

HERE AT STONY BROOK Sept. 12, 1983

THEME UP AND OUT

Hi, everybody. Today our conversations unlimited, here at Stony Brook, will take a look at the situation that has developed as a result of what President Reagan has called the "Korean Air Line Massacre." ~~One~~ of the immediate results has been demonstrations. I went to one such demonstration ~~last week~~ <sup>ONE</sup> week after the destruction of Korean Air Lines Flight 007, and the loss of 269 lives. It was on the campus of the State University of New York at Stony Brook, which has a large enrollment of Korean and Korean-American students. Let's listen:

TAPE 238 - Starts with chant, then AFO: "I'm standing here...."

through 301 - "We would appreciate it if you could participate..."

We'll bring some more ~~papers~~ on the students' activities to you later today. In the meantime, we'll talk with two experts in Soviet affairs. Professor Gary Marker is assistant professor of history at the State University of New York at Stony Brook and Professor Edward J. Czerwinski is professor of ~~Germanic~~ <sup>Russian</sup> and Slavic Languages at Stony Brook.

~~Dr.~~ Dr. Czerwinski, I know you'll be going to the Soviet Union in the ~~weeks~~ <sup>2</sup> ahead. What has been your reaction to the ~~destruction~~ of Flight 007?

Professor Marker, you're a scholar of Russian <sup>going in Jan.</sup> history. Can you place the shooting of Flight 007 in a quick historical <sup>1</sup> perspective for us?

- Why did they do it?

INTERVIEW CZERWINSKI/MARKER:

- Was the Soviet delay in acknowledging their involvement a typical action?
- Was the delay simply to give them time to come up with some good excuses, such as the U.S. spy plane?
- How has ~~Reagan~~ handled himself?
- Is Adroprov's low profile typical?
- Will UN play any substantial role? Should it?
- How do you react to young Korean-Americans cry for international peace?

AFO LIVE: We'll conclude today's report on the shooting of Flight

007 with an emotional appeal from one of the student leaders at a peace demonstration just one week after the tragedy. ~~██████████~~ You will hear the voice of Jinyoon Y. Crawford, a Korean-American from New York who is a senior majoring in ~~electric~~ engineering at Stony Brook.

Listen:

27.00 TAPE 404 - "At this time we must ask ourselves..."

through to 421 - "...not to kill and die." Needs a quick cut.

THEME UP AND UNDER

That's it for today. Next week, we'll return to the program I had previously promised you for this week. We'll hear the music made by ~~A~~ a new machine---a recording computer called an emulator. We'll meet a couple of Long Island college students who literally make music. And we'll talk with a scientist who has been honored by having a newly discovered mineral crystal ~~██████████~~ given his name. Until next week, this is Al Oickle. So long, everybody.

JEANY CRAWFORD "269"

On last Wednesday, August 31, 1983, at 2:26 P.M. EDT (Eastern Daylight Time), the Korean Air Line 747 Jumbo jet liner leaving New York to Seoul was shot down by Soviet missile. This jet liner carried 240 passengers and 29 crew members, every single one - DEAD.

Although this rally is sponsored by Korean Student Association in Stony Brook, we, as peace loving college students, cannot ignore this crime against humanity. These 269 people could have been any one of us. Our prayers tonight are with the victims and their families in their time terrible grief.

We can not bring back the lives of those innocent victims, but something must be done so that such brutal act by Soviet does not occur again! Four of 269 were family members of our fellow Stony Brook Student - two of them were babies (2 and 3 years old). As many as twenty youngsters were on this plane. Why did these innocent youngsters had to die? Had Soviets considers value of human lives, 269 peoples' lives didn't have to be wasted.

What was Soviet's response to this tragie incident? Despite the savagery of their crime, the universal reaction against it, the Soviets refused to apologize for their criminal act. As matter of fact, they have said that they'll not hesitate to do it again under similiar circumstances.

We strongly demand the following:

Soviet should

first, admit the responsibility of massere second, apologize and compensate to the family of the victim.

third, stop the bloody game.

At last, we want our internation peace committe, United Nation, to do their best stopping these nonsense.

Thank you!
