03. Workshops/Courses/Training

1. Research Skills

You have a 15 page paper due and don't know where to begin. In this workshop, learn how to: get started doing research, narrow your topic, where to look for information (books, articles, and websites), use subject headings and keywords, and evaluate sources and create a bibliography.

Tuesday, March 2 @ 5:30 PM. Register @

<http://www.stonybrook.edu/library/services/instruction/workshops.htm>.

Submitted by: Yuet Tran/Lib

2. Census 2010: Counting Everyone Once and Only Once and In the Right Place

Is your native language English, Spanish, Chinese, Korean, Vietnamese and Russian or one of 52 other languages? This workshop will cover what is collected as basic Census information and how this Census differs from all previous ones. Come find out: how to find population data and other statistics for your research, how the Census and the American Community Survey differ from each other, how government education and other grant money is distributed according to Decennial (every 10 years) Census results, how private is the information you provide, what if I'm not a citizen, and where do students fill out the Census? Wednesday, March 3 @ 1:00 PM. Register @ <http://www.stonybrook.edu/library/services/instruction/workshops.htm>.

Submitted by: Yuet Tran/Lib

3. EndNote Web Basics

This workshop will demonstrate the basics of the web version of EndNote. In this session you will learn how to: create an EndNote Web library, import citations from online databases into EndNote Web, format a bibliography in Word using "Cite While You Write", and transfer citations to and from the software version of EndNote. Wednesday, March 3 from 2:30 PM to 4:00 PM. Register @ <http://www.stonybrook.edu/library/services/instruction/workshops.htm>.

Submitted by: Yuet Tran/Lib

4. Beyond Blackboard: Web Tools for Group Work

Group work is a fact of Stony Brook University life. Beyond Blackboard there are other collaborative Web tools and networks for enhancing group work, sharing content and managing projects. In this workshop learn: how to create and manage groups on the Web using wikis, blogs and more, tips and tools for online group work, how to share online content and research, including using Google Docs, using collaborative networks for scholarship, and where researchers and scholars share links and build communities online, including Connotea and LinkedIn. Thursday, March 4 @ 1:00 PM. Register @ <http://www.stonybrook.edu/library/services/instruction/workshops.htm>.

7. Beyond Bollywood and Broadway by Neilesh Bose: Dramatic Readings and Discussion

Neilesh Bose hosts and discusses a series of dramatic readings from the plays in his edited volume Beyond Bollywood and Broadway. This anthology of 11 plays, from North America, the U.K., and South Africa, many published here for the first time, reveals the vibrant, cosmopolitan theatre of the South Asian diaspora. These original and provocative works explore the experience of diaspora by drawing on cultural references as diverse as classical Indian texts, adaptations of Shakespeare and Homer, current events, and world music, film, and dance. Book signing to follow.
