SUNY SIDE UP - Nov. 25, 1981

The name of the theme song is "Sunny Side Up";
the name of the program, ~~XX~~ "SUNY Side Up."

Hi, everybody. This is Al Oickle at the State University of New York ~~at Stony Brook.~~ Today's program will be somewhat different from the usual SUNY Side Up. There will be <sup>relatively</sup> a little talk and a lot of music from the Long Island Brass Guild quintet. Here's a sample, ~~arranged by Handel~~ a fanfare by Paul Dukas written for the ballet, "La Peri" (pay-ree):

TAPE: ~~arranged by George Frederic Handel~~ Fanfare by Dukas

AFO: The Long Island Brass Guild is very special.
All of its six members have degrees from the SUNY ~~system~~...in fact, 11 of their 12 degrees are from SUNY. All have master's degrees from the State University at Stony Brook. The Guild is the parent organization for two musical groups, a quintet and a trio. Representing the organization ~~with~~ is one of the two trumpet players, Douglas Mendocha.

INTERVIEW with Mendocha

AFO: And now, without interruption, the Long Island Brass Guild will perform the following selections: Two Arias by George Frederic Handel; the fourth, or Vivo, movement from <sup>Victor</sup> Ewald's Quintet No. 3;
~~the Folksongs of William Schmidt's Suite No. 2, first the Rose & Tree,~~
~~then the Plaintive Song, and finally concluding with the Coal~~
~~Vendor's Call; and, finally, selections from the American Brass~~ Band Journal, written about 1850, by G. W. E. Friederich.

WRAPUP: You have been listening to the Long Island Brass Guild quintet. The group opened with Two Arias by Handel; played the fourth movement of Ewald's Quintet No. 3; ~~offered three folkssongs~~ ~~from William Schmidt's Suite No. 2; and concluded with selections~~

by G. W. E. Friederich from the American Brass Band Journal.

This program, SUNY Side Up, will be off the air for the next two weeks, Dec. 2 and Dec. 9, in order to allow time for expanded presentations by Prof. Carole Kessner for her radio course, "American Jewish Fiction." SUNY Side Up will return to the air on Wednesday, Dec. 16, at 6 p.m., and continue weekly through intersessions and into the spring semester. In the meantime, Eric Price joins me ~~in wishing~~ in wishing all of you a pleasant and peaceful Thanksgiving weekend. Until Dec. 16, then, this is Al Oickle. So long, everybody.

*The quintet's next appearance at SUNY will be in a benefit program w/ The Chamber Singers at the PAC this night of SUNY
