

Campus Announcements - Week of 04/23/01

Campus Announcements for the week of April 23, 2001

Camp Sea Wolf - Environmental Education Summer Camp

Camp Sea Wolf, an environmental education summer camp co-sponsored by the Center for Excellence and Innovation in Education and the Marine Science Research Center, will be held at Peconic Dunes in Southold. It is a week-long, hands-on, field-oriented environmental/conservation/outdoor education program for boys and girls ages 11 to 15. The program runs Sunday through Saturday with start dates on July 15, July 22, and July 29. The cost for this residential camp is $425 per session. For more information or a registration form, call Chris McCormick at 632-7697, or e-mail Cmccormick@notes.cc.sunysb.edu.

Submitted by: Christine McCormick/CAS

=====

Camerata Singers concert at Staller Center, Friday, May 4

On Friday, May 4th, The Stony Brook Camerata Singers will perform at 8:00 p.m. in the Recital Hall at the Staller Center for the Arts. The program features a variety of compositions that all praise Saint Cecilia, the patron saint of music. The central works will be a Benjamin Britten favorite, Hymn to St. Cecilia and the Audi Filia Messe of French Renaissance composer Claude Goudimel. In addition, members of the Camerata will perform solos duets, and ensemble pieces written for Saint Cecilia. These include arias by Handel and Purcell, and works by Liszt and Fanny Hensel. The conductor is Alice Day and the accompanist is Staffan Sandstrom. Both are doctoral students in Music at the university.

Tickets are $6 general admission and $3 for students and seniors.

Tickets are available at the Staller Center Box Office: 631 632-ARTS. For a complete listing of upcoming Music Department concerts, visit our web page: www.sunysb.edu/music. To receive a free Music Department concert brochure or to be added to our mailing list, call and leave a message at (631) 632-7330 or email music@notes.sunysb.edu.

Submitted by: Robin Pouler-Mcgrath/CAS

= = = = =

"Representations of Women and Work in XVIIIth-century France"

Conference and slide presentation Professor Geraldine Sheridan, University College, Limerick, Ireland to speak on:
"Representations of Women and Work in XVIIIth-century France"

Tuesday, May 1, 11:30
Library - Room N4065
Contact: cblum@ms.cc.sunysb.edu

Submitted by: Marie Sweatt/CAS

= = = = =

Biotechnology Expo

The Center for Biotechnology is sponsoring its Ninth Annual Biotechnology Expo on Thursday, April 26, 2001, 11:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m., in the Health Sciences Center, 3rd Level Galleria area. Companies will exhibit their products and R&D capabilities applicable to the research community. All clinicians, doctors, and laboratory personnel are encouraged to attend to view the latest equipment available from the 20 vendors who will be exhibiting. For further information call Rosemary Gaynor 2-8521

Submitted by: Rosemary Gaynor

= = = = =

Stony Brook Child Care Services Cash Bonanza is tomorrow, April 24th!

Win $15,000!

Stony Brook Child Care Services, a non-profit organization at SUNY Stony Brook, announces its 8th Annual Child Care Cash

Bonanza. Each $50 ticket entitles the bearer and a guest to attend a champagne and dessert gala on Tuesday April 24 (doors open at 7 p.m.; drawing begins at 8 p.m.) at the Stony Brook Student Activity Center, and a chance to win a FIRST PRIZE of $15,000, a second prize of $2,000 and a third prize of $1,000. Two $500 prizes, ten $200 prizes and fifteen $100 prizes will also be drawn.

Only 1,200 tickets will be sold-- and they are going quickly! Act now before tickets sell out! Buy your own or split the cost with a co-worker, friends or family. Support campus child care, savor delicious food provided by Three Village Inn catering and enjoy great odds of winning--1 in 40!

For information on how to buy tickets, call 632-KIDS or visit our Web site.

<http://www.sunysb.edu/childcare>

Submitted by: Katherine Kassel/Lib

= = = = =

Alternative Careers In The Bioscience Industry Seminar Series.

Join us for the LAST seminar in the series for Spring 2001. It will be a panel session featuring 2 distinguished industry leaders. Dr. Jules T. Mitchel, President, Target Health Inc. "$400M and a Decade Later - It's Time to Produce the Goods". Dr. Mitchel will be speaking on careers in regulatory affairs, clinical trial management, and cGMP production. The second speaker is Dr. Jason M. Alter, Marketing Manager, IBM Life Sciences Company. "Making it happen" He will speak about careers in technical support, sales and marketing. This seminar is open to all faculty, staff, students (undergraduate and graduate) and post-docs from the life sciences departments. Complete details on the seminar and speakers can be found at www.biotech.sunysb.edu. To attend, please RSVP at <http://www.acteva.com/booking.cfm?bevaID=13893>.

