WELCOME TO THE BLACK CAUCUS EDITION OF BLACKWORLD editorial

The New World Order. What is it? Can it be stopped? Where do I as a black man/woman, fit into this New World Order? What is its origin and why was it created'?

Some say that the new world order means 'the Black man's slaughter' and many others pronounce it to be a fallacy or an untruth. If it is an untruth, than, why is it two members of Black Caucus households were broken into when they inquired about the New World and ordered a few tapes? If it is a fallacy, why did another member of Black Caucus received a threatening phone call at his house? He was told to "stop talking all that s-bout the New World Order" Why is it that President Clinton's Health Care Card, proposed resolution for the Health Care crisis, is so similar to the barcodes people are supposed to acquire in the New World Order?

The New World Order is a mystery about to be unfolded in the next millennium (the year 2000). "The New World Order promised by President George Bush at the outset of the Persian Gulf War in 1990 was no mere rhetoric (art or skill of speaking effectively for the purpose of persuasion)....This vision of a "global community of nations" is a precise, systematic (constituting or relating to a system), and rigorously (very strict) planned mechanism (process by which an effect is produced or a purpose accomplished) to manage people and nations collectively proxy (substitute) and by global authority. It is a program to ensure that principles of geographical and racial "balance" are scrupulously (having or showing a strict regard for what is right) applied, regardless of the outcome. That authority is no longer a futurist dream-it is a fact."

The vision of the New World Order is to have a global society, managed by an elite (best or most distinguished members of a society or social group) central government that will exercise supervision (to oversee) and control by means of its massive army of so-called peacekeeping forces. The ultimate goal is nevertheless to have a one-world government under a centralized authority.

In 199() Pat Robertson, who wrote The New World Order stated, "the coming decade will be a time of turmoil, controversy, and even greater political and spiritual unrest." Is that also an untruth, another fallacy? Governor Pataki wants to impose another tuition hike of $250, which would make a $1000 increase in just two years! He is also proposing a $71.8 million cut from state aid to SUNY's operating budget, which would mean even more overcrowded classes and longer lines during registration. Last, but certainly not least, Pataki wants to cut TAP, the Tuition Assistance Program by a devastating $100 million dollars. Is that not considered turmoil and spiritual unrest?

Students of Stony Brook, especially those students of color, you must exercise the rights and responsibilities of your citizenship to make appropriate demands on your elected representatives, and ultimately to hold accountable all those who offer a vision of a New World Order.

A Moment of Silence from the Black Caucus

Before we begin with this special edition of BLACKWORLD, the BLACK CAUCUS would like to first and foremost give thanks and praise to the infinite life force which many of us call God, Jehovah, Ra, Jah, Osiris, Allah, or whatever name you choose to identify with, for making this paper possible. We would like to thank this force for giving us the opportunity to be here in order to present this information to you. The BLACK CAUCUS wishes to take a moment of silence to give praise to the Creator for supplying a means in which we can communicate with our people to make this special edition possible...

The BLACK CAUCUS would also like to take this time to thank our ancestors for paving a pathway and making it possible for us to be here. If it were not for our ancestors we would not be here today. Lets not forget the millions of Africans who gave their lives for us to be here. Let us not forget the blood of our ancestors that have been lost in the formation of this country and other civilizations. Lets take a moment of silence to give thanks to them...

The focus of this paper deals with the New World Order. Our purpose for writing this edition was to disseminate as much information as we can to prepare our people for the 21st Century. A lot is supposed to happen around the year 2000, some of which might come true, some not, but the question remains, "How prepared are we going to be for what might happen?" Are we aligned with the spiritual forces that gave us the strength to endure slavery, colonization. Or are we becoming more aligned to our colonizers, to our oppressors, to our slave masters. still chasing the American Dream?

We need to check where our mind set is. If we're not moving as a collected force, we're not moving at all. These are the problems that we are faced with. Once the information has been presented to you the responsibility is all yours with what you are going to do with it after. We can't run away from our responsibilities, because once you know it's up to you to make a change.

This edition is dedicated to those with their EYE wide open. Get prepared for what is about to happen before we experience a silent moment.

Goals Of The Conspirators Of The New World Order

These are some of the main goals in which the Conspirators, whether they be Masons, Illuminati, Olympians, etc. are trying to achieve in order to bring about the New World Order/One World Government. Note how many things have already been accomplished or are about to be.

1. A One World Government/ New World Order with a unified church and monetary system under their direction. They began setting up their One World Government Church in the 1920's and 1930's. They have almost achieved a One World Monetary System. Remember that Europe just unified under one economic market. The credit card is used almost anywhere in the world, and now Singapore has become a completely cashless society. In Newsday p.A6 4/11/96, is an article stating that New York is about to implement a smartcard next fall. If successful it will lead New York right down the same cash less path.

2. The utter destruction of all national identity and national pride. This is being accomplished through the destruction of the Constitution of the United States, as well as through the destruction of the moral fiber of the country through all forms of the media.

3. The destruction of religion, especially the Christian Religion, with one exception and that is their own creation mentioned above.

4. Control of each and every person through surveillance and mind control. It is the surveillance where the Mark Of The Beast comes into play. The mind control comes straight out of Tavistock Institute in England. They are the leading brainwashing agency in the world, and they are very effective. It also comes through the print media, and the TV. Turn off the TV for just one week, you would be surprised at how your life will be affected in a positive way.

5. An end to all industrialization and the production of nuclear generated electrical power. Exempted are the computer and service industries. U.S. industries that remain will be exported to countries such as Mexico where abundant slave labor is available (we're seeing this now, and you wondered why you can't get a job after graduation). Unemployables in the wake of the industrial destruction will either become drug addicts or become statistics in the elimination process we now know today as Global 2000.

6. Legalization of drugs and pornography.

7. Suppression of all scientific development except those deemed beneficial by the Committee Of 300.

8. Cause by means of limited wars in advanced countries, and by means of starvation and disease in other countries, the death of 3 billion people by the year 2000, people they call 'useless eaters'. The Committee of 300 commissioned Cyrus Vance to write a paper on the subject of how to bring about such a genocide. The paper was produced under the title of the Global 2000 Report, and was accepted and approved for action by President Carter, for and on behalf of the U.S Government.

9. To weaken the moral fiber of the nation and demoralize workers in the labor class by creating mass unemployment (Is this not what everyone in the country is complaining about).

10. To keep people everywhere from deciding their own destinies by means of one created crisis after another, and then managing such crisis. (As Black People we have been feeling this since we were kidnapped and brought here) This will confuse and demoralize the population to the extent that their faced with too many choices, apathy on a massive scale will result (College does this to you. Doesn't everyone complain that they don't have enough time to get involved. This is part of the reason why you don't, and it has been all to effective, because apathy is running rampant on our campus and through our community as a whole). The U.S already has an agency for crisis management in place called the Federal Emergency Management Agency (F.E.M.A.).

11. To introduce new cults and continue to boost and support those already functioning (You can see these cults right here on the Stony Brook Campus)

12. To press for the spread of religious cults.

13. To cause a total collapse of the worlds economics and engender total political chaos.

14. To take control of all foreign and domestic policies of the U.S (this they have already accomplished).

15. To give their fullest support to supranational organizations such as the United Nations, The International Monetary Fund, The Bank Of International Settlements, The world Court, and as far as possible, make local institutions of lesser effect by gradually fazing them out or bringing them under the control of the United Nations. (By the way the executive board or the inner circle of the United Nations are some of the most evil people around. They are not there for our benefit at all.)

16. Penetrate and subvert all governments, and work from within to destroy the sovereign integrity of nations represented by them. (They have done this in the U.S. Almost all, if not all, of our resent presidents have been intricately involved in the formulation of the New World Order, especially George "Head of The Drug Trade" Bush, and William Jefferson Clinton, who is definitely no friend to Black people or the citizens of this country. In fact if you consider yourself a patriot or a citizen you should be putting them on trial for treason. Then again Dole is definitely not the answer for us as Black People either, especially since I recently came across some information on the Internet which stated that the Illuminati's next plot in achieving world domination was to have Dole elected as President. WATCH OUT BLACK PEOPLE).

THIRTEEN AND THE DOLLAR BILL

The symbols on our currency represent the ideology of the "Founding Fathers" and the source of their ideology. Something so precious and so desired by many that it is valued with such respect, you should ask yourself, "What is the significance of incorporating a pyramid within it." If you turn to the back of the dollar and turn to the front of the seal featuring the bald eagle you will see that "It's wings are outstretched, representing dignity, freedom, strength and vision. On the eagle's breast is the shield. The bar at the top of the shield represents Congress. The 13 stripes below the bar represent the 13 original colonies supporting the Congress."

In its right claw, the eagle grasps an olive branch bearing 13 leaves representing peace. The left claw holds 13 arrows symbolizing war. If you notice, the eagle's head is turned toward the olive branch to indicate our nation's preference for peace. "

On the left side of the dollar bill features a pyramid (comprised of 13 courses of stone which represent the 13 original colonies) and the eye of God encased in a pyramid. "The unfinished pyramid symbolizes strength and foundation for future growth. Above the pyramid, is an eye inside a triangle which represents the many interventions of "Providence" in favor of the American cause. At the bottom of the pyramid are the Roman numerals for 1776, the date of the Declaration of Independence.

