2. Auditions for the Fall Pre-College Music Program
Tuesday evening, September 4, at Stony Brook

The Pre-College Program is holding auditions Tuesday, September 4, at 7 pm. New chamber music groups will be forming for musicians age 11-18 in strings, woodwinds, brass, piano, and for voice. New this year is a flute choir, a wonderful opportunity for flutists of every level to experience ensemble playing. Also new, the Long Island Brass will be coaching chamber music for brass.

Also on Sept. 4, is the placement test for Music Theory Classes, which cover theory, musicianship, and analysis. Other classes available: Electronic/Computer Music Composition and Composition for traditional instruments. All classes meet on Saturdays during the school year. Contact Edith Auner at 632-7328 for more information.

3. Auditions for Adult Chamber Music September 10

Following our very successful first year, the USB Pre-College and Community Music Programs are pleased to announce a new season of Adult Chamber Music Workshops. Adult musicians of all levels of ability and experience are invited to participate. Ensembles for strings, woodwinds, brass, piano, and voice will be formed based on performance level and the best possible instrumentation. Pre-existing groups are also welcome. Ensembles will be coached by well-known and experienced musicians who bring years of chamber music coaching to the program. The 90-minute workshops will meet for four weeks during September and October and will culminate in a recital in the Staller Center Recital Hall on October 19. Auditions for the first workshop will be held on Monday, September 10, beginning at 7:00 pm. For more information or to schedule an appointment, call Edith Auner at 632-7328.

4. UPCOMING JOB EXPO

The Office of Financial Aid & Student Employment and the Career Center are pleased to announce that we will sponsor the 8th Annual Job Expo during the first week of the Fall 2001 semester.

University departments will seek students for work-study and student assistant positions. Off-campus employers, many who are accessible by bus, visit campus to hire students for part-time positions.

This year's event will be held in the Arena of the Indoor Sports Complex on Wednesday, August 29, from 11 a.m. until 2 p.m. A tentative list of the participating off-campus employers can be found on the Career Center's website (www.sunysb.edu/career) under the What's New section.

Questions regarding the event can be directed to Peter Franzese, Office of Financial Aid & Student Employment, 632-6846 or Andrea Lipack, Career Center, 632-6892.

6. Hillel Foundation Welcomes Jewish Faculty and Staff

The Hillel Foundation for Jewish Life in the University Interfaith Center has developed a number of programs to include faculty and staff on campus. In addition to both orthodox and liberal services on campus, both of which welcome faculty and staff families, Hillel also conducts the Hillel Jewish Laboratory School for children of faculty and staff between the ages of 5 and 13. This Jewish enrichment program, which meets on Sunday mornings, is directed and led by professional teachers and student interns and teaches Jewish history, culture, and religion as well as Hebrew language. In addition to the Laboratory School, Hillel also offers faculty study groups and periodic brunch programs. For more information and for a brochure describing programs for Jewish faculty and staff, call the Hillel Office at 632-6565 or email ksacks@notes.sunysb.edu.
