Subject Stony Brook Day 200

To: The Stony Brook Community

From: Shirley Strum Kenny, President
Edward Drummond, UUP East Campus Chapter President
John P. Schmidt, UUP West Campus Chapter President

You are invited to attend STONY BROOK DAY IN ALBANY 2005 scheduled for Tuesday, March 1, 2005. This event, our annual advocacy day in the State Capital and one of our most rewarding traditions, is a partnership between the University President and United University Professions.

On this day hundreds of students, faculty and staff descend upon Albany with banners, buttons, brochures, and boundless energy and enthusiasm. In today's financial climate, it is important to let your legislators know what Stony Brook means to you. By going to Albany, you will show them that you are involved and you care. You are a voter and legislators listen to voters. You will also have a chance to meet people from all parts of the campus and experience first-hand how our government works. Once again there will be an end-of-the-day celebration.

Take the Ride. Show Your Pride.

Mark the date on your calendar and register now at <http://www.stonybrook.edu/albany> . Organize a group of your friends and colleagues and share the enjoyment of Stony Brook's grand day in Albany.

If you have questions, contact Pat Cruso at patricia.cruso@stonybrook.edu or call her at 2-4309.
