenant. "He wasn't much of a person to talk to. He was sort of a loner," said Emory Martinez.

The gunman shot his way through the gates of Temple

Mount Sunday and burst into the golden-domed Mosque of Omar, spraying bullets from an M-16 automatic rifle. Police said two Arabs were killed and nine wounded before his ammunition ran out and he was arrested inside the mosque, also known as the Dome of the Rock.

The attack on Temple Mount, Islam's third-holiest shrine, immediately sparked Moslem rioting in Jerusalem the continued yesterday and spread to the West Bank and Gaza. The new disturbances raised the level of violence in the occupied territories where calm had been returning after two weeks of turbulence that started when Israeli authorities fired three Palestinian nationalist mayors in West Bank cities.

-News Digest-

-International-

London — U.S. Secretary of State Alexander Haig said after 11½ hours of talks yesterday with British leaders that "time is slipping away from us" in averting a South Atlantic war between Britain and Argentina over the Falkland Islands.

He said "substantial difficulties" remained between the two sides despite "some progress" and that he was flying back to Buenos Aires for a second round of talks with Argentina's leaders.

"There is no truce of hesitation or pause in any of the military preparations, as I understand them, that are underway," he said. Asked if he was more hopeful after his second trip to London in five days, Haig replied, "Not at all. Not at all."

Yesterday, Britain carried clamped a naval blockade around the South Atlantic islands seized by Argentine forces on April 2. Britain's 149-year sovereignty over the islands is disputed by Argentina. Four British hunter-killer submarines are at the Falklands with orders to sink any Argentine ships violating the 200-mile war zone.

Argentina, apparently at Haig's urging, called its navy back to port before the zone went into effect at 11 PM EST Sunday, but it has made clear it considers the blockade aggression that would have to be removed by force if Haig's efforts failed.

British Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher announced she was recalling the House of Commons from Easter recess on Wednesday afternoon for a one-day session to brief lawmakers on the outcome of Haig's shuttle diplomacy.

Warsaw, Poland - Radio Solidarity, a clandestine station broadcasting music, news and advice on how to resist martial law, went on the air for the first time yesterday and accused the official media of lying.

It was the first broadcast by resistance forces in Poland since Premier Wojcievh Jaruzelski declared martial law Dec. 13 and suspended Solidarity, the only independent union in the Soviet bloc.

-National-

Washington — AFL-CIO President Lane Kirkland wants the labor federation to unite behind a candidate for the 1984 Democratic presidential nomination well in advance of state primaries and caucuses, a move he hopes would enhance labor's influence in the party.

But many politicians and union officials said yesterday they thought Kirkland's plan would be difficult to implement and could backfire on organized labor. All of the people who talked about the plan did so only when assured they would not be identified.

Trenton, New Jersey - Republican financier Nicholas Brady was appointed to the U.S. Senate yesterday to serve the seven months remaining in the term of Democrat Harrison Williams, who resigned because of Abscam.

Following the announcement by Governor Thomas Kean, Brady, 52, immediately ruled out any possibility he would be a candidate in the November election for a full six-year term.

Brady, an advisor and contributor to Kean's campaign last year, will be the 54th Republican in the Senate. This extra GOP vote could be crucial on many issues, including President Reagan's controversial fiscal 1983 budget.

-State and Local-

Albany, New York — Hopes dimmed yesterday for an agreement between negotiators for the New York State Assemble and Senate on a new statewide redistricting plan before a court-ordered Friday deadline.

Aides to Senate Majority Leader Warren Anderson (R-Binghamton), revealed that Senate attorneys have filed papers asking a special federal court to stay its own ruling and give the Legislature more time to agree on a plan.

That application for a stay was filed late Friday with the 2nd US Circuit Court of Appeals in New York City, according to Anderson spokesman Charles Duman. The aide said that the stay applies only to the redistricting plans for seats in the state Assembly and Senate.

Buffalo, New York — White Army Pvt. Joseph Christopher, charged with the .22-caliber slayings of three black males in the Buffalo area, told people at Fort Benning, Georgia, that he was a mass murderer of blacks, a prosecutor said yesterday.

"While down there he began bragging how he hates blacks — how he hates niggers," said Albert Ranni, an assistant district attorney of Erie County. "He told them, 'I'm the mass murderer in Buffalo, New York. I killed them because it was just something I had to do.'"

