To all students, faculty, and staff:

I believe that recognizing excellent performance and encouraging diversity in the learning experience are two key components that contribute significantly to the quality of life on campus and inspire us to even greater accomplishments. Therefore, I invite you to take part in this year's Presidential Awards and Presidential Mini-Grant Programs by reading the enclosed materials and participating in the nomination and application processes.

The Presidential Mini-Grants for Departmental Diversity Initiatives help bring to fruition the ideas that enable the University to adapt to the changing needs of our community. They are designed to foster the projects that are the seeds of growth for the University, and that will help us improve our research and work together with greater understanding.

The President's Awards for Teaching as Part-Time Faculty and for Excellence in Diversity and Affirmative Action help us to recognize the wonderful work that goes on at Stony Brook and to thank the people whose commitment, ability, and spirit have made the University a great place. Presidential Award recipients are given a certificate at the Annual Awards Dinner in the Fall, as well as a cash award of $1,000. Each Mini-Grant recipient is given a certificate at the Annual Awards Dinner in the Fall and each Mini-Grant can attain a maximum of $10,000, drawing upon a total pool of $30,000.

The application/nomination deadline is February 22, 2010; please click on the program below of interest to you for further information, and be sure to submit your application/nomination by the deadline date. Thank you for taking the time to give this serious consideration.
