CEIL:

With Labor Day comes a new academic year and a new "year" for the program, "Conversations Unlimited."

Attached is a summary of the 52 weekly broadcasts in the 1985-86 year. During that span, we had 50 original half-hour programs and two repeats (because of last-minute cancellations), involving 55 guests from 34 departments and offices at Stony Brook. All of the guests had Stony Brook affiliations.

Department representation follows:

Allied Health Professions	Mathematics
Anatomical Sciences	Mechanical Engineering
Anthropology	Medicine
Biochemistry	Neurobiology and Behavior
Conference and Special Events	Orthopaedics
Dental Medicine	Pediatrics
Earth and Space Sciences	Physical Education
Ecology and Evolution	Physics
English	Provost
Family and Community Medicine	Psychiatry and Beh. Sci.
Fine Arts Center	Psychology
French and Italian	Science, Math. & Tech Sci.
History	Sociology
Human Development and Educ. Policy	Student Affairs
International Studies	Asst. Vice Provost/Research
Labor/Management Studies	Vice Provost/Undergrad.St.
Marine Sci. Research Center	Women's Studies

During the year, Phyllis Frazier has been of great value in her own efforts and working with students assigned to assist in arranging for guests and other details.