Submitted by: Angeline Judex

= = = = =

Baroque Spring Extravaganza - Sunday, May 6 at Staller Center

On Sunday, May 6, the Stony Brook Players Players, under the direction of Arthur Haas, will present a vocal and instrumental concert of masterpieces of the Baroque Age from the 17th and 18th centuries. Featured on this program will be two lush duo madrigals by Monteverdi, the ravishingly beautiful Easter Motet by Couperin, virtuoso trio sonatas by Handel and Vivaldi, and a sparkling dance suite for Baroque orchestra by Kusser. The performers, all the cream of the crop of graduate students at Stony Brook, will amaze you with their mastery of Baroque style. In use for this concert will be the school's Baroque bows and new baroque double bass. Don't miss this outstanding event.

The concert will take place on Sunday at 3:00 p.m. in the Recital Hall of the Staller Center for the Arts. As always, on the Baroque Sundays at Three series, admission is free with a small good will offering requested to offset concert expenses and promote early music at Stony Brook. To receive a free Music Department concert brochure or to be added to our mailing list, call and leave a message at 632-7330 or email: music@notes.sunysb.edu. For a complete listing of upcoming concerts, visit our web page: <http://www.sunysb.edu/music>.

Submitted by: Robin Pouler-Mcgrath/CAS

= = = = =

Spring Festival of Chamber Music begins April 30 at Staller Center

Enjoy outstanding performances by Music Department students featuring Chamber Music from the Baroque to the Contemporary. The Music Department at the University at Stony Brook is pleased to present four concerts in the Spring Festival of Chamber Music: Monday, April 30; Tuesday, May 1; Monday, May 7, and Tuesday, May 8. The Chamber Music Festival will highlight performances by the illustrious Stony Brook Graduate Ensembles. All concerts will be performed at 8:00 p.m. in the Recital Hall at the Staller Center for the Arts. Admission is free.

For a complete listing of upcoming Music Department concerts, visit our web site at: <http://www.sunysb.edu/music>. To receive a free Music Department concert brochure or to be added to our mailing list, call and leave a message at (631) 632-7330 or email: music@notes.sunysb.edu.

Submitted by: Robin Pouler-Mcgrath/CAS

= = = = =

Workshop on IMMIGRATION Options After Graduation

On Tuesday, April 17, at 1:00 p.m., in the Student Activities Center, Room 306, Mr. Philip Kleiner, an immigration lawyer with the firm of Barst and Mukamal, NY, NY, will present a workshop for international students and scholars on immigration options after completion of studies. Mr. Kleiner has several years of experience as an immigration lawyer and has given presentations at Stony Brook in the past.

For further information, contact International Services at 632-4685.

Submitted by: Rose Cohen-Brown/Grad

= = = = =

Come to the Second Annual Stony Brook Fountain Festival As Students, Faculty, and Staff Celebrate the Year of Community Service

Wednesday, May 2, 12:40: p.m.-2:10 p.m.
Join us on the Academic Mall For this special day of food, fun, and festivities.

In its second year, Fountain Fest is already becoming one of the premier events of the spring semester. Its a time when students, faculty, and staff celebrate the return of warmer weather, indulge in strawberry treats, and rediscover a commonality with their fellow campus community members. A host of varied activities, as well as demonstrations by Stony Brooks many clubs and organizations, make it a festive and culturally rich university experience unlike any other.

Strawberry FestOpens at 11 a.m. From shortcake to frappes, indulge in fresh strawberries.

Diversity ProgramsEnjoy The Color of Helping Hands, a rich, multi-cultural experience, from a variety of student groups.

Wellness Fair See sports demonstrations and get free blood pressure screenings.

WBLI Live Broadcast Dance to today's hottest hits, win prizes at giveaways.

Stony Brook Big Band Jazz Ensemble Hear acclaimed saxophonist Dan Faulk and his group of talented musicians.

Volunteer Opportunities Find out how you can make a difference from representatives of local service organizations.

<http://ceie.sunysb.edu/ceie/>

Submitted by: Glenn Jochum/UAff

= = = = =

Wednesday, April 25 at 12:40-2:00pm
SBS N-320 (LACC Conference Room)

"In the Factory of the Past: Nationalism, History and Indians in the Production of Contemporary Ecuador"

HUGO BENAVIDES, an Anthropologist from Fordham University discusses the cultural production of Nationalist and Indigenous narratives in Ecuador today.

