

AL OICKLE'S SCRIPT: SUNY Side Up, Wednesday, Sept. 9, 1981, 6:00 p.m.

The music is "Sunny Side Up," the show is SUNY Side Up.

Hi, everybody. This is Al Oickle, your host on SUNY Side Up.

This evening, we're going to make a departure from our usual format. Tonight's show is being broadcast live. Moreover, this is a telephone call-in show...and the subject is the Department of Public Safety at the State ~~University~~ University of New York here at Stony Brook. My guests this evening are Hugh J. B. Cassidy, ~~acting~~ <sup>interim</sup> director of the department, and Steve Cohen, <sup>and Dave Field,</sup> who has been active with the <sup>Volunteer</sup> Student Dorm Patrol at Kelly Quad. I'll talk with Dr. Cassidy and Mr. Cohen in a moment, but first I want to tell you how the telephone call-in will work this evening.

The rules are simple. First, you must call us. We cannot call you. The telephone number is 246-7901. If you are calling from on campus, you need dial only 6-7901. We'll be repeating that number during the show. 246-7901.

Second, we ask that you speak only on the subjects of the Department of Public Safety. That's pretty broad, for it covers security, protection, crime, traffic and a wide range of topics. Third, we will insist that you not <sup>make</sup> ~~include~~ personal ~~remarks~~ remarks about anyone involved in tonight's subject. If you hear us shut off a caller, you'll know it is because we don't think Dr. Cassidy or anyone connected with his department should take any abuse about their <sup>personal</sup> lives.

<sup>Fourth,</sup> And finally, when you call us, please turn down your radio set. When you go on the air, loud playing will result in feedback that is annoying to other listeners and may ~~make~~ cause your message to be lost in a sea of sound. <sup>And finally, you need NOT give your name on the air.</sup> So, that's it...246-7901. Let's light up the switchboard.

SUNY SIDE UP Sept. 9, 1981

Areas to cover with Joe Cassidy and Steve Cohen:

- Motor vehicle registration and parking on campus
- Dormitory safety
- Courtesy to students (as "second-class citizens")
- Rape
- Thefts
- Vandalism
- Campus crime record vs. off-campus crime record

- 1 - Parking stickers
- 2 - Hats like troopers, police officers.
- 3 - Vending machine Apprehension.
- 4 - Why DPS at Play Lots.
- 5 - Compliments for Joe

WRAP-UP

Well, that's about it for another evening on SUNY Side Up.
Guests this evening have been Hugh J. B. Cassidy, <sup>interim</sup> ~~acting~~ director of the Department of Public Safety at the State University of New York at Stony Brook, and Steve Cohen <sup>to be tried</sup> of the Student Dorm Patrol.
Next week I will be interviewing Jim Fuccio, president of Polity, the undergraduate student government. And in the weeks ahead you will be hearing interviews with research scientists, <sup>and</sup> an historian who is chronicling the effects of technology on ~~women~~ housewives, ~~a report on witchcraft~~ and, on Oct. 14, another live telephone call-in show, this time on how <sup>listeners</sup> ~~you all~~ feel about WUSB, the campus radio station. Until next Wednesday, then, this is Al Oickle with SUNY Side Up. So long, everybody.