

To All Faculty and Staff:

Dear Colleagues,

I am please to announce that on Friday, April 27th, Stony Brook will host a workshop titled "Metals, Environment, and Human Health: Bridging the Gaps." This workshop will feature leading researchers from across the country and will focus on the behavior of metal contaminants in the environment and their impact on human health. This day-long workshop begins at 8:45 am in the Charles B. Wang Center, Lecture Hall 2, and is open to everyone. Sponsorship is provided by CIDER, CEMS, and the 3MT IGERT.

Further details are on the web page:

<http://www.cems.stonybrook.edu/Meetings&Workshops/Workshops/metalsworkshop>

Please share this information with any of your students who may be interested.

Regards,

Robert L. McGrath

Provost and Executive Vice President for Academic Affairs