Now having said this, it is a known fact that the "Founding Fathers" were Freemason who studied astrology and other ancient metaphysical sciences. The Masonry is an organization which follow in the teachings of Egyptian value dealing in mathematics, astrology, and other forms of science. Of the men who signed the Declaration of Independence, 51 were masons, as were all of the generals of the Revolutionary War. All of the men involved in the creation of the Great Seal were practicing masons who sought to incorporate "specific values" into the symbolism of the new nation. The links between masonry and ancient Egyptian science and metaphysics have been proudly heralded by European masons for centuries.

The front of the Great seal is also composed with the repetition of the number 13. There are 13 leaves and 13 berries on the olive branch, 13 arrows, 13 stripes on the shield, and 13 stars in the constellation above the eagle's head. Throughout the seal the number 13 is used 13 times.

What is the significance of the number 13? The logical explanation is that 13 represents the original colonies. But why 13 colonies? Why not 10, or an even dozen? Why not 15 colonies?

We have been led to believe that the number 13 is a sign of evil. Friday the 13th is viewed as a day in which people are overcome with bad luck. This fear in the number 13 has gone so far that many buildings lack a 13th floor due to superstition. But in Masonic, and metaphysical literature, 13 is the number of transformation. The completion of a cycle is represented by 12, and $12 + 1$ is the transformation of energy of that completed cycle to a higher, more spiritual level. We see this philosophy expressed in the symbolism of Christ and the 12 disciples at the last supper. The sun and the 12 signs of the zodiac, King Arthur and the 12 knights of the Round Table, and December 25 and the 12 days of Christmas, are all signs of the transformation of energy.

On the reverse of the Great Seal we find a Pyramid comprised of 13 steps, and above the pyramid we see the "Eye of Horus". History shows that the construction of pyramids occurred in lands occupied by African people in Egypt, Ethiopia and Sudan.

The combined use of the pyramid and eye of Horus, represents a clear desire to incorporate Egyptian values in the founding of this nation.

The "Founding Fathers" also planned specific dates to coincide with celestial events. The birthday of the United States, July 4, 1776, was timed to coincide with the astrological sign of Cancer and the number 13.

Africa is ruled by the sun sign Cancer. The U.S. was founded on African principals and built by African slaves. If you count back 13 days from July 4, you will notice that this date is June 21, which is the beginning of the summer solstice which in turn is the sun entering the sign of Cancer, which was a transformation of energy.

Thirteen is a number which has profound numerological significance. Courtroom proceedings include the judge and the twelve men of the jury. There were 13 original colonies, the number 13 is repeated 13 times on the Great Seal of the United States, not to mention that the 13th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution freed blacks from slavery, a transformation of energy. All of these references to the number 13, and numerous others, ARE SURELY NO COINCIDENCE.

The Need To Organize

Whether you believe in The New World Order, or you think we're paranoid or crazy, you must admit there is still a feeling that something isn't quite right with the world today. Whether the New World Order is real or not, the conservative shift in the people controlling our country is. The cutting of Affirmative Action, Welfare, Aid for college, and other programs designed to help people of color is very real. Black People its time for us to get organized. Look around and see what's going on. We as a people are heading for our most turbulent times since we were kidnapped and brought here. Did you forget about our holocaust (slavery), did you forget about all the people who sacrificed, fought, and died less than 30 years ago, so you could be here at Stony Brook. Don't you know that prison production has been the largest industry over the last 5 years. Who makes up more than half of the prison population? We Do! The title of this edition is The New World Order means black peoples slaughter, well even without The New World Order, Black People we've been getting, and will continue to get slaughtered. Its time to wake up. We are far to comfortable. Have we not learned from our history. They have always thrown us a bone to appease us. What do you think integration was? See your under the illusion that were free, but you don't even have Civil Rights. That's right. You don't even have the rights your parents fought and died for. Civil Rights was given to us in the Civil Rights Act, but an act is not a law, and can expire or be taken away. Are we just going to sit on the grave of our ancestors by not continuing the struggle in an organized fashion. We fought and organized to try and gain our freedom. They organized to derail our mission by giving us a smoke screen. We fell for it again and got complacent and apathetic. They organized and fought to put us back in a worse condition than we started off in. That is where we as a people stand today. Black people don't think all those militias and paramilitary organizations are fighting our tyrannical government for your freedom. There fighting to return the country to the way it was. My question is what are we fighting for? Black People we have the greatest minds in the world, lets put them together and organize to gain our liberation. Lets learn from Malcolm, Martin, SNCC, Fannie Lou Hammer, The Black Panthers, and lets make the attainment of liberation and freedom for all oppressed people, our generations mark on our proud history, by bringing about an end to the system of white supremacy. We are not free. The struggle continues to this day. We need to unite, put our differences behind us and organize for our survival. I'm pleading to you Black People, don't forget, study our history and don't let it repeat. UNITY IS POWER, BLACK UNITY, BLACK POWER.

The Drug Problem

The drug problem in the Black community is just one part of the complex situation that African descendants are facing in the nineties. This is not new. Same problem, different time, different drugs. We have gone from refer, heroin, LSD, and cocaine, to crack and ice. As long as there has been Blacks in Ghettos, there have been drugs "placed there." Yes, PLACED there. Although many African descendants are caught with drugs, the question remains, how do the drugs get into the communities or this country for that matter? We know that African Americans don't own the planes and boats that bring the drugs to shore, but they are perceived to be the drug dealers. How is the cocaine getting from Columbia to Harlem? Yet the United States government, coast guard, drug task force, whatever, doesn't know what is coming into this country? Do you really believe that? The drug trade is much larger than the street corner, which is petty in comparison to what is really going on. You don't have to be an authoritative figure or a specialist in the field to observe and understand what is going on around you, all you need is common sense. Don't be blinded by the so called "War on Drugs," because its only propaganda. The U.S. government is making millions of dollars off of illegal drugs, and as long as 78% of the murders in the Black community are drug related, do you really think they are making a real effort to stop drugs?

It goes without saying that all the blame can't be placed on the w... you know who, because Africans in America do voluntarily use drugs, sell drugs, and kill each other over drugs. But before the blame is placed on the victim, ask yourself why?

The society we live in glorifies the use of drugs. No matter what the problem is, you can buy something that will make you feel better. There are various reasons why people take drugs, but in the Black community, many people use drugs to temporarily escape the dynamics of oppression. They do it just in order to have a sense of freedom, relaxation and peace with oneself and their environment. It is hard as hell being poor and African in a Eurocentric world, where just living is a struggle. Wanting so much, but having to accept the fact that the most desired things are unattainable. Simple things that the fortunate take for granted. By no means are these the only issues that lead to drug abuse, but based on what I have seen and experienced, most people use drugs as a vehicle to take them away from the problems they face in the real world.

Why do African Americans sell drugs? Because it makes money. We live in a capitalistic society in which money is needed for practically everything. Money can relieve all poor people of their problems which are economically related. Drugs becomes a means of reaching that high standard of living in America. It can be extremely difficult to try deter someone from selling drugs when they are poor and have nothing to lose. Trying to get them to realize that they shouldn't because it is illegal or because they are killing their own people is almost impossible. People? who sell drugs are trying to beat the system so they don't care about what is illegal and what is the right way to make money. They just want to make money, just like everyone else.

Many people realize that drugs are contributing to the deterioration of the Black community, but many feel like 'so what'. Since people know what is good for them and what is not, but they continue to indulge in things that are detrimental to their situation (monetary neglect, alcohol and cigarette consumption, material lust, etc.). Most drug dealers feel that if you don't care about your life, they might as well take advantage of your ignorance because somebody else will. That is competition at its best. The American way. Good ole capitalism, ain't nothing like it.

killing each other? Ignorance, self-hatred and a lack of respect for anyone who resembles an African. How did this happen? Well if you research the history of America, you will be exposed to the attempt that was made to psychologically destroy the African during the institution of slavery. This dehumanization process has caused major damage to the psyche and identity of Africans in America. Slavery effectively stripped the dignity and self worth from the minds of many of our people. These feelings have been passed down from generation to generation. Many Africans in America are still attempting to regain their humanity and will do any and everything to be respected as a human being. That includes having a Benz, BMW, or bodies on a nine.

The drug problem is definitely a real one but the first step to solving the problem is to understand the cause. We have to take some responsibilities for the actions in our communities if we cannot continue to avoid the obvious involvement of the larger society and its effect on us. For many, drugs offer the opportunity to obtain the American dream, without using "American" means. For others, it is another part of the continued oppression of Africans in America. For me, it is one more day, in millions of lives, over hundreds of years.

Some Facts About Aids

Does the government know the truth about Aids? Let us examine this a little closer.

1. In 1969 the United States Defense Department requested and got 10 million dollars to make the Aids Virus in labs as a political/ethnic weapon to be used mainly against Blacks.

2. The World Health Organization started to inject Aids laced smallpox vaccines into over 100 million Africans in 1977, and in over 2000 young white homosexuals in 1978 with the hepatitis B vaccine through the Center For Disease Control/New York Blood Center (As a side note did you notice that it is the Center For Disease Control, not the Center For Disease Eradication or Destruction? I wonder why).

I know what your asking, Where is the proof? Well some of it comes from the Department Of Defense Appropriations for 1970. Hearings before a subcommittee of the Committee on Appropriations. House of Representatives 91st Congress 1st Session.

