MEMORANDUM

To Program Directors/Conversations Unlimited

From David Woods, Director,
University News Services

Subject Conversations Unlimited December-January schedule

Date Dec. 9, 1983

We're shutting down production for "Conversations Unlimited" for four weeks. It will not affect you if you are using the 15-minute version; we will provide enough tapes to sustain the continuity. It will not affect you if you are using the 30-minute version every second Sunday; you have enough to keep going.

The shutdown will affect you if you are using the 30-minute version every week. WUSB-FM, Stony Brook, will be running repeats. Here is their schedule, which may be of help to you:

Week of Dec. 12, 1983 - Writing problems
Dec. 19, 1983 - Martin Luther-Martin Luther King
Dec. 26, 1983 - Year in Review (NOTE: a 60-minute version is available for any who wish it.)
Jan. 2, 1984 - REPEAT: Year in review
Jan. 9, 1984 - REPEAT: Martin Luther; Martin Luther King
Jan. 16, 1984 - REPEAT: Show of Nov. 21, 1983 - Review of jazz and "1984" Part I
Jan. 23, 1984 - REPEAT: Hospital chaplains, and "1984" Part II (Show of Nov. 28, 1983)

We will resume original programing with the week of Jan. 30, 1984.

We hope this will cover all of you during this period. If you foresee any problems, please call. We have many other tapes available and will be happy to fill.

As always, we would welcome your comments on the programs, and especially any suggested topics you would like to see covered.

Happy holidays! From Al Oickle and all of us.
