About the Game

Stony Brook, the America East regular season champion and winners of 19 of its last 22 games, makes its second-ever appearance in a national postseason tournament Tuesday when it takes on the Seton Hall Pirates in the first round of the NIT. The Seawolves are seeded No. 8 and are taking on the No. 1 seeded Pirates, who finished tied for ninth in the BIG EAST this season and were one of the last few teams on the NCAA Tournament bubble. The winner of this game will go on to meet either No. 4 Mississippi State or No. 5 Massachusetts. Stony Brook appeared in the NIT in 2010, also as a No. 8 seed, losing to No. 1 seed Illinois, 76-66, at a sold-out Stony Brook Arena. This is the third all-time meeting between these two teams and the first since 2002. The Pirates won both games.

Scouting Seton Hall

The Pirates are one of the BIG EAST's elite teams, finishing tied for ninth in the superconference and winning 20 games overall for the first time since the 2003-04 season, which also represents the last time SHU made the NCAA Tournament. The Pirates last appeared in the NIT in 2010, dropping a first-round home game to Texas Tech. This year's team has been fueled by seniors Jordan Theodore and Herb Pope. Theodore is the team's point guard and averaged a team-best 16.0 PPG and 6.7 APG. Pope is SHU's best threat in the post. averaging 15.2 PPG, 10.3 RPG and 1.6 BPG. SHU's defense is ranked 83rd in the nation. allowing only 63.5 PPG. Opponents are only shooting 30.6% from behind the arc against SHU, which ranks 32nd in the nation.

Last Time Out

The Seawolves defense lived up to its name, holding Vermont without a field goal for the final 9:56 of the America East Championship title game, but the offense couldn't generate any rhythm, shooting just 29.3% in a 51-43 loss to the Catamounts. Stony Brook fell behind by 17 points in the second half, but fought back to get within four points with a minute remaining, but no one was able to make the big shot to come any closer. Dave Coley and Al Rapier each had 10 points to lead the Seawolves.

Back to the Postseason

This is Stony Brook's second appearance in a national postseason tournament in the program's Div. I history, both coming in the last three seasons. The Seawolves also participated in the NIT in 2010, hosting Illinois at a sold-out Stony Brook Arena. The Seawolves got out to a 7-0 lead and was only down two points at halftime before eventually succumbing to the Fighting Illini, 76-66. Bryan Dougher scored 21 points in the game to lead the Seawolves.

Hometown Game for Many

Playing a postseason game in New Jersey is exciting for the Seawolves, who have three players that hail from the state and two incoming recruits from there as well. Senior Bryan Dougher grew up approximately 15 miles away from Seton Hall in Scotch Plains. Also from New Jersey are sophmore Eric McAlister (Hightstown, N.J.) and Leonard Hayes (Voorhees, N.J.). A pair of 2012 incoming recruits are also from New Jersey. Forward Jameel Warney, one of New Jersey's top college recruits, is also approximately 15 miles away from Seton Hall in Plainfield, N.J. and attends Roselle Catholic High School. Guard Carson Puriefoy is from Wenonah, N.J.

Garden State Shooting

During Bryan Dougher's era (2008-12), Stony Brook has played four games in the state of New Jersey and has won all four, defeating Monmouth and Fairleigh Dickinson in 2010 and NJIT and St. Peter's in 2008. Dougher has played well in all four games, averaging 15.3 points, 3.0 rebounds and 2.5 assists while shooting 44% from the field and 45% from three-point range. As a freshman against NJIT on Dec. 2, 2008, Dougher had a then career-high 24 points on 6-of-8 shooting from the field and 5-of-6 shooting from behind the arc.

In Good Company

This is a prestigious NIT appearance for the Seawolves, who are among the nation's elite this season. They are one of 11 regular season conference champions among the 32-team field, including Pac-12 regular season champion Washington and CAA regular season champion Drexel. Stony Brook is also one of 14 teams in the 32-team field to have at least 22 wins this season.

