4. Library Tour

Take a tour of the Melville Library's main public service areas. Learn about our collections and services and get some freebies while you're here. Meet us @ the Central Reading Room, Melville Library. The tour runs about 30 minutes. Friday, Oct. 1 @ 11:30 AM. Register @ <http://www.library.stonybrook.edu/workshops>.

Submitted by: Yuet Tran/Lib

5. Research and Citation Skills for Transfer Students

New to Stony Brook? Learn how to: access University resources from off-campus, find scholarly articles to use for assignments, understand what is considered plagiarism, and get help with citation formatting. Thursday, September 30 @ 7 PM Online. Register @ <http://www.library.stonybrook.edu/workshops>.

Submitted by: Yuet Tran/Lib

6. Managing Your Research Using EndNote Basic Skills @ HSC

Creating the bibliography is often the most tedious part of writing a research paper. Using EndNote, a bibliographic management software program, this task just became much easier. In this workshop learn: how to create an EndNote Library, how to download results from a literature search into EndNote, how to organize your EndNote Library, how to insert your references into a MS Word document, and how to format your bibliography. Tuesday, October 5 @ 11 AM. Register @ <http://www.library.stonybrook.edu/workshops>.

Submitted by: Yuet Tran/Lib

7. Research Skills

You have a 15 page paper due and don't know where to begin. In this workshop, learn how to: get started doing research, narrow your topic, where to look for information (books, articles, and websites), use subject headings and keywords, and evaluate sources and create a bibliography. Thursday, October 7 @ 11:30 AM. Register @ <http://www.library.stonybrook.edu/workshops>.

8. Conflict Resolution- A Win-Win Approach...Only a few seats left!

October 6 9:30am 12:30pm

Similarly with personal life, conflict in organizations is a normal thing that one should expect to face. Today's climate of budget constraints, competing interests and the diversity of needs has a way of increasing tension and reducing the energy needed to focus on the mission, goals and objectives of an organization.

The Win-Win Approach program will engage you and your colleagues in a dialogue and a series of activities & strategies aimed at helping you:

-Identify the sources of conflict

-Explore and learn new steps for solving conflict through collaboration

-Explore the five steps of the A-E-I-O-U communication model plus much more!

9. Introduction to SharePoint: Online Collaboration & Document Management

When: September 29th, 12:45-1:45

Where: Melville Library, Room C1640- Computer Classroom B

What: SharePoint is a great tool for sharing documents and Web hosting. File libraries can be created to store, share, and collaborate on documents. You can be alerted if someone modifies a document. A check-in/check-out system can be enabled to ensure that just one person is working on a document at any given time to prevent overwriting. Different versions of a document can be saved and restored. All documents and the entire site collection can be accessed anywhere from any computer. Additionally you have full control over who can see or do anything on your site.

2. Applications being accepted for Medical Humanities, Compassionate Care, and Bioethics MA track in Biological Sciences beginning Spring 2011

This 30-credit masters track can be completed in one to three years. The Center encourages MA applicants from a variety of backgrounds, including nursing, social work, ministry, journalism, philosophy, humanities, the social and life sciences, administration, business, the arts, law, public policy, religious studies and others. Applicants who hold a baccalaureate degree without professional experience are welcome, as are clinicians and other professionals.

The Center, founded in 2008 and directed by Dr. Stephen Post, is attentive to the three thematic components in its name in which the human side of medicine is elevated, examined, and revered. We want students to be aware of the importance of relationships and compassion in the art of healing.