In hear it says:

1. Within 5 to 10 years it will be possible to make a new infective micro-organism which could differ in certain important aspects from any known disease causing organism. Most important of these is that it might be refractory in the IMMUNOLOGICAL AND THERAPEUTIC PROCESS UPON WHICH WE DEPEND TO MAINTAIN OUR RELATIVE FREEDOM FROM INFECTIOUS DISEASE.

2. A research program to explore the feasibility of this could be completed in approximately 5 years at a total cost of 10 million dollars.

Still don't believe the government knows the truth about Aids? It came from a green monkey right? Well sort of, the idea came from a disease called Vervet Monkey Disease. Vervet is Latin for Green. Let us look at the book A Survey Of Chemical And Biological Warfare by John Cookson and Judith Nottingham has to say about the disease. They say "Vervet Monkey Disease may well be an example of a whole new class of disease-causing organisms. Handling of blood and tissues without precaution causes infection. It is unaffected by any antibiotic substance so far tried and is unrelated to any other organism. It causes fatality in some cases and CAN BE VENEREALLY TRANSMITTED IN MAN. IT IS PRESUMABLY OF BIOLOGICAL WARFARE INTEREST. In addition there are the possibilities of virus and bacteria being genetically manipulated to create new organisms." The Green Monkey is the only animal resistant to Aids. However, he is not the culprit who caused it. The video The Stretcher Memorandum, is a tape in which it is clearly discussed and shown how aids is manmade.

Lastly, and probably most important for our survival, if you take a Micron Particle Size Graph, which is a graph that measures viruses and particles by size. If you measure the Aids virus and the size of the holes in latex condoms and compare, you will notice what the Center For Disease Control, and The World Health Organization already know, but refuse to tell you. That is the fact that the Aids virus is 10x's smaller than the wholes in the latex condom. The size comparison is like trying to fit a tennis ball through a basketball hoop. This means the Aids virus is not stopped by the wearing of a condom. That is why you notice that even after the governments wear condom/safe sex campaign the number of people with Aids is still growing in astonishing rates. If the Center For Disease Control, and World Health Organization know all of this, then you best believe that our government also knows the truth about Aids.

My belief is not only does the government know about aids, but they created it as part of the plan to reduce the worlds population by 3 billion people by the year 2000. This plan is more commonly known as Global 2000. The year 2000 is less than 4 years away and they haven't reached their goal of doing away with 3 billion 'useless eaters'. All I can tell you is Aids is definitely a part of the plan to bring about The New World Order. What's next I'm Not Sure, my advice is PREPARE YOURSELVES.

Is there hope to overturn the New World Order? Can we stop what is about to happen to our society? NO!! Why? Because it has gone to far, and has just about reached its climax. However, we can save ourselves. How you wonder? By breaking away from the values this Western culture holds sacred and dear: THE ALMIGHTY DOLLAR a.k.a. CAPITALISM. We need to go back to our original nature, the one that was in tune with the universe and the laws of the Creator.

Now let me clarify myself, when I say break away I mean a mental separation, for to separate physically by our own will is no longer possible. We cannot base our values on the material gains of this society, for this is how we are controlled and when we can no longer obtain these items we will be like crack-heads going through withdrawal. Cash Rules Every Thing Around Me is a definite reality, and since money is the root of all evil, if you center your life around getting as much of it as you can then you are knee deep in all that is wrong with the world. C.R.E.A.M. is not and should not be OUR reality, because technically speaking, the dollar is nothing but a piece of paper loaded with Masonic symbols representative of this New World Order, the only value it has is that we believe in it, that's why it's called fiat money. But what are we believing in this system of white supremacy in which one of the main goals is to eliminate us. We have to stop placing money and what it represents: a status symbol, a symbol of success, as our means to measure a man's worth, instead measure his character by his deeds, and if he is living his life in accordance to the rules of God and of the universe. But don't get me wrong I'm not saying don't use money, because it is the only means of exchange available in this society and by the same token work to get money to provide for your basic needs, but don't become addicted to it, because then you'll do anything to get it.

Become in tuned with your spirituality, because this is what will guide you on the right path to following God. I'm not saying; however, to all of sudden go out and join the first church you see because then I'd be advocating religion, and religion is a farce, a fallacy. What I am saying is there are certain laws that govern the universe, that we have neglected and because of this our world is on the verge of chaos. Now I'm not going to tell you what laws these are, but I will say this much READ YOUR BIBLES, and for those who don't own one go and get one, and don't just confine yourself to 32 books available to the general public, get the whole Bible, which includes the Apocrypha, the Dead Sea Scrolls and the Q. You may be wondering how this will save from the New World Order; it will not protect you physically, but it will make you mentally strong and better prepared. These people, The Illuminated ones have gone against all the codes of the universe and against the laws of God and will suffer for it and so will those who follow blindly.

To those who believe there is no God, you are successful products of the system woe be unto you for your days are numbered.

Let's not become lost because we cannot let go of the Hillfiger, the DKNY, the Lexus, the Beamere, or the Benz. These are material things that can and will be destroyed, but your soul, your essence, your spiritual energy lives forever. It is a law of physics that energy cannot be destroyed, only change form, don't let because of your stupidity in this life, the next transformation of your energy be one of suffering.

Be aware a day of reckoning is coming, don't get caught up with the masses, for many are called but will you be one of the chosen few?

SYMBOLISM AND THE NEW WORLD ORDER The Breakdown of the Dollar Bill (Part I)

In our on going studies called the "New World Order," one should be aware of the symbolism that surrounds them on a daily basis. Most notably the Dollar Bill.

In May of 1782, the United (snake) States Congress commissioned at the time, secretary of Congress, Charles Thomon to design the symbols which you see on the Dollar Bill today. Thomson was a former teacher at a school in Philadelphia ran by Benjamin Franklin, and was a member of the American Philosophical Society. This organization had been founded by Franklin and other leading Freemasons to promote the art and sciences in the Colonies.

Everyone sees these symbols every single day but who ever asks the questions "why are they there", "What do they mean?". I did, and I found out! Does the number 13 mean anything to you? Probably almost all of you who dared to answer the question said "Isn't that an unlucky number?". Well, it goes a little deeper than that. The simple meanings are as follows: You have a Bald Eagle which represents Amerikkka holding an olive branch with 13 leaves on it representing peace (but we know better, don't we), and 13 arrows representing war. Next, you have 13 stripes on the shield of the bird's chest, representing the original 13 colonies. In the Eagle's beak it holds a long piece of tape saying "E Pluribus Unum" meaning "One out of many". That also consists of 13 letters. Above the Eagle's head is a sort of like a Halo, you have 13 little 5-pointed star or Pentagrams which make the shape of a 6-pointed star or hexagram. Both symbols are used in Witchcraft. I know you are saying, "I thought the 6-pointed star was the Jewish star". Well, it's used by deceived Jew and Christians (no offense) everywhere thinking it's the Star of David or the Seal of Solomon as it is also called. The fact of the matter is King David of Israel NEVER used this symbol. It was adopted by some Jewish priests during their captivity in Babylon, and is the most EVIL symbol used in Witchcraft today. Are you shocked?.....I'm not even done yet If you go over to the left side of the Dollar Bill you'll see a Pyramid with 13 levels (I wonder who built those...Aliens perhaps....NOT!) before you get to a Capstone with an eye in it. The 13 levels represent different degrees of initiation inside an organization called the "Illuminati,(there goes another subject) which is an organization of Freemason of a VERY high degree. We'll talk about the Illuminati in another article, promise.

In conclusion, there are some oddities here outside the number 13 that we should discuss like the 9 feathers in the Eagles tail which represent the 9 levels of York rite Freemasonry and also the 9 supreme Court Justices. Above and below the Pyramid you have the Latin phrase "Annuit coeptus Novas Ordo Seclorum" which means "announcing the birth of a New World Order, or New Order of the Ages". At the base of the Pyramid there's a Roman numeral, MDCCLXXVI or 1776. It has nothing to do with July 4, 1776, as any would believe, but May 1st, 1776, the creation date of the Illuminati. The eye in the capstone represents Lucifer to the Illuminati (also the number 13), maybe that's why it's all over the Dollar Bill.....excuse me, there I go on another tangent again. Anyway the eye also represents the Rothschild family who is the financial backing of the Illuminati.(Whew!) The last quick thing I will mention is the 32 feathers on each wing of the Eagle, which represent the 32 degrees of Scottish Rite Freemasonry.

We've discussed a lot of things in this article pertaining to symbolism. Join me in my next article or Part II, where I will discuss (God willing), What the Illuminati is, the DEEPER Masonic meanings of the Dollar Bill symbols, What the different degrees of Initiation in the Illuminati are, What a Freemason is, and who the Rothschilds are.

Peace for now, and beware of "666" in the flesh. Don't forget to read: Revelations 13:16-18, and 14:9-11.

AIDS as a Weapon of War

by Dr. William Campbell Douglas, M.D.
Introduction & Comments by Jim Shults
INTRODUCTION AND COMMENTS

I must admit I am just a little gun shy of doing this particular article. The reason is pretty obvious. Who in hell is going to plead guilty to inventing the AIDS virus. Do I think it was invented? Absolutely and without a doubt.

Firstly, where in hell has it been during the last 5000 years? Why haven't we had exposure to it sooner, like in the last 50 years?

