

INDEX OF ON-LOCATION TAPES 1984-85

1. - June 27, 1984 - Al Oickle interviews George Bozman, builder of the Bach-Silberman organ (Bozemann opus 24), during rehearsal for premier performance by Jaon Lippincott (also interviewed) at FAC June 27, 1984.
2. - August 13, 1984 - Al Oickle interviews Mary Bocaccio, curator, Javits Collection).
3. - November 6, 1984 - Al Oickle interviews Dr. Paul Lauterbur, winner 1984 Lasker Medicine Research Award, for his founding of nuclear magnetic resonance imaging. Interview in his office in the Chemistry Building and portions used for Conversations Unlimited program aired Nov. 19, 1984, and later, and portions used on radio actualities Nov. 14 and later.
4. - November 15, 1984 - News Conference at Stony Brook - Press meets panelists from on-campus conference, "Religion, the Economy and Social Justice." Portions used on Nov. 26, 1984 "Conversations Unlimited" radio program.
- B - NCAA Public Service Announcements 1984-85.
5. - December 28, 1984 - Prof. Lazar Gosman, Music, rehearses two pianists, Ignat Solzhenitsyn, 12, and Natasha Paden, in Saint-Saens' "Carnival of Animals" at SUSB Fine Arts Center. Al Oickle interviews Ignat. For radio program aired Jan. 21, 1985 on WUSB-FM.
6. - Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s "I Have a Dream".
7. - January 21, 1985 - Martin Luther King Day - Main Theatre, Fine Arts Center, SUSB.
Tape I - Invocation - Rev. Robert Long
Welcome - John Marburger
Song - Brenda Braithwaite
Community Speaker - Rabbi Fisher
University Speaker - Vera Rony
Litany of Commemoration - Terrence Netter
- Tape II - Introduction - Homer Neal
Speaker - Ossie Davis
Benediction - Rev. Robert Smith
We Shall Overcome - Brennda Braithwaite

8. - February 14, 1985 - American novelist James Baldwin, introduced by Provost Homer Neal, delivers Distinguished University Lecture, on "A World I Never Made," at SUSB. Approx. 50:00 (Note: Lecture continues on Side B with a slight overlap of speech that concludes Side 1)
9. - May 19, 1985 - Commencement - Recording of WUSB-FM Broadcast Recording live broadcast of Commencement May 19, 1985. On-air commentator: John Vernile. Speakers include President John H. Marburger, Sandra Wilson '85, representing United Front for Action Against Apartheid, Betty Friedan.
10. - May 19, 1985 - commencement - as broadcast by WUSB-FM with John Vernile as announcer.
11. - September 5, 1985 - Jacob K. Javits lectures at Fine Arts Centre, SUNY/ Stony Brook, on the Reagan-Gorbachev summit conference in November 1985. Introduction by Homer Nea; (first) provost and Egon Neuberger, dean social and behavioral sciences. After talk, Sen. Javits is interviewed by the media.