Ranni outlined the state's case to Justice Fredrick marshall in state Supreme Court at the start of the 26-year-old defendant's trial on the charges of killing the blacks in the fall of 1980. Because Christopher waived his right to a jury trial, Marshall will determine his guilt or innocence.

Schenectady, New York — More than 1,000 strikers sealed off all gates of the sprawling General Electric Co. plant most of the day yesterday in protest of GE's policy on sending work to other plants.

There were no arrests and just one reported injury in the massive strike. Ed Barry, a striker, was hospitalized for X-rays of one knee after complaining that a car driven by a salaried worker had struck him.

Carey Nixes Extra Funds for SUNY

Albany (AP)—Gov. Hugh Carey cut more than $900 million from the state budget late last night, including the legislature's proposed extra funding of $17 million for SUNY.

Faced with a midnight deadline,

Carey spent much of the day yesterday affixing his signature to 187 separate objections to the budget which he had claimed was more than $500 million out of balance.

Gone is virtually all of the increased funding the Legislature authorized on March 31 when it approved its $27 billion plus budget.

Besides deleting almost all of the money the Legislature had proposed for SUNY, Carey cut virtually all of the additional $15.5 million for the City University of New York.

It was not immediately known if the Legislature intends to override Carey's veto. (See tomorrow's Statesman for a more complete look at the Legislature's SUNY proposal and the governor's veto.)

Rally Tomorrow

(continued from page 1)

College and Ward Melville High School, and the Stony Brook faculty and employees.

Polity officials are also planning a handful of side events to make the rally more interesting so more students will participate. Included in the events will be a banner-making contest and releasing 2,500 helium balloons. The hall that makes the best protest banner will receive a free keg of beer, according to Polity Freshman Class Representative Belina Anderson. She added that the dormitory that makes the best banner will receive four kegs, while if both winning banners are from the same building they'll get an extra keg.

The balloons will carry messages protesting cuts in student

Weather for Wednesday's rally is expected to be sunny and pleasant according to the National Weather Service. Temperatures are predicted to reach 65 degrees.

aid, asking the people that find them to mail them to their congressmen.

Polity officials continued discussing other ideas last night, including the availability of t-shirts and bumperstickers at the rally.

Gamberg said if the weather turns bad, the rally will be held in the Stony Brook Union Ballroom. "We can tolerate a little wind and cold," he said. "People can just dress warmer and hang out for a great show."

"This is a united effort between students, faculty, administrators and staff," Ritholtz said. "The so-called 'swing to the right' has been exaggerated. People still want money for jobs and education."

Gamberg said that the "massive publicity campaign" Polity had launched to draw people to the rally was the largest effort to reach people that Polity has ever made, including flyers that are printed backwards, but will read normally when people see them in bathroom mirrors. "We're crazy," he said, "But we're having fun doing it."

In addition to the flyers Gamberg said banners will be set up around campus and flyers will be placed on cars. Residents Assistants will be called and urged to tell people on their halls to go to the rally.

Anderson said a handful of campus businesses are offering special discounts tomorrow to show their support for the rally, including Baby Joey's, the Hard Rock Cafe, Whitman Pub, the End of the Bridge Restaurant and Dale's Ice Cream Parlor.

Statesman/Dom Tavella

Statesman/Dom Tavella

Congressman Tom Downey (D-Amityville), University Affairs Vice-President James Black and Polity President Jim Fuccio will be among those speaking at tomorrow's rally...

Who'll Be There And Who Won't

By John Burkhardt

Michael Harrington, a professor of political science at the City University of New York and a widely known author and social critic, and Congressman Tom Downey (D-Amityville), who has strongly opposed President Ronald Reagan's proposed cuts in education programs, will be among the half-dozen speakers at tomorrow's Rally on Cuts in the Fine Arts Center Plaza between 12 noon and 3 P.M.

Hugh Cleland, a professor of History at Stony Brook, said that Harrington's book The Other America had influenced then President John Kennedy to launch his "war on poverty," and that Harrington was an advisor to both Kennedy and President Lyndon Johnson, and in addition, was active in supporting the civil rights movement and the anti-Vietnam War movement and often appears on television talk shows.

Polity Sophomore Representative David Gamberg said that 10 to 15 elected officials were invited "for various reasons," such as the fact that they were against the proposed cuts, and were from Long Island, but that most said they had other engagements.

