Subject French Week

Colleagues,

This Thursday, October 30th, the Provost's Lecture Series celebrates French Week with a program in the Staller Center Recital Hall. Harry J. Fouche, Consul General de la Republique d'Haiti will present "Perspectives on Haiti's Bicentennial, 1804 - 2004" and Nicole McKinnon, Director of Governmental Relations and Academic Affairs, Mid-Atlantic Region, for the Government of Quebec in New York will present: "Quebec: The North American Experience in French."

The program will begin at 4:30 p.m.

Please pass along this announcement to any students you feel might be interested in attending.

Thank you,
Robert McGrath, Provost and Executive Vice President for Academic Affairs