All of a sudden certain countries and entire continents are coming down with the AIDS virus and no organization, body, group, or whatever you care to call it has even a clue to the real source, and it sure as hell isn't some monkey in Africa, that's for sure.

Over the last twenty years the genetic scientists have been having a field day inventing all kinds of new "life." Some have even been granted patents for their creatures, which are usually various types of bacteria, etc.

One patent was granted for the invention, or more accurately put, creation, of a type of bacteria that eats oil, handy for oil spills I guess. Now do you think for even a second that a virus like the AIDS virus couldn't be created with all the genetic engineering that is going on around the world?

There are certain types of bacteria that are living in test tubes in labs around the world that if released would cause the end of mankind in less than a year.

The real question is why we allow these bozos to play in labs, making all kinds of new and artificial life in the first place. It is going to backfire; in fact the author already feels it has, through the deliberate release of the HIV (human immunodeficiency virus); that's what AIDS is really called.

Something extraordinary happened last June (88'), in fact it was so extraordinary that nothing like it has ever happened before.

The Surgeon General of the United States had mailed to every mailbox and address in the United States a brochure attempting to explain AIDS, its danger, myths and means of transmission. The absolutely amazing thing about this was that it was done at all.

Think of this for a minute: the U.S. Government mailed this information to every address in America. That in itself should tell all of us something that the media has somehow missed — that this is a population-destroying virus.

That really means that we all are in shit city, race fans, and the Government know it. It is significant that they did the mailing, and that should be very significant to anyone who knows how our government works and what kind of very real panic those who really know are experiencing.

When something like this brochure is made available as it was, you can be very sure that the boys at the top, including the scientific folks, are up against something they may not beat before it has a very real chance of destroying at least half of mankind!

In fact, the fastest time even guessed at, for some kind of beginning cure for some types of AIDS is at least five years and that's thought to be impossible by medical people.

The author comes up with a very plausible scenario for how rapidly AIDS has been distributed. (We are not blaming the World Health Organization. In the author's scenario he simply indicates that the WHO was used by others.)

Let's face it, we are in very real trouble. There are several types of new AIDS viruses and more to be discovered, and who is to say how the new ones, not yet mutated, will spread — a sneeze perhaps?

Our government and others around the world are not telling us the truth about this stuff in order to protect our poor little dumb minds. I suspect that if we know the truth, an enormous citizen effort could be martialled worldwide which would probably shut down the arms race for the time being.

Again, at the bottom line, we are in big trouble and "they" know it....Many scientists predict we will lose half the world's population (including U.S.) by the year 2000.

AIDS as a Weapon of War
by William Campbell Douglass, M.D.

The great powers renounced chemical and biological warfare 20 years ago — but kept right on experimenting. The germ warfare experiments on Seventh Day Adventist soldiers,

1) the Tuskegee syphilis experiments on prisoners,

2) the San Francisco Bay attack by the U.S.

Army using serratia marcescens bacteria,

3) the New York City subway germ attack

4) and many other experiments on humans, largely unknown to the victims, continue in the free world.

In Novosybirsk, at the Ivanofsky Institute and other Soviet centers of biological warfare, you can be sure that similar diabolical experiments on humans continue at a frantic pace.

The Soviet press, always masters of the half truth, accused the U.S. Army of having engineered the AIDS virus in the biological warfare laboratories at Fort Detrick, Maryland.

This was a clever psy-war ploy which, for a while anyway, neutralized those of us who were saying essentially the same thing, that the AIDS virus was probably created through recombinant genetic engineering (the rearranging of genes between two or more species of plants or animal) and/or serial passage: the growing a series of generations of tissue culture cells or live animals, thus adapting the virus to a new species, using human tissue culture cells in the top security labs at Fort Detrick.

People started accusing us of spreading the communist line, not a comfortable position for a dedicated anti-communist like myself.

What the Soviet propagandists didn't say was that their agents had been working in our top security biological warfare laboratories for over 20 years.

In a burst of brotherly love they were invited in by President Nixon. The astounded communist scientists from Russia, the Eastern Bloc and Communist China, who had been trying to penetrate this vital security area for 40 years, quickly accepted.

They have been snickering in their beakers ever since, while they prepare for our demise.

"It's no secret that they are there," Dr. Carlton Gajdusek, Nobel Prize winner, a top official at the Fort Detrick Army laboratory in Maryland, said in Onni Magazine (March 1986): "In the facility I have a building where more good and loyal communist scientists from the USSR and mainland China work, with full passkeys laboratories, than there are American. Even the Army's infectious disease unit is loaded with foreign workers who are not always friendly nationals."

This answer to an interview question refers to the high number of Soviet bloc scientists in this U.S. facility who act as inspectors to ensure that we are not producing bacteriological weapons in violation of treaties with the Soviets.

You can't put it more plainly than that. Even the Trojans weren't that stupid: at least they didn't KNOW the Trojan horse was full of soldiers.

When it became obvious to the Communist press that we were getting the truth out about who was running things at Fort Detrick, they completely reversed themselves and said it was all a mistake. Everything was just fine at Fort Detrick.

To understand the enormity of our betrayal you must know about the origin of the AIDS virus. The virologists of the world, the sorcerers who brought us this ghastly plague, have a united front in denying that the virus was laboratory made from known, lethal animal viruses.

The scientific party line is that a monkey in Africa with AIDS bit a native on the butt. The native then went to town and gave it to a prostitute who gave it to the local banker who gave it to his wife and three girlfriends and what!

50 to 75 million people became infected with AIDS in Africa and throughout the world. This is an entirely preposterous story, and it is preposterous because:

1. The green velvet monkey of Africa doesn't get human AIDS. You can't reproduce the disease in monkeys even by injecting AIDS virus directly into them.

2. After injecting the virus into monkeys, you can't transmit it to other monkeys, much less to humans.

3. Genetically, AIDS (HIV-1) is not even close to the monkey form of immunodeficiency virus. [Ed. Note: For references on the three items above, see: Seale, Dr. John J., Royal Society of Medicine, Sept. 1987, Seale, Dr. John J., The Origin of AIDS — International Conference on AIDS, Cairo, March 1988.]

4. AIDS started not in the villages but in the cities of Africa, where there are no wild monkeys.

MANSLAUGHTER

Thursday, April 4, 1996

This country is filled with so much lies and hate we all need to wake up realize before it's too late
The time is now 11:55 and most of us keep sleepin' as we approach the final hour we need to stop creepin' Hitting the snooze button to get a few minutes of rest as long as we remain relaxed we're gonna die like the rest Right now we are all living on Long Island but if you knew what I know you won't be smiling Mineola, Wyndanch, Ronkonkoma, Hauppauge, and Commack all names of Native American tribes but where the hell are they at That's why I could never pledge my country tis of thee because of what I know, this is no sweet land of liberty Sometimes I just stoop down and cry whenever I'm forced to open up my third eye Because genetic annihilation and race cleansing is what this country was founded on no need to look around confused about what is going on
If you take a look at the other side of the country now can someone explain what's going on to me
Los Angeles, San Francisco, and San Diego, too all territory once owned by Speedy Gonzalez and his Mexican crew
But just a few ago when they tried to reclaim what was theirs from jump
they got beaten and arrested by some racist cop punks
For April fools you joked about Taco Bell purchasing your Liberty Bell for some laughs that shit ain't funny, thinking about how all those Mexicans got kicked in the ass
Just a few days before several Mexicans tried to Run for the Border
You charged them with resisting arrest

I charge you with Manslaughter

WHAT YOU ARE

Open up your eye
so you can witness
what's going by,
cause when the present slips
and becomes the past,
and your heart beats it's last
who will say faster
that they recognized their real master,
and which of us will die of laughter.

Take a look around and count how many in here do you think will be down.
there are those who remember and those who forget,
the blood, the sweat,
the ships, whips, and threats...
but we like to sleep to soft sounds and see sex scenes on TV sets.
Marvin sang a song that asked "What's going on?"
The ways of the world are all wrong and we've been lost for too long.
Try to ignore and I'll ask you who you work for.
Yeah times have changed the four quarters to a dollar,
even five of those can buy you an hour there is only one, so don't let George become your father.

Open up your eye
so you can witness
what's going by,
cause when the present slips
and becomes the past,
and your heart beats it's last
who will say faster
that they recognized their real master,
and which of us will die of laughter.

Let's answer this question,
What is resurrection?
Not your clothes collection or your caramel skin complexion realize you're a product of perfection with a spirit for protection.
his power is personal...eternally yours are you striving for a cause?

or do you play and pause.
One can't be confined to ticks of time.
Life comes from sunshine, but . . .
where is your mind?

Open up your eye
so you can witness
what's going by,
cause when the present slips
and becomes the past,
and your heart beats it's last
who will say faster
that they recognized their real master,
and which of us will die of laughter.

Intellectual masturbation is the essence of today's existence.
Western societies material wealth and riches, stimulates the senses of man-made niggers and bitches.
Cramming complex context in the corner of craniums, causing contusion and confusion creating a pseudo security we claim.
Government regulations, control the masses' manner and behavior, imbeciles are obedient to a Trans. Atlantic slaver, who named the vessel after the savior .

The spirituality of the galaxy can't be measured by material means, we are interplanetary beings who lust for earthy things.
Will it take the time to reach the farthest star for you to realize who and what you are?

