

Mary Messina/FSA
05/15/2003 10:26 AM

To ragarwal@cs.sunysb.edu
cc
bcc F.Jason Torre/Lib
Subject Lecture at SUNY Stony Brook May 17 & Brookhaven Labs
Potluck Dinner & Dance May 23

Dissent and Development in the Civil Services and NGO Worlds
Lecture by Harsh Mander, County Director, ActionAid India
Saturday, May 17, 2003 at 11:00 am
038 Life Sciences Building SUNY Stony Brook

Frank, fearless and committed, Harsh Mander is activist, author and past member of the Indian Administrative Service (IAS). His 20 year career in the IAS was marked, among other things, by dissent and struggles with issues of justice, equity, humanism, peace and truth. Out of his IAS experiences came the book, "Unheard Voices: stories of the forgotten poor." Mander resigned from the IAS in protest against what he saw as inaction by the civil authority during the horrifying events in Gujarat last year.

Join us on May 17 at 11:00 am, as Harsh Mander shares his experiences in working for change and in keeping hope and dissent alive in the civil services and NGO worlds.

Admission is complimentary.

Sponsored by the Social Justice Alliance, Stony Brook University

For more information, call 631-632-9508

---

Brookhaven National Labs
2nd Annual APAH Potluck Dinner and Dance Party
Friday, May 23, 2003 5pm - 12 midnight

5 pm - 8 pm Potluck Dinner Party & Karaoke

at the Recreation Bldg, Brookhaven National Laboratory; Please bring your favorite ethnic dish, enough to share with 6 people. And submit your recipe for publication in our homepage, if you don't mind sharing your recipe with others.
Admission is free!

8 pm - 12 midnight "Memories of Swing"

Big band dance at the North Ballroom, Brookhaven Center. Theme: USO Dance Party! Come in the attire of the big band era! For the ballroom & Latin dancers, the band will also play a little ballroom and Latin, but during the breaks, the DJ music will be mostly for Latin and standard dancing. This event is a joint collaboration between the BNL Social & Cultural Club and Swing Dance-Long Island (SDLI), with the participation and support of the BNL Asian Pacific American Association, as part of the celebrations of the Asian Pacific American Heritage (APAH) month (May). Admission: $10/$15 (members/non); Tickets available at the BERA store at Berkner, or at SDLI's Tuesday night at Port Jazz, or at our dance social every Friday at Brookhaven Center or Pay at the door on May 23.

Web Link: <http://www2.bnl.gov/rudy/social/>

Direction: <http://www.bnl.gov/bnlweb/maps.html>