Sponsored by the Latin American & Caribbean Center

Submitted by: Domenica Tafuro/CAS

= = = = =

Reminder to Faculty/Professional/MC staff to renew books borrowed from the Main, Music and Science/Engineering Libraries

Faculty, Professional and Management Confidential employees who have borrowed library books from the Main, Music or Science/Engineering Libraries are requested to renew their books at this time. Please go to the Circulation Desk in one of these locations and request staff to renew all books that are currently due on May 16. The new due date will be 12/21. Thank you.

Submitted by: David Weiner/Lib

= = = = =

A Macbeth - Opens Thursday, April 26th, Staller Center for the Arts

A Macbeth is Shakespeare's tragedy about the passion two people have for each other and the horrific consequences when that love is linked to a thirst for power. The words are Shakespeare's but the production will include video projections and computer generated images in a performance that reaches out to audiences of all ages. Directed by John Lutterbie, Chair of the Theatre Arts Department, this collaboration involves faculty, students and staff from the other arts departments, including a sound track composed by music professor Dan Weymouth, an art installation by MFA student Nate Johanson and lights by Staller Center Technical Director Liz Silver.

A Macbeth opens on Thursday, April 26th at 8:00 pm. in Theatre II, Staller Center

Other performances are: 8:00 pm on April 27 and 28, May 3, 4 and 5;

2:00 pm matinees on Sunday, April 29 and May 6.

Tickets: $10.00 for the general public, $8.00 for faculty and staff, and $6.00 for students and seniors.

Submitted by: Augusta Kuhn/CAS

= = = = =

Honors College Symposium

The Ninth Annual Honors College Symposium will be held on April 26th (9Am to 4PM) and April 27th (9AM to 5PM), in the Javits Room of the Melville Library. All members of the USB community are invited to join us as the 40 members of the Honors College Class of '01 present the results of their senior research and creative projects.

Submitted by Ruth Cowan

Submitted by: Ruth Cowan/CAS

= = = = =

Spring Pride Patrol is Friday, April 27th! Volunteers will be planting lots of flowers and plants during this event.

If you haven't already signed up, please call 2-6320 or send e-mail to askala@notes.cc.sunysb.edu as soon as possible. Select the time that is best for you: 10:00 - Noon or 1:30 - 3:30 pm. Sign in at headquarters (West Campus in the Fine Arts Loop or at the Hospital Entrance on East Campus). Remember to attend the Ice Cream Social for Volunteers at 3:30 pm in the lobby of the Staller Center. Green Team members can work in their own gardens. There is also a non-green team site for other volunteers. It will, hopefully, be a fun day in the sun for everyone!!!

<http://naples.cc.sunysb.edu/Pres/csevents.nsf/pages/forms>

Submitted by: Arlene Skala/Pres

= = = = =

Special Announcement for Green Team Captains regarding Spring Pride Patrol ...

If you would like mulch delivered to your garden for Pride Patrol, please call 2-6320 or send e-mail to askala@notes.cc.sunysb.edu as soon as possible. We will need the estimated size of your garden. Please also try to attend the Captains' Meeting at 9:00 am in the Fine Arts Loop or near the Hospital Entrance. Personalized information regarding the plants and flowers best suited to your garden will be provided.

Submitted by: Arlene Skala/Pres

= = = = =

CELEBRATION OF UNDERGRADUATE ACHIEVEMENTS

A student designed and built hybrid utility vehicle, a solar-powered boat, and a performance of a Mozart Piano Concerto, are just three of the highlights of the University at Stony Brook's Celebration of Undergraduate Achievements, to be held on Wednesday, May 2 and Thursday, May 3. Over 200 undergraduates will present research projects and participate in artistic performances as part of the annual event, and over $7,000 in prizes will be awarded. Performances will all take place on Wednesday, May 2. Many of the posters and art exhibits will be available for viewing on Thursday as well.

Panels of distinguished judges in each of the categories - Art, Music, Social Sciences, Humanities, Life Sciences, Physical Sciences and Mathematics, Engineering, and Psychology - will view the projects and presentations. The event begins with a keynote address by Shirley Strum Kenny, President of the University, at noon on Wednesday in the Student Activities Center followed by the showcasing of the presentations and an awards ceremony beginning at 3:30 PM.

<http://www.sunysb.edu/ureca>

Submitted by: Linda Pfeiffer/CAS

= = = = =

Clothesline Project: Celebrate Sexual Assault Awareness Month at The Wo/Men's Center in the Stony Brook Union, Second Floor

Please join us for two special occasions in honor of the survivors and to support the victims of sexual violence: Wednesday, April 25, Campus Life Time (12:40-2:10), Rm 214 (The Terrace) Painting T-Shirts:

The Clothesline Project is a visual display that bears witness to sexual violence. During the public display, a clothesline is hung with shirts. Each shirt is decorated to represent the victim/survivor's experience, by the victim/survivor or someone who cares.