So open up your eye
so you can witness
what's going by,
cause when the present slips
and becomes the past,
and your heart beats it's last
who will say faster
that they recognized their real master,
and which of us will die in disaster.

THE WHISPERED SECRET

TALL AND STIFF YOU STAND SWAYING IN THE WIND, UNWELDING IN YOUR GLORY
EXTENSIONS OF YOURSELF ERECTED TOWARD THE HEAVENS ABOVE.
REACHING, GRASPING DESPERATELY AT THE UNATTAINABLE.

HOW STRANGE AND TWISTED YOU LOOK, STANDING BARREN WITHOUT THE ANNUAL CLOAK OF COLOUR.
THE SEASON'S CHANGE HAS STRIPPED YOU DRESS AWAY
NOW STANDING, A LONELY SKELETON OF WHAT WAS.

NEIGHBOURS BECKON YOU CLOSER.
INTIMATELY NEAR, EXTENSION TWINE TOGETHER,
THE WIND INCREASES ITS PACE.

WHAT IS IT THAT IS SAID
-THAT IS SHARED? THAT IS TOLD?
THE WIND HOWLS .
HOW EVIL IT SOUNDS.

BRANCHES LOCKED TOGETHER SWING WILDLY IN A FRENZY OF MOTION.
SCARED LEAVES SCATTER FURIOUSLY AWAY FROM THE WRATH WHIPPING NAKED BODIES.
SCOLDING, HURTING, PUNISHING.

PAINFULLY THIN AND PALE YOU SHUDDER-
-ACCEPTING WHAT FATE HAS DEALT YOU, FOR KEEPING YOUR WHISPERED SECRET.

TURNING POINT

I wonder what would've happened to this country if slavery never existed.

I wonder if the fields would still flourish
if they didn't have the blood of slaves
• nourishing the soil.

I wonder if the Ku Klux Klan would've been the country's first and largest culture club.

I wonder if, Eyes on the Prize, and We Shall Overcome would just be songs to sing when needed to boost our morale.

I wonder if all black children would feel secure about the texture of their hair, the color of their skin, the width of their noses, or the thickness of their lips.

I wonder what Martin, and Malcolm would've preached about.

I wonder if they would've made as strong an impact on history.

I wonder if they would still be here today.

I wonder if anyone gave any thought to the turning points that this country would undergo.

I wonder if they ever imagined it would be anything like this.

TISCHELLE L. GEORGE

ON THE ORIGIN OF THINGS

Look around you BLACK CHILD, you creation is everywhere
 Though painted, distorted, given new names, they bare your prints just the same
 So sharpen your eyes and tune your ears
 so you'll know what you see and understand what you hear

You were the first to write,
 the first to read,
 humanity sprang from your black seed
 For a hundred and ten thousand years you were here alone and then the Caucasian man was born Behind the ice, inside the cold
 a chill set in, this new man of soul
 Other minds have been credited with things that mold from you Newton, Pythagoras, Kepler, and Galileo, too
 So sharpen your eyes and tune your ears
 so you'll know what you see and understand what you hear

You made the serpent the symbol of the healing arts an African justice was Goddess Maat Who weighed herself against the African sold truth and justice blindfold
 The George Washington Monument is yours, too
 a copy of the African Teketnu
 The symbol of the black balls, power of creation the black man's penis in divine procreation
 The King of Southern Egypt wore a white crown, keep listening as you catch your mouth when you learn that the Central Government in Egypt was known as the White House
 So sharpen your eyes and tune your ears
 so you'll know what you see and understand what you hear

Your God Osiris was restored to life long before Buddha, long before Christ And today what you call the Madonna and Child is but the first black family worshipped along the Nile
 And when you feel the spirit, the Holy Ghost you should know it started at Abodos Where God Osiris' body was laid the holy land where Africans prayed Minute by minute, hour by hour as you lose your history, you lose your power
 So sharpen your eyes and tune your ears
 so you'll know what you see and understand what your hear

The Mark Of The Beast

Revelation 13:16-18- Also it causes all, both small and great, both rich and poor, both free and slave, to be marked on the right hand or the forehead, so that no one can buy or sell unless he has the mark, that is, the name of the beast, or the number of his name. This calls for wisdom: let him who has understanding reckon the number of the beast, for it is a human number, its number is six hundred and sixty-six.

Is the Mark of the Beast Prophecy in the book of Revelations real? It is clear that the technology to make it happen is. So let us analyze what that technology is, and how technology advanced to get us to this point.

1. The Invention of the computer enabled us to store large amounts of information, and transfer it quickly and efficiently anywhere in the world.

2. The Credit Card is probably the most important financial innovation since paper money. It was invented by Melvin Salvenson who started Mastercard. Mr. Salvenson has now invented something called the Onecard. The Onecard will enable you to access your visa, mastercard, checking account, savings account, or anything else having to do with your personnel finances. This will enable us to move directly into a cash less society, which is necessary for the Mark of The Beast prophecy to come true. In a cash less society the only way you can buy or sell would be with the mark.

3. The Bar Code was started about 15 years ago. It is now a 6 billion dollar a year industry. Bar Codes are a group of lines or bars in secession, that when scanned, give a read out of the information contained within the code. Every Bar Code has 3 longer lines called Guard Bars. One of these is on each end of the code, and the third one is located in the middle. These three longer lines are made up of two bars each, and have no number underneath them. If you look at the actual bars with numbers underneath, you will find that the number 6 is the only number on the code which is represented by double bars, like the three guard bars. Therefore, on all your products that have Bar Codes you have the Number 666 on them. A lot of information can be stored within the Bar Codes. In California, 19 million motorists were the first to carry the countries first digitized and bar coded drivers license, which features Photo, Thumb Print, and Data Print showing any violations, or as in the movie Tales From The Hood, it shows other information such as political and religious affiliations etc. I Had one of these license and I just got a New York license that also has a Bar Code on the back.

4. The Destron IDI Company from Colorado took Bar Codes one step further. They started researching Radio Frequency Identification. The IDI technology line was centered around two basic components. 1) Transponders and microchips. These Transponders contain a miniaturized integrated circuit, that has a unique 10 digit coded number embedded into it. It has an antenna which receives radio frequency energy from a scanner, and transmits its encoded ID number. 2) Readers can send a signal to the Transponders, energizing the information chip, and receiving the 10 digit coded number in return. The information is then translated into a readable language and passed to a printer or any other database for recording. There most exciting product is an implantable chip, which is so small it can barely be seen on the fingertip. The chip is encased in glass and is implanted under the skin through a standard needle. It is safe, long lasting, painless, and non-migratory(meaning it doesn't move from place injected)

5. InfoPet is a company that claims to have the full proof way to keep pets safe. No longer will people have to anguish over their lost pets(or children).

Their system works through the reading of the radio frequencies of a chip, that is implanted into the animal. The implantation technique is no different than a ROUTINE IMMUNIZATION SHOT (One should note that it was through routine immunization shot for hepatitis B in 1979-80 and 1980-81, that the AIDS Virus was unleashed upon the American Citizens). An encapsulated microchip comes inside a needle which has already been sterilized. A 10 digit code or registration is burned into the chip. Registration is designed to contain enough information about you to readily aid in the recovery of the lost or stolen animal. In January 1987, in Los Angeles, California, Mayor Tom Bradley, a member of the Tri Lateral Commission, approved Field testing of Infopet on animals in Los Angeles. Over the course of four years they implanted thousands of animals, and they have concluded that the microchip implant is safe and effective for all species and animals(remember humans are just a species of animal). Infopet claims that "It will replace and render obsolete all other forms of Identification."

In a program Beyond 2000, they were saying that they wanted to move this chip into New York City street kids, and give a chip to every prisoner. With this chip they propose, that no prisoner will be able to escape, because through satellite surveillance, within five minutes, they will be able to locate you anywhere in the world within 10 feet of your exact location. In fact the satellites are so strong, they can take a picture of a stamp on a tennis court, or read the changes in ones body temperature. There is a lot more that could be discussed about this Mark Of The Beast technology, like the fact that Singapore has become a completely cash less society, and that each of its 2.7 million citizens is forced to carry a national ID Card that is very similar to Clinton's proposed Health Care Card (This card forces every citizen to have one. It breaks the country into 10 regions, and each citizen has to register in the region they fall under. If they get caught out of there region they can be questioned, and if they move regions they have thirty days to reregister in the new region. Sounds like an elaborate tracking system), or the fact that 15 states are already engaged in prisoner electronic surveillance, or the fact that new computers in police cars link right into C.I.A., and F.B.I. computers. However we do not have the time to discuss it all right now, but if you want more info, and are interested in finding out more all of this information and more can be obtained by contacting a member of the Black Caucus, and informing them you want it.