Polity President Jim Fuccio will be speaking and will introduce the other speakers who will include Jim Black, Stony Brook's vice-president for University Affairs, Kenneth Anderson, director of the Brookhaven branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, Charles Scalfani, president of Stony Brook's Civil Service Employees Association and Physics Professor Max Dresden. William Wiesner, president of the Core Campus Chapter of United University Professions (UUP), said he is trying to get a state UUP leader to speak, but would otherwise do it himself.

Gamberg said State Assemblyman George Hochbrueckner (D-Coram) is also a possible speaker.

Gamberg said that the people who turned down the invitation included democratic gubernatorial nomination seekers New York City Mayor Edward Koch and Lieutenant Governor Mario Cuomo, State Senator James Lack (R-Huntington), State Assembly Speaker Stanley Fink (D-Brooklyn), State Senator Ken LaValle (R-Port Jefferson), Senator Alphonse D'Amato (R-New York), Senator Daniel Moynihan (D-New York) and Congressman William Carney (R-Hauppauge).

Statesman/David Cohen

Statesman/David Jesse

...but University President John Marburger and senators Al D'Amato and Daniel Moynihan are among those who turned down invitations. Marburger has stated his support for the rally, but will be out of town when it occurs.

HELP WANTED

- Delivery Person (must have reliable car)
- Part Time Inserters/Folders

Statesman

Contact David at 246-3690

I WANT
YOU OUT OF SCHOOL!

MASS RALLY

April 14 at HIGH NOON

Fine Arts Plaza

Campus Rally Specials

Baby Joey's Heinekens 75cents

Whitman Pub. Beer Specials

Hard Rock Cafe

End of Bridge Restaurant

Dales Ice Cream

All offering specials to be announced

I

SUNY

STONY BROOK

Invest Now Or Pay Later

Tomorrow's rally against President Ronald Reagan's proposed cuts to education programs that caring, interested people will try to attend. Skeptics and the apathetic might not, but they should think of it in this way: the rally is an investment.

It's an investment in the future. We can devote a few hours tomorrow, taking away from what may very well be busy schedules. Or we can stay home, and pay for our inactivity later when the President's proposals go through because there was not enough public sentiment against them.

Rather than wait until that happens, why not take three hours, or part of three hours, now, so that we have the three hours at school next year?

As for cancelling classes, which some of the rally organizers were seeking, we think faculty members should excuse students—and themselves—from classes during that period. Yes, the university's prime concern is in academia. And yes, what happens if there is a worthy cause next week and the week after that. But a successful demonstration such as this can be part of the educative process; and if there are other worthy causes, we can cross those bridges when we get to them. But we'd better cross this bridge while we have the opportunity. We might not much longer.

THE CUTBACK OF NOTRE DAME.

OHIO STATE, STANFORD, YALE, WISCONSIN, IOWA, FRESNO STATE, UCLA, HARVARD, CLEVELAND STATE, PENN STATE, VILLANOVA, ARIZONA, CAL POLY, LSU, HOLYOKE, ALABAMA, TEXAS TECH, DUKE, CLEMSON, KANSAS, OBERLIN, COLUMBIA, KENT STATE, GEORGIA, VIRGINIA, N. CAROLINA, MISSOURI...

-Letters-

Cancel Classes For Three Hours —Or for Good

To the Editor:

Tomorrow, from 12 PM to 3 PM the Student Polity is holding a rally to fight the budget cuts in education by the Reagan Administration. These cuts are going to effect all of us at Stony Brook—not only the students, but the faculty and staff. It is an occasion for the University community to unite and let Washington know that Stony Brook is strongly opposed to these cuts. We can only be effective if we have a large turnout. Congressman Tom Downey, Activist Michael Harrington and others will be joining us.

On behalf of the Polity Senate, I am urging the faculty and the administration to unofficially cancel classes within the above time period in order that both the faculty and the students can take part in this very crucial event together.

It is time for us to realize how disastrous these cuts are going to be to Stony Brook. How many courses will be cancelled next semester with the budget cuts? Let us consider this and make an affirmative decision to cancel classes for three hours rather than for good. I hope to see you all at the rally.

