To All Faculty, Staff and Students:

Dear University Community,

Make plans to join us on October 20 for the hilarious Cody Comedy Festival featuring Larry Miller, one of Hollywood's most recognizable faces! It's an evening that will make you laugh, make you feel good, and will support the Cody Center for Autism and Developmental Disabilities.

The Matt and Debra Cody Center for Autism and Developmental Disabilities has become the major clinical, research, and education provider in our regional area. It provides diagnostic services, ongoing treatment, and autism consultation to schools and graduate training programs. The Center's clinical facility serves more than 1,200 families on Long Island each year.

About Larry Miller

Larry began his career with a memorable cameo as the fawning store manager in Pretty Woman and has gone on to delight audiences in movies such as Best in Show, Waiting for Guffman, 10 Things I Hate About You and The Nutty Professor I and II, and hit television shows such as Boston Legal, 8 Simple Rules, Law & Order, and Seinfeld. He also made regular appearances on The Tonight Show with Jay Leno, The Late Show with David Letterman, and Real Time with Bill Maher, and starred in several of his own HBO comedy specials and on Broadway. In addition to acting, Miller wrote the best-selling book "Spoiled Rotten America."

Tickets are on sale now for $30 general admission; $25 for students. Register online at <https://alumniandfriends.stonybrook.edu/sslpage.aspx?pid=492> or by calling 631-632-4466.

Please join me in supporting this important fundraising effort.
