

Mary Messina/FSA
09/29/2003 10:10 AM

To: jhcho@ic.sunysb.edu
cc:
bcc: F.Jason Torre/Lib
Subject: Wang Center Events for Fall 2003

----- Forwarded by Mary Messina/FSA on 09/29/03 10:02 AM -----

Sunita Mukhi
09/28/03 03:36 PM

To:
cc: (bcc: Mary Messina/FSA)
Subject: Wang Center Events for Fall 2003

SAVE THESE DATES!!

Please come, spread the word, bring your friends, family and colleagues, inspire your students to enjoy and learn from this exciting array of programs that enlighten and celebrate Asian and Asian American cultures. The Charles B. Wang Center is now open for you to sit and chat and absorb the splendid interiors from 9 am to 5 pm Mondays through Friday. Delight in Asian delicacies from 11 am to 2 pm Mondays through Fridays.

More updates will be sent to you, so watch out for them!

The Charles B. Wang Center Presents

Fall Season 2003

Peace the World Together: International Game Night Tuesday, September 30, 7pm, Wang Center Lobby, Free

Try your hand at games of chance and skill from all over the globe. Sponsored by the Student Activities Center.

Art is: George Quasha

October 8, 12:45 to 2:30 pm, Lecture Hall 1, Free

What is art? An unanswerable question, yet artists can hardly avoid it.

An ongoing work by poet/artist George Quasha. Sponsored by Dialogs Across Differences

Slice of Rice, Frijoles and Greens

Tuesday, October 14, 7:30 pm, Wang Center Theater

$5 for Students, $10 for SBU Faculty and Staff, $15 general admission

A humorous and poignant mix of stories about the Asian, Latino, and African American experiences created by LA's Great Leap Productions.

Japan Film Classics

Free, Wang Center Theater, Co-sponsored with Center for Japanese Studies

Tampopo October 19, 4pm. A comedy about love and the search for the perfect noodle recipe .
High and Low (Tengoku to Jigoku), October 22, 7 pm. A tense detective thriller and a compelling illustration of class division in Japan.
Cure October 29, 7pm. A wave of horrible murders sweep Tokyo but in each case the murderer is found near the victim and remembers nothing.

President's Lecture Series: Charles B. Wang

Wednesday, October 22, 12:45 pm, Wang Center Theater. Free.

Charles B. Wang speaks to the Stony Brook Campus community. Reception to follow.

Wang Open House, Wednesday, October 22, 3 to 5:30 pm. Tours & refreshments.

Sohrab and Rustum

Saturday, November 1, 8 p.m. $5 for Students, $10 for SBU Faculty and Staff, $15 general admission

Zaraawar Mistry's brilliant solo work intertwines the ancient Persian story of father and son Rustom and Sohrab, with a contemporary tragicomic tale of a Zoroastrian family from Mumbai. With live Persian music and an introduction to Zoroastrianism. Created by the Center for Independent Artists based in Minnesota.

Asian Loving: Film Series celebrating relationships, yearnings and Life!

$5 general admission for each film, Wang Theater, Tuesdays in November, 8pm

The Iron Ladies: The true story of a transvestite volleyball team joining the Thai national championship!

Cosmopolitan: An Indian immigrant takes dating lessons from Cosmopolitan Magazine.

Robot Stories: Love, death, family, and Robots. Science Fiction with heart.

Creating the Public Presence of the History of Asians in the Americas: A Conversation with Loni Ding, veteran film maker

Friday, November 14, 7pm, Wang Theater

To purchase tickets, make checks payable to Wang Center and mail to Sunita S. Mukhi, Charles B. Wang Center, Stony Brook University, 4040 SUNY, Stony Brook, NY 11794-4040. Tickets can be reserved on-line. Call 631-632-4400/1944/6353 for more information or log on to www.stonybrook.edu/wang.

Sunita S. Mukhi, Ph.D.
Director, Charles B. Wang Center
Stony Brook University
4040 SUNY
Stony Brook, NY 11794-4040
631-632-6353
www.stonybrook.edu/wang