

YOUR CAREER - Tuesday, May 6, 1986

INTRO UP AND UNDER

Hi, everybody. Welcome to "Your Career," a program designed to help those of you interested in learning about careers in various fields. This evening, we'll be covering careers in health care. We'll introduce a few professionals in the field and then we'll take your telephone calls. Yes, this is a live telephone talk show. You can call to get answers to your questions about careers in health services.

The program is sponsored by the Alumni Association of the State University of New York at Stony Brook and brought to you by WUSB as a public service. If you have a pencil handy, please write down our telephone number --- 246-7901. You can call that number in a few minutes and talk to our guests --- 246-7901.

We have four guests to take your questions. Let's start with the youngest, Dr. Jeffrey Payne. Jeff Payne will received his doctor's degree in dental surgery at Stony Brook's commencement ceremonies May 18. He will be happy to talk with you about career in dentistry.

Maryanne Bezyack is at Stony Brook's School of Nursing as assistant to the dean for clinical affairs. You can call her with questions about nursing careers.

Our third guest is Michael McLain, He is director of volunteer services at University Hospital, here at Stony Brook. Michael will cover RECRUITING, TRNG TO COORDINATING the workers of hospital vds.

Our fourth guest is John Agoglia, who is a social worker. John earned his degree in 1980 at the School of Social Welfare at Stony Brook. And, of course, he will be taking your calls on the field of social welfare work.
