

CONVERSATIONS UNLIMITED - 1986-87

- ✓ 1. - Sept. 1 - Al Oickle talks with Dr. Judith Treichman, Parent/Child Nursing, about her background as anthropologist and nurse, and use of poetry to teach nursing students

(NOTE: WUSB-FM 90.1 changed the date on which it broadcast this program from Monday to Tuesday beginning with Sept. 9, 1986.)

2. - Sept. 9 - Al Oickle talks with Dr. Marvin Kristein, Economics, whose research covers smoking in the workplace

3. Sept. 16 - Al Oickle talks with Dr. Ray Dattwyler, Immunology, about his Lyme disease research at Univ. Hospital clinic

- ✓ 4. Sept. 23 - Al Oickle talks with Dr. Robert E. Olson, Medicine, about his theory that not all cholestoral is bad for us

- ✓ 5. Sept. 30 - NO ORIGINAL PROGRAM

- ✓ 6. Oct. 7 - Al Oickle talks with Dr. Samuel Taube and Gary Mis, Office of Student Affairs, about SUSB's crackdown on crack

- ✓ 7. Oct. 14 - Al Oickle talks with Pat Murray, Stony Brook's new sports information director, about role of sports on campus

8. Oct. 21 - NO ORIGINAL PROGREAM

9. Oct. 28 - Al Oickle talks with Dr. Alan Abramowitz, Political Science, about predicted outcomes of November elections

10. Nov. 4 - Al Oickle talks with Steve Lorence, senior technician in wildlife division, Environmental Conservation, about wildlife laws and concerns in NYState

11. Nov. 11 - Al Oickle talks with Dr. Sheldon Reaven, faculty member in SB's new Waste Management Institute, about conference he ran Nov. 6-7 on radiation waste management.

12. Nov. 18 - Al Oickle talks with Dr. Jack Heller, Computer Science, about new computer networks on campus, in NYS, U.S.

CONVERSATIONS UNLIMITED - 1986-87

1. - Sept. 1 - Al Dickle talks with Dr. Judith Treichman, Parent/Child Nursing, about her background as anthropologist and nurse, and use of poetry to teach nursing students

(NOTE: WUSB-FM 90.1 changed the date on which it broadcast this program from Monday to Tuesday beginning with Sept. 9, 1986.)

2. - Sept. 9 - Al Dickle talks with Dr. Marvin Kristein, Economics, whose research covers smoking in the workplace
3. Sept. 16 - Al Dickle talks with Dr. Ray Dattwyler, Immunology, about his Lyme disease research at Univ. Hospital clinic
4. Sept. 23 - Al Dickle talks with Dr. Robert E. Olson, Medicine, about his theory that not all cholesterol is bad for us
5. Sept. 30 - NO ORIGINAL PROGRAM
6. Oct. 7 - Al Dickle talks with Dr. Samuel Taube and Gary Mis, Office of Student Affairs, about SUSB's crackdown on crack
7. Oct. 14 - Al Dickle talks with Pat Murray, Stony Brook's new sports information director, about role of sports on campus
8. Oct. 21 - NO ORIGINAL PROGRAM
9. Oct. 28 - Al Dickle talks with Dr. Alan Abramowitz, Political Science, about predicted outcomes of November elections
10. Nov. 4 - Al Dickle talks with Steve Lorence, senior technician in wildlife division, Environmental Conservation, about wildlife laws and concerns in NYState
11. Nov. 11 - Al Dickle talks with Dr. Sheldon Reaven, faculty member in SB's new Waste Management Institute, about conference he ran Nov. 6-7 on radiation waste management.
12. Nov. 18 - Al Dickle talks with Dr. Jack Heller, Computer Science, about new computer networks on campus, in NYS,US
13. Nov. 25 - Al Dickle talks with Dr. Roger Knacke, Earth and Space Sciences, about his ongoing work on Comet Halley
14. Dec. 2 - Al Dickle talks with Dr. Ted Kennedy, Anthropology, about the Vietnam era and the course on sit he's teaching
15. Dec. 9 - Al Dickle reviews the year 1986 with Dr. Judith Wishnia, Soc. Sci./ Women's Studies, and Mitchell Horowitz, Statesman editor-in-chief (part 1 of 2)
16. Dec. 16 - Al Dickle reviews the year 1986 with Dr. Judith Wishnia, Soc.Sci./Women's Studies; Dr. Bruce Hare,

17. Dec. 23 - Al Dickle talks with Dr. Robert DeZafra, Physics, about ozone studies carried out by him and four others
from Stony Brook in Antarctica this fall
18. Dec. 30 - Al Dickle talks with Dr. Patricia Roos, Sociology, and Dr. Ruth Cowan, History, about their research in feminist topics
19. Jan. 6 - Al Dickle talks with Dr. Peter Williams, Family and Community Medicine, about new developments in the "right to die" movement
20. Jan. 13 - Al Dickle talks with Dr. Sheila Blume, Psychology, about her research on women and alcohol

21. Jan. 18, 1987 - Al Dickle talks with Dr. Allen Kaplan, director of the Allergic Diseases Center, SUSB, about asthma and other allergy-caused illnesses.

22. Feb. 3, 1987 - Al Dickle talks with Thomas Tyson, Department of Career Development, SUSB, about career counseling.

23. Feb. 10, 1987 - Al Dickle talks with Dr. Jerry R. Schubel, provost and dean, Marine Sciences Research Center, about SUSB's new Waste Management Institute and his new book with Homer A. Neal on that subject.

24. Feb. 17, 1987 - Al Dickle talks with Dr. Dan Davis, Earth and Space Sciences, about his seismological work at estimating nuclear arsenals.

25. Feb. 24, 1987 - Al Dickle talks with Dr. Grover Whitehurst and Dr. Janet Fischel, Psychiatry, about specific language delay in children.

26. March 17, 1987 - Al Dickle talks with Dr. Paul Edelson, dean, Center for Continuing Education, about new efforts to help educate adults.

27. March 24, 1987 - Al Dickle talks with Aaron W. Godfrey, former director, Outward Bound, about efforts to keep young people in school.

28. March 31, 1987 - Al Dickle talks with Dr. Jay Schleichkorn, chair, Physical Therapy, about role of that health profession, and about his new book, "The Sometimes Physician."

29. April 7, 1987 - Al Dickle talks with Dr. Gerrit Wolf, dean, about the new Harriman College (changed about 8/1/87 to Harriman School) of Management and Policy; and about new ways of educating people for management.

30. April 14, 1987 - Al Dickle talks with Dr. Ruth Bottigheimer, Comparative Literature, about her new book exploring sexism and violence in fairy tales.

31. April 21, 1987 - Al Dickle talks with Dr. Daria Semegen, Music, about her appointment: first woman to have McKim Commission from Library of Congress to compose music; includes a recording of one of her pieces.

32. April 28, 1987 - Al Dickle talks with Dr. Richard Koehn, dean of biological sciences and director, Center for Biotechnology, about new partnerships between industry and campus researchers.

33. May 5, 1987 - Al Dickle talks with Alan Inkles, festival coordinator, about the second annual International Theatre Festival at SUSB in June-July.

34. May 12, 1987 - Al Dickle talks with two seniors --

Mitchell Horowitz and Christopher Hogg -- about what students expect about graduation.

35. May 19, 1987 - Al Dickle talks with Dr. Richard Friedman, Psychology, and Susan Demit, grad student, about their studies in causes of stress.