

CONVERSATIONS UNLIMITED - Demonstration Tape - 13:20

- 00:00 - 00:15 - Intro with theme
- 00:15 - 03:45 - A typical introduction to the show by host Al Oickle, including highlights of an interview with ~~Professor~~ <sup>Dr.</sup> Michael Barnhart, <sup>Professor</sup> of history, on the Japanese role in international trade, <sup>noting</sup> how Japan's manufacturing system compares with the U.S. system of capitalism and labor. (3:30)
- 03:45 - 05:30 - Alex Haley, author of "Roots," discusses the importance of family and ancestry <sup>D</sup> to Americans. (1:45)
- 05:30 - 06:50 - Dr. Lyle Hollowell, professor of sociology, <sup>2</sup> discusses violence in hockey. (1:20)
- 06:50 - 08:10 - Helen LeMay, professor of history, talks about witchcraft a topic covered during the Halloween season 1982. (1:20)
- 08:10 - 09:50 - Howard Scarrow, professor of political science, opposes political primary elections. (1:40)
- 09:50 - 12:50 - Former U.S. Senator Javits talks about the Mid East and President Reagan's policies, a timely discussion based on breaking news. (3:00)
- 12:50 - 13:20 - Outro, theme music.

NOTE: This is a sampling chosen to represent the variety of subjects and the timeliness of the topics. Each recording was made  when the subjects were current news.