Babak Movahedi
President Pro-Tempore
Polity Senate

A Plea to The Campus Community

To the Editor:

SUNY is designed to be a system of universities and colleges for all men and women. The budget and aid cuts are forcing the universities to be only for the rich. We have to fight to keep poor and middle class youth educated. Only with your help, guidance and support can we prove to the voters, tax payers and representatives that we believe in the principle of higher education and the philosophy of equal opportunity. Only if we fight to keep the options open for all of today's youth, can we expect great leaders of tomorrow. We cannot allow the foundation and principles that SUNY was built on, and continues to thrive on, disintegrate. We must rally together and stop the education and aid cuts before they happen. If they are passed, it will be too late to cry out. The time to fight is now.

Come to the rally in the Fine Arts Plaza tomorrow, from noon to 3 PM. It's the future of our country we are fighting for.

The Polity Council Cuts Will Affect Our Greatest Asset—The Young

To the Editor:

As chairman of the Senate Higher Education Committee, I am deeply concerned over the affect that proposed cuts in federal aid to students will have on one of the State's most valuable assets—the young people in our colleges and universities.

Because of the severity of the reductions in aid and the devastating impact it will have on both private and state supported colleges and universities, I appealed directly to President Reagan asking his personal intervention in mitigating the proposed cuts. Now I am scheduled to meet with Congressional leaders and officials of the Education Department in Washington to impress upon them the seriousness of the problem and the dangers it presents.

The proposed cuts represent a 44 percent reduction in five programs from levels that have already been severely cut back for the current year. One out of four students in the State face loss or reduction of support at the current levels and the proposed cuts for 1983 would make the situation considerably worse.

These additional cuts would have a disastrous effect on higher education. If the proposed figures were adopted, the Guaranteed Student Loan Program would not only exclude many undergraduate and graduate students from continuing their education, but would also reduce the access and choice in pursuing educational goals for thousands more. The loss of more than 85,000 loans for New York State residents would be the result of eliminating the graduate students alone from the program.

Such restriction of opportunities for higher education to the leaders of tomorrow can only be counter-productive in an economy that is more and more dependent for growth on technology, science and other areas of higher education.

I will also point out that New York State has a record that is probably superior to all other states in its use of federal student aid programs. If Washington is concerned about spending, those states which manage federal programs well should suffer the least and funds should continue to go where they are used to maximum advantage.

Kenneth P. LaValle
(Editor's note: The writer is the state senator from this district.)

Statesman

Howard Seltz
Editor-in-Chief

Laura Craven
Managing Editor

David M. Durst
Business Manager

Dom Tavella
Associate Editor

Acting News Director
News Editors
Assistant News Editors

John Burkhardt
Glenn Taverna, Mitchell Wagner
Robert Gorski, Steven Ruder

Sports Director
Sports Editors

Peter Wishnie
Ronna Gordon, Craig Schneider

Alternatives Directors
Arts Editor

Barbara A. Fein, Vince Tese
Alen Golnick

Assistant Arts Editors
Alternatives Promotional Assistant

Hiram Maxim, Nancy Tamosaitis
Ariene Eberle

Acting Photo Director
Photo Editors

Robert Weiss
Michael Chen, David Cohen, David Jesse
Michael Hatzakis, Philip A. Sauer

Assistant Photo Editors

Advertising Manager
Assistant Business Manager

Artie Lewis
Jack Hurlihan

Production Manager

James J. Mackin

Editorials represent the majority opinion of the Editorial Board and are written by one of its members or a designee.

-Quagmire Capers-

Statesman cartoon/Anthony Detros

undergraduates

prime time is your time APRIL 14-23

Prime Time is a 10 day period just before and during advanced registration when each department and academic program schedules events that encourage out-of-class conversation between you and the faculty. Prime Time programs are intended to provide you with the information and advice you need to select your courses for next semester, to choose your major, and to inquire about other things such as special programs available, graduate and professional schools.

For freshmen and sophomores and others who have not done so, Prime Time is an excellent time for serious thought about a major. Many of the events were planned to help you with your selection. If you have one or more options, attend the events in those Departments and talk to the faculty. During Prime Time, you can declare a major in the College of Arts and Sciences by visiting the department office and signing your name.

Faculty advising hours have been increased for Prime Time and are posted at department offices.

All Prime Time activities are open to the entire University community. Review the program on the next three pages and pick the events of interest to you. Enjoy the good company and conversation.