Thursday, April 26, 7pm, Room 221 Wo/Men's Center Library: Speak Out "Let each person tell her/his own story, in her/his unique way and hang it out for all to see. It's a way of airing society's dirty laundry." For more information call: 632-9666 (2-WOMN)

Submitted by: Laura Kathleen Williams/OSA

= = = = =

Jewelry Making Workshop

The Stony Brook Union Crafts Center will be holding a special workshop on Jewelry and Enameling. Open to all Students, Faculty, Staff and community. Peter Pheifer, Gemologist and Jeweler, Wednesday April 25, 2001 from 7 - 9 pm, Material fee $5.00. Create your own jewelry and have fun. Stony Brook Crafts Center (lower level).

Submitted by: Marcia Wiener

= = = = =

Ecology and Evolution Seminar

Wednesday, April 25, 2001
3:30 P.M.
Life Sciences Building
Room 038

"BEHAVIORAL ECOLOGY OF PRIMATES"

Dr. Jeanne Altmann
Princeton University

Host: Dr. George Williams - dcwilliams@notes.cc.sunysb.edu

If you need a disability-related accommodation, please call:
The Department of Ecology and Evolution at (631) 632-8600

Submitted by: Marilyn Pakarklis/CAS

= = = = =

"Working Class into the Curriculum"

A special workshop sponsored by Group for the Study of Working Class Life and CELT.

"Working Class into the Curriculum" A special workshop sponsored by Group for the Study of Working Class Life and CELT.

What are the links between our students' writing and their consciousness of class difference? How do we use discussion of work/jobs as a route to class analysis?

Professor Janet Zandy, a nationally respected scholar and practioner of working-class pedagogy, will present a model essay that links photography, personal memory, commentary on Workers Memorial Day (April 28)and literary analysis about representations of the physicality of labor. One of the hardest things student writers face is synthesizing material. This essay approach demonstrates a way to link the personal with the historical and with cultural representations.

This workshop will be held at CELT, Melville Library E1337 on Thursday, April 26th, from 1:00 - 2:30. To register please go to www.celt.sunysb.edu.

Submitted by: Rita Reagan-Redko/Prov

= = = = =

Effectively Using Assessment Tools
April 23rd , 2001 3:00 pm - 5:00pm @ CELT Melville Library
E1337

This is the third in a series of assessment workshops being given by Pacific Crest an educational consulting firm.

Description:

A wide variety of assessment tools are effectively being used in higher education. In this workshop, a universal tool, called the SII Method, is introduced to illustrate how to quickly become effective with an assessment tool. Participants then have the opportunity to explore a variety of assessment tools and design an assessment strategy that can be implemented with reasonable effort in their courses. To register please go to www.celt.sunysb.edu.

Submitted by: Rita Reagan-Redko/Prov

= = = = =

SALVATORE QUASIMODO: A CENTENNIAL HOMAGE

An international conference on the famous poet will be held for registrants in the Library's Alliance Room April 27-28. A Poetry Recital of the poet's works by Alessandro Quasimodo and Mario Cei, open to the public, will be held there at 8 pm April 27. An Exhibit of Quasimodo's books and manuscripts will open in the Library's Special Collections Dept. (2nd floor Galleria) at 9:15 pm, and will be on display until May 1.

Submitted by: Paul Wiener/Lib

= = = = =

LECTURE INDIA & ECOLOGY Present and Future Prospects
by Professor Christopher Chapple, Loyola Marymount University

Professor Christopher Chapple is a prominent scholar and author of many books and articles on Hinduism, Buddhism, Jainism and their relevance to contemporary to contemporary ecological concerns.

Wednesday, April 25, 2001 3p.m. to 4.30 p.m.
Student Activities Center (SAC) Rm 305\\For more information, please call The Center for India Studies (631) 632-9742

All are Welcome!

Submitted by: Carolyn Lombardo-Buttner/UHMC

= = = = =

Its Time - To Register for Summer Sessions Classes

Telephone registration fro Summer Sessions classes starts Monday, April 23. Graduate students may begin registering then and undergraduates may register starting April 24, beginning with seniors. Stony Brook students may also register in person at the Registrar's Office starting May 3.

For the complete registration schedule, visit the Summer Sessions
Web site: www.stonybrook.edu/summer

Submitted by: Megs Shea/Prov

= = = = =

To submit your announcement or read the archives please go to:
<http://naples.cc.sunysb.edu/DoIT/newsflash.nsf/Announcements> and follow the instructions.

To remove yourself from this distribution go to:

<https://adam.cc.sunysb.edu/epo.html> and check the option to remove yourself from the distribution of announcements.