Coach of the Year

Head coach Steve Pikiell was named America East Coach of the Year for the second time in three seasons after leading the Seawolves to the regular season championship. He has completely turned the program around in his seven seasons, taking charge of a program with no winning America East seasons in its history to annually competing for league titles.

America East Awards

Tommy Brenton was named America East Defensive Player of the Year, the first time an SBU player has earned the distinction. He and Bryan Dougher were named first-team All-America East, and Dallis Joyner was named to the third team. It is the first time in program history two Seawolves have made the first team in one season. Joyner was also named to the America East Championship All-Tournament team for helping lead the Seawolves to their second consecutive title game appearance.

The Tip Heard Round the World

Dallis Joyner tipped in an offensive rebound from a Dave Coley jump shot with four tenths of a second remaining in regulation to lift the Seawolves to a 57-55 win over Albany in the America East Championship semifinals on March 4. Joyner's efforts were highlighted as the SportsCenter No. 1 Top Play of the Week.

Senior Leadership

The season and careers of four Stony Brook seniors are winding down and they have been a part of a massive turnaround. Before Bryan Dougher, Danny Carter, Dallis Joyner and Al Rapier stepped on the court at SBU, the Seawolves had only won 84 games in eight seasons as a Div. I program. Since they got here, the Seawolves have won 75 games in four seasons and have captured two America East regular season championships.

The Offense is Flowing

Stony Brook has won 13 of its last 15 games and 19 of its last 22 and the offensive rhythm the team is in has played a large role. SBU is shooting 44% from the field over the last 22 games while averaging 66.8 points. Seven times during the streak, SBU has shot better than 50 percent and scored 75 points or more.

Don't Forget About the D

Not to be forgotten is SBU's defensive run during this 22-game stretch. The team is only allowing opponents to score 57.0 points per game over the last 22. Ten of the last 15 opponents have not reached 60 points, and the highest point total allowed in the span is 69. For the season, Stony Brook is 12th in the nation in scoring defense (59.0/game).

Bench Production

Stony Brook's bench is critical to the team's success. The Seawolves reserves average 19.0 points per game and consistently play solid defense.

D is the Key

The math is usually simple for Stony Brook and its defense: hold the opponent under 60 points and it's a victory. The Seawolves are 16-1 this season when holding their opponent under 60 points.

Rebounding Machines

Stony Brook has been one of the best in the country at rebounding this season, outrebounding opponents by a 7.9 margin (37.4 2.26 - Northeastern (2/18) to 29.5), which leads 3. 23 - Eastern Illinois (12/3) America East and is fifth 4.21 - UNH (1/16) 5.20 - Albany (3/4) the nation. What's more impressive is the work on the offensive end, grabbing a league-best average of 13.8 offensive rebounds per game. That is leading to an average of 14.2 second chance points per game. Stony Brook has had at least 20 offensive rebounds four times this season, including a season-high 22 vs. Albany on March 4.

Stony Brook Top Second Chance Point Performances of 2011-12

1. 27 - Mount Ida (11/13)

Home Streaks

Prior to losing to Vermont, Stony Brook had won a Div. I program record 14 consecutive home games. The streak surpasses the program's previous Div. I record of 13, which occurred between Dec. 2, 2000 and Dec. 4, 2001.

Power of Pritchard

Since returning to Pritchard Gymnasium prior to the 2008-09 season, the Seawolves are 38-15 (.717) in the building.

The Line's the Key

Stony Brook's win-loss record could be tied to its ability to get to the free throw line more than its opponent. SBU is 19-2 in games in which it has equal or more free throw attempts than its opponents (averaging 20.4 attempts in wins) and 3-7 in games in which it has fewer attempts than its opponents (averaging 11.4 attempts in losses).

Meet the Class of 2012

Stony Brook has signed three student-athletes to National Letters of Intent to join the Seawolves for the 2012-13 season. Coming to Stony Brook are forward Jameel Warney (Plainfield, N.J.), guard Carson Puriefoy III (Wenonah, N.J.) and guard/ forward Ryan Burnett (Richmond, Va.). The class is considered to be one of the best in SBU history. To read more about the class, visit GoSeawolves.org.