PRIME TIME PROGRAM College of Arts and Sciences

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 14

Anthropology

Open House 2:30-4:30 p.m.
Multi-media Event: A Look at Anthropology
Slide Show: "Where We Are When We're Not Here"—2:30-3:30 p.m.
Movie: "The People We Study"—3:30-4:30 p.m.
Music: "The Sounds of Anthropology"—2:30-4:30 p.m.
SBS 5th Floor Lobby

Biological Sciences

Lecture: "DNA Cloning"—Professor Monica Riley—1 p.m.
Life Sciences Lab, 038

Career Development

Panel Discussion: "Choosing a Career and a Major To Go With It"—3-5 p.m.
Career Development Workshop,
Library W0540

Chemistry

Tapo/Slide Show: "Careers in Chemistry"—1:30-4 p.m.
University Commons, Graduate Chemistry, 2nd Floor

Earth and Space Sciences

Open House. Tours of Laboratories and Short Seminars on Department Research—5 p.m.
ESS 315

English

Film and Discussion: Shakespeare's Richard II—1-4 p.m.
Film—Lecture Center 105
Discussion—Humanities 283

Foreign Language Departments, Judaic Studies, Comparative Literature, Humanities, and Classics

Lecture: "Work Opportunities for Students of Foreign Languages and Comparative Literature" Professor Adrian Montoro—12:30 p.m.
Reception 1-3 p.m.
Library N3045

History

Open House—11 a.m.-2 p.m.
SBS 3rd Floor Lobby

Physics

Discussion: "Curriculum and Career Opportunities in Physics"—2-3:30 p.m.
Graduate Physics C120

Political Science

Open House. Meet the Faculty—1-4 p.m.
SBS 7th Floor Lobby

Psychology

Lecture: "Should Psychology Be Your Major?"—4 p.m.
Lecture Hall 109

Returning Student Network

Open House.
Student Panel: "Choosing Courses"
Academic Advising—12-3 p.m.
SBS S211

THURSDAY, APRIL 15

Biological Sciences

Advising Fair—1:30-4:30 p.m.
Life Sciences Lab Lobby

Career Development

Discussion: "Choosing a Career and a Major To Go With It"—3-5 p.m.
Career Development Workshop
Library W0540

English

Film and Discussion: Shakespeare's Henry IV, Part I—1-4 p.m.
Film—Lecture Center 105
Discussion—Humanities 283

Federated Learning Communities Advising

Film: "Long Island at the Crossroads"—12-2 p.m.
Old Physics 132

History

Faculty Presentation: "History and a Liberal Education"—3-4:30 p.m.
SBS N303

MONDAY, APRIL 19

Africana Studies

Open House.
Discussion: "Majoring in Africana Studies"—2-4 p.m.
SBS S226

English

Film and Discussion: Shakespeare's Henry IV, Part II—1-4 p.m.
Film—Lecture Center 105
Discussion—Humanities 283

Linguistics

Departmental Regular Tea. Everyone welcome—2-4 p.m.
SBS N514

Mathematics

Open House—3:15-4:30 p.m.
Math Tower P131

Psychology

Open House. Meet the Faculty. Declare your Major—Obtain Advice—2:30-4:30 p.m.
SSA 253

TUESDAY, APRIL 20

Art

Reception, Open House and Information Session—1:30-3 p.m.
Fine Arts, 2nd floor lobby of Art Department

Economics

Open House.
Discussion: "Economics as a Major"—3:30-5:30 p.m.
SBS 6th Floor Lobby

English

Marathon reading: "Sir Gawain and the Green Knight"—9 a.m.-12 noon, Humanities 283
Reception, 12-1 p.m., Humanities 283

Lecture with slides: "Sex in the Middle Ages," Prof. Donald K. Fry, 1 p.m., Humanities 283

Movie: "Monty Python and the Holy Grail," 6-8 p.m., Lecture Center 105

Linguistics

Open House.
Discussion: "Using Linguistics"—2-4 p.m.
SBS N514

Music

Student/Faculty Gripe Session 4 p.m.
Fine Arts I, First Floor, Undergraduate Lounge

Sociology

Open House.
Panel Discussion: "A Critical Appraisal of Contemporary Sociology," Profs. Lewis Coser, John Gagnon, Michael Schwartz—4-6 p.m.
SBS 4th Floor Lobby

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 21

English

Film and Discussion: Shakespeare's Henry V, 1-4 p.m.
Film—Lecture Center 105
Discussion—Humanities 283

Linguistics

Open House.
Discussion: "Teaching Certification and Teaching English to the Foreign Born"—2-4 p.m.
SBS N514

Social Sciences Interdisciplinary Program

Slide Presentations: "The Four Seasons of Childhood," "Images of China"—3-5 p.m.
SBS S207

