STAFF NEWS:

Aimee DeChambeau is the uncontested nominee for the position of Senator. Gisele will forward her name to Laurie Theobalt. Aimee will represent the Library at future Senate meetings. THANK YOU AIMEE!

The University Senate is the chief governance body of the University at Stony Brook, representing faculty, students, and professional staff. Senators represent their departments, academic units, and the undergraduate and graduate student bodies. A major part of the Senate's work is done by its Standing Committees, which consist of elected representatives of faculty, staff, and students. The Senate meets every month during the academic year.
