Subject Provost's Lecture

Colleagues,

The Provost's Lecture Series continues on Friday, April 26th with a presentation on "Global Climate Change and the Role of the Great Southern Ocean" by Robert Dunbar. Professor Dunbar is the Associate Chair of the Department of Geological and Environmental Sciences at Stanford University. This event, co-sponsored by the Marine Sciences Research Center and the Department of Geosciences will begin at 12:30 p.m. and be held in Humanities 101.

Please bring this lecture to the attention of any students you feel may be interested in attending.

Thank you,
Robert McGrath, Provost and Exec. VP for Academic Affairs