Philosophy

Information Session: "What to Do With/About: Philosophy," 2-3 p.m.
Open House—3-5 p.m.
Old Physics 249

Religious Studies

Open House—2-4 p.m.
Old Physics 102-3

PRIME TIME PROGRAM College of Engineering and Applied Sciences

PRIME TIME PROGRAM W. Averell Harriman College

Admission to an Engineering Major

If you hope to take your degree in an engineering program but have not as yet been signed into the major of your choice, you should register during Prime Time in Old Engineering Room 127. During the summer, the Spring '82 transcripts of those who registered will be reviewed, and the College will accept as many in each major as can be accommodated. The decision will be based on grades in mathematics and the sciences.

Admission to the Major in Applied Mathematics and Statistics
A continuing student will be considered for admission to this major upon completion of MSM 131, 132 (or 125, 126, 127), 231, and MSC 111 or 112.

Admission to the Major in Computer Science
Students may be admitted to this major only after one semester at Stony Brook, and only after completing MSC 112, 120 and 201, and MSM 131, 132 and 231 (or approved equivalents) with a grade point average of at least 2.8 and with no grade in any of these courses lower than a C. (Note that C- is not acceptable as a qualifying grade.) No more than one repeated course will be accepted to satisfy the requirements for admission to the major.

Applied Mathematics and Statistics, Computer Sciences, Technology and Society

General Advising Session for MSA and MSC majors and EST minors:
Freshmen—Wed., April 14, 12-1 p.m., Math Tower P 131
Sophomores—Thurs., April 15, 12-1 p.m., Math Tower P 131
Juniors—Fri., April 16, 12-1 p.m., Math Tower P 131

Electrical Engineering, Mechanical Engineering, Engineering Science

General Advising Sessions for majors:
Freshmen—Wed., April 14, 12-1 p.m., Light Engineering 150
Sophomores—Thurs., April 15, 12-1 p.m., Light Engineering 150
Juniors—Fri., April 16, 12-1 p.m., Light Engineering 150
Open House for majors and prospective students:
Electrical Engineering—Mon., April 19, 12-1 p.m., Light Engineering 258
Mechanical Engineering—Tues., April 20, 12-1 p.m., Light Engineering 258
Technology and Society (demonstration of microcomputers, simulations, and programming)—Wed., April 14, 9:30 a.m.-4 p.m., Old Engineering 211

MONDAY, APRIL 19

Open House
Discussion: "Careers in Public Policy Management"—3-5 p.m.
Old Physics 312

TUESDAY, APRIL 20

Open House
Discussion: "Opportunities in Management" (of particular interest to current Business minors)—3-5 p.m.
Old Physics 312

Special thanks to the Stony Brook Foundation for providing funds for PRIME TIME open houses and events.

Roth Quad Presents:

Roth Fest

April 16 & 17 OUTSIDE!

Friday: Square Dance at 8pm

Campfire and Entertainment at 10pm till ?

Admission is FREE!

Saturday: Barbecue as long as the food lasts

$2.00 admission for unlimited food and soda!

Crosswind Band
at 10pm FREE!

BEER 3/$1

SB
Outing Club

will meet

Tuesday, April 13, 8pm in Union 223

Slide Show: Backpacking in South Africa

Plans: Canoeing The Housatomic & More

Come On Out !

Commuter College
Opening

and Italian Fest

Time; 4-8pm

Date: Monday, April 19

Place: Union Ballroom

Tickets will be on sale from
April 12 in the Union box office.

Fee $1.00 per person

General Meeting

Tuesday Nite 7pm

Room 072 Womyns Center

There will be a general meeting of the (Pre-Nursing Society) on wednesday, April 14th at 7pm in union room 231.

T-Shirts will be given out. New members are always welcome!

Steal Your Roommate's Bed Sheet ★

BANNER CONTEST

• Best Hall Banner. 1Keg Beer

• Best Building Banner. 4 Kegs of Beer

IF Your Hall And Building Win. . . . 6 Kegs Of Beer

FREE PAINT FOR ALL BANNERS

Stop By POLITY Room 258 SB UNION

★ Or Anything Else You Can Find

For More Information Call 246-3673,74

WANTED

Human Billboards For Rally

★ FREE! Rally T-Shirts

RALLY AGAINST

EDUCATIONAL CUTS APRIL 14, 1982