FORUM SPONSORED BY LIBRARY SERVICES COMMITTEE :

Date - November 13
Location - Library Classroom B
Time - 11:30 am - 1:00 pm
Presenter - Paul Wiener

Paul's presentation will be called "Searching outside the Box." (subtitled) What to do when the right answers are in the wrong places.

He plans to show attendees a variety of common sense-based and creative ways of finding specialized informational websites when Library meta-search engines and databases aren't enough, using live demonstrations from the web. Q & A welcome.

REMEMBER - NO FOOD ALLOWED AT THIS LOCATION.

CENTER FOR ITALIAN STUDIES + LIBRARIES PROGRAM:

On Thursday, Nov. 8, 4:00 in E-4340 a dedication and celebration for the Pietro di Donato collection will be held. The Center for Italian Studies is the location for this event. Speakers are Fred Gardaphe (faculty member at SBU), Louise Napolitano (scholar), Joseph di Pasquale (filmmaker), and di Donato sons - Peter & Richard. Refreshments will follow the program.

Our Special Collections department is fortunate to house the di Donato collection. Pietro di Donato has been referred to as the grandfather of Italian American literature. Come and learn about this collection and enjoy the ambience of the Center for Italian Studies.
