

Interview with Senator Jacob Javits - Oct. 13, 1982

- 1 - President Reagan has proposed self-rule for Palestinians, in association with Jordan, in the Gaza Strip and West Bank. Do you support that proposal?
- 2 - There has been talk about another Geneva conference, or even a continuation of the 1973 effort, that would involve both the United States and the Soviet Union in the Middle East deliberations. How do you feel about renewing Geneva?
- 3 - The PLO's Yasser Arafat wants the United States to support an independent Palestinian State. Israel's Menachem Begin and Ariel Sharon are telling Americans, "You must back us. We expect that of you." Is there a way for President Reagan, the Congress and the American people to satisfy both claims?
- 4 - King Hussein with his federation plan for the Palestinians, and the Arab League's seven-member committee, about to meet with representatives of the United Nations Security Council, together seem to indicate some new pressures being brought on Arafat and the Palestine National Council. In fact, is there any hope for a real breakthrough unless the ~~Pak~~ PLO renounces its anti-Israel doctrine?
