4. September is Celebration of Community Leadership Month!

Faculty, student, or staff groups wishing to submit programs or events for inclusion on the September Diversity Calendar should submit them electronically by August 15th at the website listed below.

The month of September is an opportunity to showcase our diversity of leadership styles and community initiatives. Whether as individuals or as groups, each of us can bring a unique style, focus, and set of interests to our leadership and community endeavors. Opportunities for leadership skills and community development exist in every event, activity, or circumstance (student clubs and organizations, academic/class related events, spiritual/religious activities, student government, local politics, community/volunteer service, etc.).

Program Suggestions: Stony Brook Welcome & Orientation Events, Student Activism in the 21st Century, Leadership in Our Local Communities, Leadership Styles and Gender Issues, etc.

For more information, contact Lisa Montgomery, Chair - Committee to Celebrate Diversity (Office of Student Affairs).