In conclusion, it is my belief that the microchip is not the only mark. As the Bible says, the Mark will be received in the hand or the forehead. Thus, if the microchip is meant to be implanted into the hand, what is the mark on the forehead? I firmly believe that since America is Egypt, Babylon, and Sodom and Gomorrah all rolled into one, the mark on the forehead involves excepting American and Western Ideals. Therefore if you do not receive the mark on your hand, make sure you don't receive the mental mark on your minds. I would like to say that I'm not Christian, Muslim, nor am I Jewish, I am just trying to become a righteous man and a child of the creator. In making this attempt, I have just recently begun to pick up the Holy books and started to read. However, through my research most of the prophecies within the Bible have come true, and the prophecy of the Mark of The Beast is one of the indicators that we are in the last days and the creator is returning soon. So even if you do not believe that this microchip is the Mark of The Beast, there is no debating the fact that we are the first generation in history to have the technology to make this prophecy come true. Thus, it is imperative that we understand that are generation at the very least, marks the beginning of the Last Days. PREPARE YOURSELVES

A Brief History of the Black Panther Party and Its Place In the Black Liberation Movement

Originated on: Wed Jan 25 1995

There will be a massive assault on the memory of the Black Panther Party in 1995. The following essay will help us defend the legacy and struggle for clarity, please consider using it. We know that many of you may have seen this piece already, but remember and know that there are many more who have not.

By Sundiata Acoli

The Black Panther Party for Self-Defense was founded in October, 1966, in Oakland, California by Huey P. Newton and Bobby Seale. The name was shortened to the Black Panther Party (BPP) and it began spreading eastward through the Black urban ghetto-colonies across country.

In the summer of '68, David Brothers established a BPP branch in Brooklyn, New York, and a few months later Lumumba Shakur set up a branch in Harlem, New York. I joined the Harlem BPP in the fall of '68 and served as its Finance Officer until arrested on April 2, 1969 in the Panther 21 Conspiracy case which was the opening shot in the government's nationwide attack on the BPP. Moving westward, Police Departments in each city made military raids on BPP offices or homes in Philadelphia, Chicago, Newark Omaha, Denver, New Haven, San Diego, Los Angeles and other cities, murdering some Panthers and arresting others.

After I and most other Panther 21 members were held in jail and on trial for two years, We were all acquitted of all charges and released. Most of us returned to the community and to the BPP but by then COINTELPRO had taken its toll. The BPP was rife with dissension, both internal and external. The internal strife, division, intrigue, and paranoia had become so ingrained that eventually most members drifted or were driven, away. Some continued the struggle on other fronts and some basically cooled out altogether. The BPP limped on for several more years, then died what seemed a natural death.

History will be the ultimate judge of the BPP's place in the Black Liberation Movement (BLM). But in these troubled times Afrikan people in the U. S. need to investigate both the positive and negative aspects of the BPP's history in order to learn from those hard lessons already paid for in blood. In particular We need to learn the reasons for the BPP's rapid rise to prominence, the reason for its ability to move so many Afrikans and other nationalities, and the reason for its demise during its brief sojourn across the American scene. It's not possible in this short paper, on short notice, to provide much of what is necessary, so this paper will confine itself to pointing out some of the broader aspects of the BPP's positive and negative contributions to the BLM.

The Positive Aspects of the BPP's Contributions

1. Self-Defense: This is one of the fundamental areas in which the BPP contributed to the BLM. It's also one of the fundamental things that set the BPP apart from most previous Black organizations and which attracted members (particularly the youth), mass support, and a mass following. The concept is not only sound, it's also common sense. But it must be implemented correctly, otherwise it can prove more detrimental than beneficial. The self-defense policies of the BPP need to be analyzed in this light by present day Afrikan organizations. All history has shown that this government will bring its police and military powers to bear on any group which truly seeks to free Afikan people. Any Black "freedom" organization which ignores self-defense does at its own peril.

2. Revolutionary Nationalist Ideology: The BPP was a nationalist organization. Its main goal was the national liberation of Afrikan people in the U. S., and it restricted its membership to Blacks only. It was also revolutionary. The BPP theories and practices were based on socialist principles. It was anti-capitalist and struggled for a socialist revolution of U. S. society.

On the national level, the BPP widely disseminated socialist base programs to the Afrikan masses. Internationally, it provided Afrikans in the U. S. with a broader understanding of our relationship to the Afrikan continent, the emerging independent Afrikan nations, Third World nations, Socialist nations, and all the Liberation Movements associated with these nations. Overall the ideology provided Afrikans here with a more concrete way of looking at and analyzing the world. Heretofore much of Black analysis of the world, and the society in which We live, was based on making ourselves acceptable to White society, proving to Whites that We were human, proving to Whites that We were ready for equality, proving We were equal to Whites, disproving racist ideas held by Whites, struggling for integration or equal status with Whites theories of "loving the enemy", "hating the enemy", "they're all devils", spookism, and other fuzzy images of how the real world worked.

3. Mass Organizing Techniques: Another fundamental thing that attracted members and mass support to the BPP was its policy of "serving the people". This was a policy of going to the masses, living among them, sharing their burdens, and organizing the masses to implement their own solutions to the day to day problems that were of great concern to them.

By organizing and implementing the desires of the masses, the BPP organized community programs ranging from free breakfast for children, to free health clinics, to rent strikes resulting in tenant ownership of their buildings, to Liberation School for grade-schoolers, to free clothing drives, to campaigns for community control of schools, community control of police, and campaigns to stop drugs, crime, and police murder and brutality in the various Black colonies across America. For these reasons, and others, the influence of the BPP spread far beyond its actual membership. Not only did the BPP programs teach self-reliance, but years later the government established similar programs such as free school lunch, expanded Medicare and day care facilities, and liberalized court procedures for tenant take-overs of poorly maintained housing, partly if not primarily in order to snuff out the memory of previous similar BPP programs and the principle of self-reliance.

4. Practice of Women's Equality: Another positive contribution of the BPP was its advocacy and practice of equality for women throughout all levels of the organization and in society itself. This occurred at a time when most Black Nationalist organizations were demanding that the woman's role be in the home and/or one step behind the Black man, and at a time when the whole country was going through a great debate on the woman's liberation issue.

5. Propaganda Techniques: The BPP made significant contributions to the art of propaganda. It was very adept at spreading its message and ideas through its newspaper The Black Panther, mass rallies, speaking tours, slogans, posters, leaflets, cartoons, buttons, symbols (i.e., the clenched fist), graffiti, political trials, and even funerals. The BPP also spread its ideas through very skillful use of the establishment's t.v., radio, and print media.

One singular indication, although there are others, of the effectiveness of BPP propaganda techniques is that even today, over a decade later, a large part of the programs shown on t.v. are still "police stories" and many of the roles available to Black actors are limited to police roles. A lot of this has to do with the overall process of still trying to rehabilitate the image of the police from its devastating exposure during the Panther era, and to prevent the true role of the police in this society from being exposed again.

The Negative Aspects of the BPP Contributions

1. 1) Leadership Corrupted: COINTELPRO eventually intimidated and corrupted all three of the BPP's top leaders: Huey P. Newton, Bobby Seale and Eldridge Cleaver. Each, in their own way, caved in to the pressures and began acting in a manner that was deliberately designed to destroy the BPP, and to disillusion not only Party members but Afrikan people in America for years to come. COINTELPRO's hopes were that Afrikans in America would be so disillusioned that never again would they trust or follow any Afrikan leader or organization which advocated real solutions to Black oppression.

I send peace, love, war, hate, and everything that goes between to my Brothers and Sisters internationally. Why? Because in reality there is a time for everything, and right now it's time for us to get together. This article is directed towards the intellectuals in our communities who are willing to look at and evaluate the division that exists amongst our people with an open mind. This is also for those who have identified their position in this oppressive society and are willing to make the sacrifices to change it. But before we can make progress, we must do two things: 1. Determine who is really down with the cause. Secondly, unify those who are dedicated and then proceed to take care of business. This format could be applied to any predicament that affects us, but the primary focus deals with the division that exist between people of the African Diaspora (meaning all people of color). We must realize that everyone who is of color isn't going to get involved due to fear, complacency, and/or the lack of knowledge. We have to be careful not condemn them but understand it's this European socialization process that has stripped us of much of our heritage, culture, history, morals and values. Many of us are emulating European social standards which are detrimental to our existence.

My Brothers and Sisters, please deal with what I am about to say with an open mind, and for those who can't, I apologize to whoever I've offended. Now, there's a problem in both the Black and Latino communities and the root of our ailments has been identified above. Let's ask ourselves an honest question. How many times do we look at someone and try to determine their nationality, but it's not until they speak that you can really tell the difference? As soon as they say what they are (called), the stereotypes, emotions, and other preconceived notions take over.

By any means, we need to understand that we are all the same people. We are hue-man beings and we make up hue-mankind. No matter which way you look at it, we are all descendants of Africa. The birthplace of your parents does not change the blood that flows in your veins. Indeed, many of us were raised in different cultures, but that has no bearing on our mental and physical potential. There are far more similarities that exist between us than there are differences. The differences are exaggerated because there is no such thing as unify and conquer, its just far to many of us are playing this division game for our colonizers.

Yes we come in a wide variety of shades and hues, and this is attributed to the mixing of African, Asian, the (so called) Indigenous Indians and European populations. No matter where you come from, in America if you are not white, you are a minority, not an American. We have never been minorities. How in the hell could they even attempt to call us minorities when for every one white person in the world, there is nine to eleven people of color? Well really its rather simple. They are not referring to it numerical meaning, its in the context of power. As long as we are divided, we pose no MAJOR threat to their establishment.

Brothers and Sisters, we are all of the SAME SEED though we reside in different tribes. Our only difference is cultural barriers that we hold against each other. That barrier is causing division and that division is causing us to be weak. If you are weak, you're a MINOR problem to someone in power. This is directly related to why we are still being oppressed and exploited all over the world.

