

December

Page 1 - CONVERSATIONS UNLIMITED - Monday, Dec. 2, 1985

CONVERSATIONS UNLIMITED - MONDAY, Dec. 2, 1985

INTRO UP AND UNDER

Hi, everybody. Our subject today is labor and management. If that sounds to you like a dry conversation on a dry subject, you may be surprised. Labor/management is a field as complex as any science and as exciting as any competitive sport. Indeed, these two social institutions, labor and management, are often depicted as adversaries. In fact, they are adversaries in some situations. But not when it comes to education at the State University of New York at Stony Brook. They are united in helping support the Labor/Management Studies Program. Now that program has taken another major step forward with approval to become New York State's first campus qualified to award the advanced certificate in labor/management studies.

Behind this unique program is its director, Vera Rony. Professor Rony is not typical of all professors because of her background. She has had considerable experience in both fields. Perhaps with a bit of an edge in the field of labor, Professor Rony?

INTERVIEW VERA RONY:

- Review history of organized labor
- Review changes attributed to unions
- Review record of labor/management studies
  - * in U.S.
  - * at SUSB

14:00

We'll return in a moment for more about labor/management studies. Please stay with us.

BRIDGE MUSIC UP AND UNDER

Page 2 - CONVERSATIONS UNLIMITED - Monday, Dec. 2, 1985

Hi. I'm Al Oickle, and I'm at the State University of New York at Stony Brook with Vera Rony, who directs the Labor/Management Studies Program. Who enrolls in your program, Professor Rony?

INTERVIEW VERA RONY:

- Review courses offered
- Outline new Advanced Certificate program
- Describe some of recent alumni
- What lies ahead in labor/management studies?

29:00

OUTRO