Did You Know??

If you suffer with Depression, you are not alone; more than 19 million Americans share your pain. Get the support and the tools you need to overcome or effectively manage depression. Join the Student Counseling Center Depression Support Group, "Finding The Keys," which meets at The Student Counseling Center, Southold Hall, Lower Level, on Fridays at 11 a.m. – 12:30 p.m. The group is a confidential, safe place to gain support, share feelings, and learn skills to deal with depression. Call Ginny at x2-5069 or 371-6237 for more information, or to register for the group.

Book Buy Back will take place on December 16 at the Stony Brook Southampton Bookstore. One Day Only! 11 a.m. – 3 p.m.

Prof. Stephanie Wade writes: "The final Writing for the Birds Workshop will be held on Thursday, December 11, from 5:30-9 p.m. We will decorate the bird feeders and plan workshops for the spring. Light refreshments will be served.

“Do you need help with your final papers? The Writing Center will be open through December 16. Our hours are Monday/Wednesday 1 -8 p.m. and Tuesday/Thursday 7 - 9 p.m.” Sign-up for an appointment via: <http://www.rich37.com/stonybrook/>.

Save the date!

Prof. Wade adds: “On Tuesday, December 16, at 11 a.m., the Writing Center will celebrate the completion of our Bird Garden. Dedicated to the memory of Marcelo Lucero, the Bird Garden will be a place to consider the connections among writing, sustainability, peace and justice.”

From the Student Counseling Center: Save a Life: Make the call.

Your friend might not be just “sleeping it off.” Every year, college students die from alcohol poisoning: Know the signs and you can save a life. Check out the GordieFoundation.org or call the Stony Brook Southampton Student Counseling Center at x2-5069 to become part of the nationwide “Circle of Trust.” Any of the following can be signs of alcohol poisoning: Passing out, vomiting, confusion, pale skin, irregular breathing and/or seizures. Not sure? Call 911 and save a life.