Dougher's Leaving His Mark

Senior Bryan Dougher came to Stony Brook in 2008 and will leave as one of the most decorated student-athletes in Seawolves history. Here's where he ranks in his career and for this season.

Career (Div. I records only)

- First at SBU and third in America East in 3-pointers made (333)
- First at SBU and second among active America East players in points (1,597)
- First at SBU in games played/games started (125/125)

2011-12 Season

- First in America East and 28th in the country in 3-pointers made (2.7/g)
- Seventh in America East and 51st in the country in 3-point percentage (.363)
- 11th in America East in scoring (13.2/g)

*Dougher is also SBU's all-time leader in single-season 3-pointers made (95) and single-game 3-pointers made (8)

Amazing Turnaround

Stony Brook's second regular 1. Vermont, 51-13 season championship in 2. Boston U., 46-18 three years continues to tell 3. Stony Brook, 43-21 the story of the program's 4. Mainle, 30-34
5. New Hampshire, 27-37 turnaround under head 6. Binghamton, 26-38 coach Steve Pikiell. In his 6. Albany, 26-38 first season, Stony Brook 8. Hartiord, 22-42 was 4-24 overall and 2-14

8. Hartford, 22-42

in America East. By his fifth season, the team won the league with a 13-3 record. Now Stony Brook has become a force in America East and is annually competing for the league championship. The Seawolves have the third-most wins in the nineteam league since the start of the 2008-09 season.

Incredible Academic Progress

Head coach Steve Pikiell came into Stony Brook with a team on NCAA probation for poor academics. In 2004-05, prior to Pikiell's arrival, the team's rolling Academic Progress Rate (APR) according to the NCAA was 880 and that particular team's APR was 804. In 2009-10, the team achieved a perfect 1000, and the rolling APR according to the NCAA was 951, an incredible turnaround in a short period of time.

Up Next

If Stony Brook wins, it will be matched up in the second round with either No. 4 seed Mississippi State or No. 5 seed Massachusetts. Date and time would be announced after both games are completed.

TWO-TIME AMERICA EAST REGULAR SEASON CHAMPIONS (2010, 2012)

A trip of a Lifetime

Stony Brook visits Europe over the summer

The Stony Brook men's basketball team had a summer like no other, getting the opportunity to tour through three historic European cities across 11 days while playing five basketball games. The first stop was Dublin, Ireland, where the team was introduced to a rich Irish culture. The second stop was London, England, one of the largest cities in the world, where the team saw some of the greatest and oldest architecture in the world, including Parliament and Buckingham Palace. The Seawolves finished the trip with a stop in Paris, France, where their sightseeing included a stop at the Louvre and included the need for a French phrase book.

Stony Brook did play some basketball, going up against five semi-professional teams and winning four of those games. The trip provided the team the opportunity to create chemistry both on and off the court. For all of the players except for Danny Carter (a native of Windsor, England), this was the first time any of them had ever left the country and they made the most of it.

To re-live the trip, please visit the team's official trip blog, sponsored by Newsday.com, at Newsday.com/sbu or check out the team's trip Twitter page @SBU MBB Europe.

HEAD COACH STEVE PIKIELL

Two-time America East Coach of the Year (2012 & 2010) 2009-10 Metropolitan Writers Coach of the Year 2010 Times Village Herald Man of the Year in Sports

Seventh Season at Stony Brook (95-117, .448)

Alma Mater: Connecticut '90

Steve Pikiell is in his seventh season at the helm of the Stony Brook men's basketball program, and he has truly built it from the ground up. Taking over a team with no Division I success, Pikiell has made Stony Brook a force in America East, compiling the third-best record in the conference since 2008, winning the 2010 America East regular season championship and reaching the 2011 America East Championship final. Now, with 12 returning letterwinners, including four starters, Pikiell has an experienced and talented group of student-athletes destined to make a run at the 2011-12 conference championship and automatic bid into the NCAA Tournament.

