1. An Email from RF FundingOpps is a GOOD thing!

If you've wondered how or why you started receiving emails on Mondays from "RF FundingOpps," it's because we're trying to send you funding opportunities specific to your research interests. These weekly email updates will provide you with information about the funding opportunities that match your selected keywords in the SBU Research Interests database. All current SBU faculty and researchers have a profile on this system. Is yours updated? Have you selected your keywords? Visit the link below for information on how to get started.
