Subject Assistant Vice President for Facilities and Services

To: All Faculty and Staff

Chris McAlary, Assistant Vice President for Facilities and Services, will be leaving Stony Brook University to take a position at Mount Saint Mary's College in Los Angeles, California, as Vice President for Finance and Administration. Chris will be leaving Stony Brook November 21. We all wish Chris success in his new position.

Barbara Chernow, Assistant to the President, will serve as Interim Assistant Vice President for Facilities and Services. Barbara had been Vice President for Administration at the New York City School Construction Authority for ten years prior to coming to Stony Brook University in 1998. Ms. Chernow will assume her new responsibilities starting November 24.

Richard L. Mann,
Vice President for Administration
