1. Inauguration of Samuel L. Stanley, Jr., MD

Stony Brook University invites all students, faculty, staff, alumni and members of the community to the Inauguration of Stony Brook's Fifth President, Samuel L. Stanley, Jr., MD, from 2:00 to 4:00 pm on Friday, October 23, at the Sports Complex. A reception will follow in the Pritchard Gym at 4:00.

The weeklong schedule of events includes a Musical Showcase featuring members of the Emerson String Quartet; a Faculty Lecture Series with Ellen Pikitch, Richard Leakey, Howard Schneider, Clint Rubin, John Morgan, and Edward Casey; a "Communiversities" Day Football Game against Coastal Carolina; an American Heart Association Heart Walk; a Health Symposium; and a Provost's Graduate Student Mini-Symposium.

For more details, visit www.stonybrook.edu/inauguration

2. Research Foundation Lecturer/Independent Contractor Payments

All requests for Research Foundation payments to Lecturers/Independent Contractors must have an IRS W-9 form attached.

This form must be completed in full, indicating correct Social Security/TIN number, and signed by recipient. Research Foundation has stated that IRS requirements are becoming more stringent, and it is critical that we have accurate information on file. The IRS can potentially fine the Research Foundation for not collecting accurate information.

3. PeopleSoft and SOLAR Will Be Down Oct. 16-18 for Major System Upgrade

PeopleSoft's Web-based administrative applications, including the SOLAR System, will be brought down on Friday, Oct. 16, at 2 p.m. for a major system upgrade. The upgrade is expected to be completed by 6 p.m. on Sunday, Oct. 18. SOLAR and other PeopleSoft applications will not be available during this period.

The PeopleSoft systems environment supports the human resources, budget development, new student admissions, student registration, student records, financial aid, student financial, course catalog, class scheduling, campus card, transfer credit articulation, student employment, international student visa support and facility inventory functions for the campus. The SOLAR System is the self-service component of the system. It also supports feeds to other campus, SUNY, state and hospital-based systems.

We offer our sincere apologies for any inconvenience.

03. Workshops/Courses/Training

1. Powerful Presentations

11/04/2009 - 09:30am - 12:30pm

Excellent ideas alone do not guarantee engaging and successful presentations! Success is determined by the combined impact of your words, voice and body language. You can deliver powerful, high-impact presentations by learning where to focus your effort and energy. This is a challenging, fast paced and experiential workshop.

Key Highlights:

- Develop prominent delivery skills
- Capture and hold listener attention
- Connect with and focus on your listeners
- Increase your comfort and confidence

Target Audience: Open to all on West Campus, South Campus, HSC, Manhattan and Southampton.

2. ...And Justice For All/Diversity 101

October 22, 9:00am 3:00pm

This full day program will provide participants with necessary information, resources, and guidance about Federal and State regulations; University policies around issues of discrimination; equal employment opportunity complaint resolution and diversity. It will clarify and communicate the roles, rights and responsibilities of supervisors, managers, employees and the Office of Diversity and Affirmative Action in these matters. The program will review appropriate methods for making referrals, the scope of confidentiality and the policy against retaliation. Through the use of case studies and other interactive exercises, this program will allow participants to explore and discuss dimensions of diversity and inclusion, approaches to managing diversity, the impact of stereotyping and bias in the workplace. Each participant will develop a personal action plan.

Target Audience: All employees, supervisors, managers.

3. EH&S is now offering additional courses on Blackboard!

EH&S has added another training class on-line through the Blackboard e-Education platform. Taking the classes on-line provides the same credit that you get when you attend the live class. The on-line class can also be used to review the course material after you have taken the live class or to take the annual refresher class if required. Information on accessing the courses is found on the web site: <http://www.stonybrook.edu/ehs/training/>. Contact Kim Auletta at 2-3032 or kim.auletta@stonybrook.edu with any questions.

4. Using Mid-Semester Feedback for Ongoing Course Improvement

Monday, October 12, 12:50pm-2:10pm

Questioning the utility of end-of-course evaluations as a teaching improvement tool, I decided to try TLT's Mid-semester-feedback process (also called SGID) on my Han class. It is a modified form of focus group that gives a very different kind of information compare to that provided by summative course evaluation. I will describe the process and talk about my experiences with it, and open up the session for discussion.

5. Keep Students in Sync or Enforce Prior Learning: Schedule Access Using Blackboard's Adaptive Release Feature

Monday, October 12, 3:50pm-5:10pm

In the past, Blackboard allowed you to hide content from students by setting dates in which content would automatically become available and unavailable. Adaptive Release provides more options to control access to content, by setting "rules" on various criteria.

6. Engage students by enabling them to document what they are learning: blogs and wikis in Blackboard

Tuesday, October 13, 3:50pm-5:10pm

This workshop will cover how to set up and use Blackboard's blog and wiki tools in your class. Get students to write about what they are learning, and dynamically share new information with the class by publishing to the web.