Although Pikiell won 22 games in 2009-10, he perhaps did his best coaching work during the 2010-11 season with a team that had come into the season with high expectations. The team was picked to finish second in America East and had returned four starters. However, injuries seemingly derailed their hopes. All-Conference forward Tommy Brenton was lost for the season with a knee injury, and the Seawolves racked up 55 player games missed throughout the season. However, Pikiell's squad persevered to win at least eight league games for the third consecutive season and powered past Albany and Vermont to reach the finals of the America East Championship for the first time in program history.

Pikiell had one of the youngest teams in America East during 2010-11, playing just one senior and giving regular time to four freshmen. His team made great strides as the season went on. Senior Chris Martin was named to the America East Championship All-Tournament team with his inspired play in helping the Seawolves reach the title game. Bryan Dougher became the program's all-time leader in three-pointers made and was named second-team All-America East for the second consecutive season. Leonard Hayes went from no playing time to a starter as he established himself as a three-point threat. Dallis Joyner was a force in the paint, leading America East in offensive rebounding. Freshmen Dave Coley, Anthony Jackson, Anthony Mayo and Eric McAlister all showed flashes of talent that signal the team's bright future ahead of it.

Pikiell has often preached defense, and the 2010-11 Seawolves provided plenty of it. The team ranked in the top 10 in the nation in field goal defense, holding teams to only 39 percent shooting. SBU was also in the top 25 in scoring defense and three-point field goal defense and led America East in all three categories. Pikiell's commitment to elevating Stony Brook men's basketball's profile was rewarded with a contract extension that will keep him at Stony Brook through the 2015-16 season.

Assistant Coach

George Washington (2001-05) Central Connecticut State (1997-01) Yale (1992-95) Connecticut (1991-92)

Pikiell's team was coming off a glamorous 2009-10 season, in which he guided the Seawolves to their best season in their 11-year Division I history. He led SBU to its first America East regular season title as well as a berth in the National Invitation Tournament, the program's first postseason appearance since moving to Division I.

Stony Brook set Division I program records for overall wins (22) and conference wins (13), and Pikiell became the first coach in school history to be named America East Coach of the Year. Pikiell was also recognized as the All-Met Writers Coach of the Year, the Sporting News America Coach of the Year and the Times Village Herald 2010 Man of the Year.

Pikiell's squad was rewarded for an outstanding season with a slew of postseason awards. Muhammad El-Amin became the first player in program history to be named America East Conference Player of the Year as he scored a Division I school record 517 points.

Named the 2010 America East Player of the Year by Sporting News as well, El-Amin finished his splendid two-year Stony Brook career just 29 points shy of 1,000. The 6-5 guard also earned Associated Press Honorable Mention All-America honors, was named to the NABC District I second team and was selected to the 2010 All-Met first team, all program firsts.

In addition, Bryan Dougher and Tommy Brenton each earned a spot on the All-America East Conference second team. Dougher ranked 10th in the America East in scoring (13.8 points per game) and set a school record with 95 three-pointers. Brenton led the America East in rebounding (9.7) for the second straight year and broke his own Division I program record for rebounds in a season with 311.

Stony Brook also continued to excel off the court under Pikiell as Andrew Goba was selected to 2010 America East All-Academic squad and became the first player in program history to be named the America East Scholar Athlete in men's basketball.

In fact, Pikiell has engineered a complete academic turnaround for Stony Brook men's basketball. In the year prior to his start, 2004-05, the team had a rolling APR (four-year) of 880 and a season APR of 804, one of the lowest in the country. In 2009-10, Stony Brook had a rolling APR of 951 and a perfect 1000 for the season, signaling the quality of student-athletes Pikiell has brought in and mentored.