So to all the president of cultural organizations, critical thinkers, intellectuals, etc., this is the problem that we are faced with. We have an opportunity to solve this problem on a trial and error basis right here on campus. Stony brook is a microcosm of the world, so let's take advantage of the time we have to take care of this business. We need to combine our various cultural perspectives and political insights, as one unified group of people and become a powerful force to be reckon with.

THE BLACK CAUCUS MISSION STATEMENT

The Black Caucus is a newly formed organization on the campus of the State University Of New York at Stony Brook. We were founded in the Spring semester 1995. The purpose of our organization is to provide a vehicle in which to continue the long history of fighting for our freedom and to bring about the cultural enhancement and upliftment of the Black Community, by keeping its members informed and functioning in events taking place in today's society.

Our goal is to achieve Freedom and Liberation from the world wide system of white supremacy, for Blacks throughout the African Diaspora. It is our belief that Black people are Latinos, Asians, Native Americans and all people who are descendants of the original people of Africa, no matter where they may have been dispersed throughout the world. The vehicle through which this is initiated takes the form of Caucus meetings, where social, political, economic, and spiritual issues concerning and involving the Black Community are discussed, and ideas and strategies are drawn up to bring about change. We also hope to create an environment of support between you the people of color, The Black Caucus, and the other BLACK organizations that have already been established.

Our meetings are held every Friday night at 8 p.m. in the Uniti Cultural Center. All students of color are welcome. We look forward to seeing you, and working with you for the rest of your college years. Lastly we would like to say that we will help any organization who wants to put a sincere effort to eradicate high levels of campus apathy, uplift the level of consciousness, and bring about a positive change in the conditions students of color face on campus, as well as the conditions we are subjected to as Black people here in America.

Black Awareness Tip

On the Jerry Springer Talk Show, in which the topic was about Klu Klux, Klan (KKK) and Racism, a guest made the statement, "I would like to thank you niggers for making me a millionaire." The KKK guest was referring to the gold crown airfresheners that some of us may have in our cars. The emblem on the top of the crown is the symbol of the KKK. We as African-Americans must beware of what we are purchasing and investigate the meaning behind it. Let us not be ignorant and cater to our adversaries. The Bible states, "my people will perish for lack of knowledge." Let us pass this important information on to all people.

Terms For The New World Order

The following are terms, organizations, or words involved with the New World Order.

Mark Of The Beast - The mark talked about in the book of Revelations 13: 15-18. It is a mark to be received on the hand or the forehead. Some say this mark is the new microchip implants that they already implant into pets.

Freemasonry - The largest fraternal organization in the world. Almost all of the conspirators behind the New World Order belong to this organization in some way or another. It is called a society within a society, meaning that not all masons know the evils that the organization perpetrates. Only a few Masons really know what masonry is all about.

Illuminati - Group founded in 1776 by Adam Weishaupt. Thought to have been disposed of hundreds of years ago, it is still in existence, and is one of the most dangerous and evil of the secret societies. Their sole purpose is to unite the world under a one world government, with them at its head.

Rosicrucians - Another secret society that is a society within a society. They also contribute to the development of the New World Order.

P2 Masonry - Probably the most notorious masonry lodge. There out of Italy. They have been implicated in everything from bribery to assassination. P2 is directly connected to the Vatican, The Knights of Malta, and to the C.I.A. It is powerful and dangerous.

Olympians - Otherwise known as The Committee Of 300. This is the main group behind the New World Order. It's leader is Queen Elizabeth II. There out of England. They control large amounts of the world's wealth, and most of what goes on in this country, and the world. All the other secret societies serve the Olympians.

Knights Of Malta - They are a world organization with its threads weaving through business, banking, politics, the C.I.A., other intelligence agencies, P2 masonry, religion, education, law, military, think tanks, foundations, the US Information Agency, the U.N., and numerous other organizations. They are one of the oldest branches of the Order Of The Quest in existence. The world head is elected for a life term, with the approval of the Pope. They are sworn to work for the New World Order with the Pope at its head.

Knights Templar - They survive today as a branch of the Illuminati and guard the relics (Holy Grail, Robe of Jesus, the remains of the Cross Of Crucifixion, and whether Jesus actually died or survived and produced a child). They are hidden in a location known only to them. They were founded in the 11th century by Pieter de Sion for the express purpose of guarding the remaining relics of Jesus and to provide military protection for the religious travelers during their pilgrimage to the Holy City.

Skull and Bones and Scroll And Key - The people who assume power in this country are always recruited from these secret societies of Harvard and Yale. Both societies are secret branches of the Illuminati. They are connected to parent organizations in England and Germany. Members are chosen on an ongoing basis by invitation based upon merit post college and are not confined to only Harvard and Yale attendees. George Bush is a member of the Skull and Bones.

Club Of Rome - Highly organized conspiratorial body operating under the cover of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO). It is one of the most important foreign policy arms of the Committee of 300. It was put together in 1968 to speed up the plans of the One World Government, called The New World Order.

Royal Institute For International Affairs - Foreign policy Executive arm of the British Crown, therefore their important to the Committee Of 300. They run this country from top to bottom through their secret upper parallel government which is tightly meshed with the Olympians. Founded in 1919, with the sole purpose of controlling all facets of the US

Trilateral Commission - It is an elite group of some 300 very prominent business, political, and intellectual decision makers of Western Europe, North America, and Japan. It's grand design is a New World Order. It was founded by David Rockefeller. The reason for its creation was the decline of the power of the Council on Foreign Relations.

Council On Foreign Relation (CFR) - It is a private organization of business executives, scholars, and political leaders that studies global problems, and plays a key role in developing US foreign policy. It is controlled by an elite group of men recruited from the Skull and Bones and Scroll and Key societies who make up the Executive Committee. It is an offshoot of The Royal Institute For International Affairs. Their goal is a New World Order.

Bildbergers - Organized in 1952 and named after the hotel where the first meeting was held in 1954. The core of the organization is 3 committees of 13 members each. Thus the heart of the organization consists of 39 total members of the Illuminati. The committee works year round in Switzerland. Every proposal or plan that has ever been discussed at an annual meeting of the group has come to pass usually within one to two years following the meeting. Meetings are closed and private. They are a creation of M16 and are under the control of the Royal Institute For International Affairs.

Global 2000 - Plan to eliminate 3 billion people from the Earth's population by the year 2000. This will be done through wars, famine, and the implementation of diseases.

Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) - They have nothing to do with natural disasters like they say. Their job is to run the concentration camps and implement the new government once the President Declares a National Emergency. This will immediately suspend the constitution and give FEMA power through Executive Orders. The main one is Executive Order 11490. The US will become a virtual police state.

Protocols of The Elders Of Zion - This was a plan by Jewish Zionists that surfaced in a book in the early 1800's. Every aspect of this plan is to subjugate the world has since become reality, validating the authenticity of the conspiracy Multi - Jurisdictional Task Force (MJTF POLICE) - Their mission is to encompass and collect all local law enforcement and bring it under one umbrella. It has been publicly announced in Maryland, Louisiana, Washington State, and Chicago. They are regionally coordinated.

FINSER - They are composed of Foreign Military and Secret Police. It was admitted to be in existence in 1992. It is interlocked with Interpol, the U.N., and other international organizations.

Directorate Of Central Law Enforcement - They will encompass the FBI, DEA, Marshall's, ATF, Customs, and the Treasury. They are the National Secret Police force.

In 1791 Benjamin Banneker was appointed to a three man team of surveyors named by President George Washington to design the District of Columbia. Banneker, son of a free mulatto mother and an African father who had purchased his way out of slavery, was a mason whom aided in the layout of Washington D.C. Notice that the eye and pyramid seen on the dollar bill is also replicated in the design of the District of Columbia. Particularly the area surrounding the United States Capitol to the Washington Monument, THE SAME AREA WHERE THE MILLION MAN MARCH TOOK PLACE.

