To All Faculty, Staff and Students,

Make plans to join us this week for Wolfstock, our annual Homecoming festival. Wolfstock 2010 offers something for everyone, and I hope you will bring your family and friends to share in the fun and take pride in our incredible University and in being a Seawolf.

Festivities begin Wednesday, October 6, with a kick-off in the SAC Plaza showcasing the Spirit of Stony Brook Marching Band, our Homecoming Court, and the Apple Market, a new campus event featuring an assortment of delectable apple treats.

On Friday, October 8, join us for our Seawolves Showcase where Stony Brook students show their swagger. Then, relax under the stars on the Staller Terraces and enjoy one of Long Island's most popular cover bands, The Gyst.

Then on Saturday, October 9, join me at our community tailgate party in Wolfstock Village where we'll rally together with the amazing Billy Joel tribute band BIG SHOT, share a delicious pre-game barbecue buffet, and enjoy the always popular Kids Zone. And this year, everyone who pre-registers online by October 6 will be entered for a chance to win a Kindle electronic reader and pay just $25 for an adult ticket (the same ticket costs $35 at the door).

Lastly, and most importantly, at 3:30 come dressed in your Stony Brook RED and cheer our Seawolves football team on to victory over the Keydets of V.M.I. at Kenneth P. LaValle Stadium.

For a complete listing of Homecoming activities and to pre-register now, visit <http://www.stonybrook.edu/homecoming>.

As always, "Get Your RED On," show your Stony Brook swagger, and join me for this annual Homecoming tradition!

Go Seawolves!
