

Thank you...

...so much.

Love Glenn

Dear friends,

I thank all of you for your thoughtful kindness to my family and I.

The gift and basket is being enjoyed by everyone and it is a big help to have something ready to serve when someone stops in.

It really helps to know friends are sharing your feelings and I appreciate your concern and caring, and certainly all the support in getting through this terribly sad time.