7. Using Writing to Teach Critical Thinking

Wednesday, October 14, 3:50pm-5:10pm

Don't be fooled by my title. I am a writing professor in title only. What I really teach is critical thinking. That's because there is no better way to teach the ability to think well than through writing. For writing is nothing but thinking in its purest form

16. Recognize Learning Styles and How They Influence Student Success

Thursday, October 15, 12:50pm-2:10pm

Make content delivery effective by recognizing the generational learning preferences represented in your classrooms. We'll look at several different types of learning style models and the different self-assessment tests designed for discovering one's own "preferred" style. We'll also explore ways to help students become aware of how to use awareness of their learning style to enhance their academic performance.

This workshop is offered in person at The Faculty Center in the Melville Library and also online as a webinar. Please email us if you plan on attending online.

17. Showcase Your Teaching, Research and Professional Development: Design and Develop Your Professional Teaching ePortfolio

Thursday, October 15, 3:50pm-5:10pm

An electronic portfolio, or e-Portfolio, is a purposeful collection of artifacts and reflections saved on a website or DVD that showcases YOU. Faculty use e-Portfolios to document professional development over time, to identify patterns of growth and competencies in their chosen discipline, for self-assessment and reflection, and to share teaching methods and research information with their colleagues and students. Establish a solid professional network with your ePortfolio. It's all about you!

18. Increase Student Access and Enrollment by Reducing Face-to-Face Class Time: Hybrid/Blended Course Design

Friday, October 16, 12:50pm-2:10pm

This workshop provides concrete strategies for you to redesign your on-campus course for blended/hybrid teaching and learning. The workshop provides an overview of the blended format, content, and activities as well as general tips and pointers for fostering student-centered learning. The interactive sessions will help you address the challenges and benefits related to developing a blended course and help you find the "next steps" needed to get your blended course up and running.

20. Teaching and Mentoring Graduate Students - Special Workshop for 1st and 2nd Year Faculty

Tuesday, October 20, 9:50am-11:10am

The grant process, seeking funding sources and the proposal development, writing, applying, managing and reporting, is overwhelming, tedious and time consuming. The process is an art and the Research Foundation and University Advancement can provide you with resources, information and advice on securing grants. In this workshop, representatives from both offices will give you an overview of their services and resources available to help you with the grant process.

This workshop is offered in person at The Faculty Center in the Melville Library and also online as a webinar. Please email us if you plan on attending online.

21. Will This Be on the Test: Confusion Proof Your Syllabus

Tuesday, October 20, 3:50pm-5:10pm

Have you ever thought after a student's obvious question about an assignment, "Didn't you read the syllabus?" Chances are they didn't. This workshop will demonstrate how to write an effective syllabus, including learning objectives, your expectations for students and course policies. Bring your syllabus to the workshop and we'll review it collaboratively and assess how effective it is as a roadmap for your students to follow to successfully complete the course.

This workshop is offered in person at The Faculty Center in the Melville Library and also online as a webinar. Please email us if you plan on attending online.

22. A Picture Says a Thousand Words: Create and Edit Images to Enhance Your Course Content

Wednesday, October 21, 3:50pm-5:10pm

This workshop is intended to be an introduction to Photoshop and GIMP, a free and open source image editing program which has been compared favorably to Photoshop. One of the most powerful features of both GIMP and Photoshop are layers, however, these can be the source of frustration for first time users of photo editing applications. In this workshop you will create an image with layers which can divide an image into its semantic elements. Once you have created an example, it can easily be converted into an interactive image which can be brought into Stony Brook's Blackboard Learning Management Software.

1. The Emerging Leader Program - A Leadership Development Program for Supervisors and Managers

Begins this Month!

This program replaces the Leaders at Every Level Program which was previously offered. There have been many enhancements made to the curriculum. This program supports the Hospital's goal of becoming a High Reliability Organization and helps supervisors and managers acquire the skills to move their department towards achieving this goal. Participants will attend this program as a cohort, which is a best practice that improves retention of information and helps to build working relationships.

Target Audience:

This program is intended for supervisors and managers who have less than five years of management experience or have not attended a formal supervisor/management training program. Registrants who do not meet the criteria but who have development needs that can be met by attending this program, may also register.

Dates/Times: First cohort begins on October 22, 2009

2. We Need You To Support The SBU Cat Network

...And there are lots of ways you can:

- 1) By donating money or time to care for the homeless cats living on campus. (Our mission is to trap and neuter all of them, adopt out the adoptable ones, and feed the remaining ones every day for the rest of their lives.)
  - 2) By providing one of our rescues with a permanent home or with a temporary foster home. We have lots of rescues and no formal facilities.
  - 3) By voting daily at theanimalrescuesite.com. We're in a national contest that counts vote totals through the Fall. All votes help, and it takes about 15 seconds a day. Email nfranklin@notes.cc.sunysb.edu to put yourself on the daily reminder list.
- If you want to find out about our available cats, or if you want to help or contribute, contact

Nancy Franklin at nfranklin@notes.cc.sunysb.edu. Thanks!!