The Seawolves finished 16-14 overall and 8-8 in the America East Conference in 2008-09, tying for fourth place in the final regular season conference standings. Stony Brook's improvement garnered national attention as Pikiell was named America East Coach of the Year by CollegeInsider.com

Pikiell was named the 10th head coach in Stony Brook men's basket-ball history on April 13, 2005, coming to the Seawolves with the reputation of being one of the rising stars in the collegiate coaching profession. Known as one of the top assistants for his understanding and ability to teach the game, Pikiell clearly demonstrated that he knew how to build a winner. In his two previous stops, Pikiell has been instrumental in seeing programs win conference championships.

Before arriving at Stony Brook, Pikiell helped orchestrate the rebirth of the George Washington basketball program under head coach Karl Hobbs. In 2004-05, the Colonials recorded 22 wins, the most since the 1997-98 season and the second most in 50 years, en route to their first-ever Atlantic-10 title and automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament. The 14 conference victories were the most in GW's Atlantic-10 Conference history, signaling a complete turnaround for a team that finished last in the Atlantic-10 in 2001.

The remarkable resurgence was punctuated with the Colonials appearance in the Associated Press and ESPN/USA Today Top 25 national polls in 2004-05. At GW, Pikiell landed two Top 25 national recruiting classes and brought four Top 100 players to the program. Two of Pikiell's recruits, Mike Hall and Pops Mensah-Bonsu, declared for the NBA Draft in June 2005.

Pikiell joined the GW staff in 2001 and in his third season under Karl Hobbs, the Colonials posted an 18-12 mark, a second-place finish in the Atlantic-10 West Division and earned a bid to the National Invitation Tournament. The second-place finish marked the best showing for the program in the previous five years.

Pikiell's responsibilities at GW included recruiting, game and practice preparation, scheduling of games, and assisting Hobbs with day-to-day operations.

Prior to GW, he served as an assistant coach at Central Connecticut State University (1997-01) which, prior to his arrival, had never posted a winning season at the Division I level. During his tenure at CCSU, the Blue Devils notched an 81-63 (.563) record, including a 25-6 mark in 1999-2000 and a bid to the 2000 NCAA tournament.

It marked the school's first appearance in the NCAA Tournament. He was part of a staff at CCSU that recorded three straight winning seasons including the 25-6 campaign which set a new Northeast Conference record for victories in a single season.

He was also instrumental in recruiting three players who won Northeast Conference Player of the Year awards in 2000, 2001 and 2004 including CCSU's first-ever NBA draft pick, Corsley Edwards. Seven of his recruits went on to earn all-conference recognition and he helped the 1999-00 team earn the highest G.P.A. in the school's Division I history.

A 1990 graduate of the University of Connecticut, Pikiell was a point guard, two-year captain and four-year letterwinner for the Huskies from 1987-91. UConn won its first Big East title and advanced to the Elite Eight and Sweet 16 during the two years that Pikiell captained the Huskies. He played in 106 career games and averaged 8.2 points a game as a freshman. In 1991, Pikiell was given the UConn Club Senior Athlete Award for outstanding contributions to UConn athletics. He graduated from Connecticut with a bachelor's degree in finance.

After graduation, he stayed on as an assistant coach at Connecticut under head coach Jim Calhoun in 1991-92. After one season with the New Haven Skyhawks of the USBL (1992) Pikiell spent three years as an assistant at Yale (1992-95). He then moved on to take over as interim head coach at Wesleyan, a Division III school in Middletown, Conn. for one year. Then, his former coach and colleague Howie Dickerman became the head coach at Central Connecticut State University and hired Pikiell as an assistant coach.

Pikiell enjoyed a storied career at St. Paul's High School in Bristol, Conn. The three-time all-state selection had his former No. 21 jersey retired after a career in which he ranks among the all-time leaders in points scored, assists and steals. He was inducted into Bristol's Hall of Fame in 2006.

Pikiell is one of nine children and has been an instructor at several summer basketball camps, including his own camp from 1991-99 in Cheshire, Conn. Pikiell and his wife, Kate, have four children: Brooke Elizabeth, 11, John Patrick, 9, Olivia Kathryn, 7, and Kevin Thomas, 5.