50 Awful Things About The Illuminati

1. There are many Illuminated groups with different kinds of secret knowledge. Anything you might say about them (including this) will be false for some of the Illuminati, but true for others, which only adds to the confusion and mystery.
2. The Illuminati infiltrate and take over organizations of all kinds, from churches to the post office to the corner grocery store, and turn them to their own ends.
3. And, just as a black joke, some of their subject organizations advertise themselves as Secret Societies.
4. They have agents and "sleepers" planted everywhere. Many of these people have no idea who they are really reporting to. Others are active members of the conspiracy, working their way ever deeper into the fabric of society.
5. They control the schools in order to make sure that young people learn to enjoy strange tuneless music and weird outlandish games, and that they dress oddly.
6. They also try to recruit the best and the brightest young people as agents, to insure the next generation of the Conspiracy.
7. They constantly feud among themselves and war with other groups and organizations. Each group of Illuminati is constantly striving to increase its power base and undermine the competition.
8. Their first means of dealing with opposition is to buy it off. To any group as rich as the Illuminati, a few million dollars are nothing.
9. Next they try threats. Danger to possessions, status or loved ones has dissuaded many a would-be foe of Illuminati schemes.
10. And, of course, murder is an ancient political weapon. The Illuminati have been responsible for some of the most shocking assassinations of modern times.
11. They also replace people with doubles. For many years they recruited look-alikes who would serve their ends. Now they are perfecting cloning technology that will let them replace anybody.
12. Those who can't be dealt with any other way are discredited or driven mad.
13. The Illuminati conspiracy is hundreds, if not thousands, of years old. Many of the most famous names of history have been Illuminated, or Illuminati agents. Indeed, all of history is nothing more than an outside view of the schemes and struggles of the Illuminati.
14. And, of course, the Illuminati are constantly rewriting history to serve their own goals. For instance, modern school-children are taught that there is no historical evidence of Jesus Christ, and they learn nothing about the Russo-German War or the state of Arcadia.
15. They control the news media, so you hear what they want you to about today's news. Any event that doesn't act in with their program will be quickly hushed up.
16. In particular, they control television. They don't permit intelligent shows to survive; they encourage mind candy that will keep people from thinking. The only reason good shows are permitted to appear at all is to convince intelligent people that nobody else likes such material, and that there must be something wrong with them.
17. The Illuminati manipulate the stock market and control currencies on an international level. Your paycheck is worth just what the Illuminati want it to be.
18. Likewise, the entire "energy crisis" is an Illuminati invention. There's no shortage of energy, of a dozen different kinds, but plentiful free energy might threaten the Illuminated power base.
19. The Illuminati are doing their best to hold back the space program, for the same reason. If mankind was spread out through the solar system, they'd be much harder to control. [Not all the Illuminati agree on this. Some of them lust after the mineral wealth of space, and some want (literally) new worlds to conquer..
20. And some of them are in touch with aliens from outer space. Some of them ARE aliens. Why would "advanced beings" want to meddle with the affairs of Earthlings? Good question.
21. Worse, some of them have actual magical powers and are in league with forces from ... elsewhere. Great huge beings that are madness to look upon, or tiny, malicious things that glare and gibber from dark corners. They have pins and dolls; they know old names.
22. Other Illuminati have embraced technology. Their files of information are much more useful when backed by the power of the computer. They are also conditioning everyone to believe that computers are so complicated and dangerous that only the Experts should play with them. Next time you get an electric bill for $666,666.66, you know who's behind it.
23. And some of these technophiles have gone a step farther, creating actual machine intelligences. These sentient computers are now, themselves, a force among the ruling Illuminati.
24. The Illuminati don't like war; it's expensive and wasteful. War only happens when two groups of Illuminati are very evenly matched and neither is willing to negotiate. But then they whip a few nations into a patriotic fervor and go at it.
25. They send secret messages through the newspapers and airwaves — in the classified ads, and even buried in news reports. They have other, even stranger forms of secret communications ... all around you, all the time.
26. They keep everyone — yes, everyone — under constant surveillance. Every time you fill out another questionnaire, you're weaving another strand of the net that binds the world.
27. They are working to make the law as confusing as possible, so everything will be illegal or potentially illegal — then they have a hold on everybody and everyone will fear the laws.
28. They encourage resistance to authority among young people and political dissidents, to distract government attention from the real enemy within.
29. But when they reach a satisfactory level of control, they turn their efforts toward extinguishing independence and encouraging mindless obedience to whatever orders come from the Illuminati or their servants.
30. They commit random atrocities — poisoning food at grocery stores, murdering old blind ladies, sniping on the freeway — just to make people vaguely confused, frightened and paranoid.
31. They suppress inventions which might change the status quo. The 100-mile-a-gallon carburetor, the perfect contraceptive, and the cornucopia plant are all lying in Illuminati vaults, waiting for the day when it will suit the Secret Masters to release them. What happened to the inventors? Bought off, intimidated, or just vanished.
32. On the other hand, they also maintain secret laboratories where they develop new weapons and devices of all kind.
33. Their arcane investigations cause all sorts of mysteries. Ever wonder about the Loch Ness Monster? The "cattle mutilations?" The Oregon Crud.
34. And they require hundreds of human victims every year for their experiments. Ever wonder why there are so many Missing Persons reports, and why so few of those people are found.
35. They are constantly experimenting with new types of mind control. They put drugs in drinking water, flash subliminal messages during movies and TV shows, and play instructions that you can't quite hear over supermarket loudspeakers. They experiment with microwaves and ultra-low-frequency devices, too.
36. And every wire in your house is a potential pathway for Illuminati messages, attacks or controlling rays. Did you ever stop to think just how many wires lead to your house? And do you have any idea where they really come from.
37. Naturally, they discourage investigation of the strange and unusual, because it might lead to them. But they encourage people to joke about the Illuminati.
38. They also publish supermarket tabloids, just to make sure that everybody thinks "Hitler's Brain Is Alive!" and "Bigfoot Seen In Hawaii" are just jokes.
39. And they encourage the craziest

AIDS

5. The doubling time of AIDS infection being about 12 months, one monkey biting one native and then spreading the disease would have taken 20 years to reach a million cases. Seventy-five million Africans became infected practically simultaneously. At the same time, the disease became rampant in the U.S., Haiti and Brazil.

It is obvious that one monkey couldn't have done that (or one homosexual, either). There had to be some sort of simultaneous seeding process.

The only worldwide simultaneous seeding going on at the same time was the smallpox vaccine program of the World Health Organization (the WHO).

The early epidemiology of the AIDS pandemic fit the smallpox vaccination project of the WHO — AND NOTHING ELSE — with the exception of the U.S., which we will examine subsequently.)

The AIDS virus was created in a laboratory by combining lethal animal "retroviruses" in human cancer (HeLa) cell cultures. These viruses have never before caused infection in man.

The "species barrier" has always been nature's way of keeping a deadly virus from wiping out the entire animal kingdom, including man. The myxoma virus of rabbits, for example, wiped out the rabbit population of Europe, but man and other animals were not affected.

The sheep visna virus completely decimated the flocks of Iceland, but no other animal was affected.

The virologists deny that the AIDS virus, HIV-1, is of animal origin. I am sure that you see the paradox here. Aren't monkeys animals?

They are also united in saying that it's not possible for the virus to have been engineered in a laboratory. If it didn't come from other animals and it didn't come from a laboratory, and they now admit privately that the monkey couldn't have done it, then it must have come out of thin air. That's a theological position and hence beyond argument. It's certainly not scientific.

These scientists who have created this monstrous problem in their sorcerer's retrovirology laboratories are constantly caught in their own lies.

The line goes: "The AIDS virus could not have been engineered in a laboratory because the technology wasn't available until recently."

Icelandic scientists combined the sheep visna virus with human tissue cells over 20 years ago. The technology has been refined in recent years, but the basic process has been actively used in labs all over the world for long before the AIDS virus made its dramatic appearance.

But the scientists hold fast in their denial of culpability. Professor William Jarrett said, when asked about the possibility of AIDS arising from animal retroviruses, "That is like someone saying babies come out of cabbages.

Dr. Robert Gallo said that people who claim AIDS was manufactured artificially are "either insane or communists.

Dr. Luis Montagnier, the discoverer of the AIDS virus, said, "In 1970 there was not enough knowledge in genetic engineering to make such a virus starting from already existing viruses. (See Icelandic experiments mentioned above)

This tower of lies must eventually fall of its own weight. Then what? Where do we look for a solution? Certainly not from the people who caused the disaster.

But where? — the Pentagon? The Pentagon is supporting research on biological warfare in over 100 federal and private laboratories, including those at many prominent universities. Yet, Neil Levitt, who worked for 17 years at the Army Infectious Disease Institute, says, "It's a joke...there's no defense against these kinds of organisms. And if you can't defend against something, then why are we pouring more and more money in it? There's something else going on that we don't know about. Some joke.

A short virology lesson will help you understand that AIDS is indeed an animal virus and that it was laboratory-made as a weapon of biological warfare against the free world.

A basic rule of virology is that if two viruses have the same shape, design and size, then they are almost certainly the same virus (a very simple and easy to understand rule)

For example, this virus:

... a virus of bacteria (bugs have diseases, too), doesn't look anything like this virus:

a virus of ticks that's transmitted to pigs, or this virus:

... which is found in horses.

The AIDS virus, which "couldn't have come from animal viruses" is almost certainly a recombinant virus from fusing a cattle virus, bovine leukemia virus:

...with sheep visna virus:

You combine the two in human tissue culture cells and you get bovine visna virus:

... A VIRUS THAT HERETOFORE DID NOT EXIST — a product of man, engineered in a laboratory. Now, if you isolate the AIDS virus from an infected human, it looks like this:

It doesn't look like this (the tick virus):

... or this (the cattle virus):

It looks like THIS:

... the recombinant virus from cattle and sheep AND ITS CALLED AIDS. You don't have to be a genius to understand this. Any properly instructed 10-year-old can understand it

But, some alert reader will say, we don't give smallpox vaccinations in the U.S., so how do you explain the simultaneous outbreak of AIDS in Africa, Brazil and Haiti, where they did indeed give the vaccine, and in the U.S., where they didn't give the vaccine?

Simple. The homosexual community was used as a large group of experimental animals through the hepatitis-B program. It didn't take many infected homosexuals among the I.V. drug users to quickly spread the disease among a large percentage of the addicts due to the near certainty of infection through direct intravenous insertion of the virus.

To understand the seeding of AIDS among homosexuals (and eventually to the rest of us through bisexuals unless drastic action is taken), you must know about a character with the strange name of Wolf Szmunn. His life story will seem bizarre to you unless, like me, you have a conspiratorial turn of mind.

SURVIVAL OF THE FITTEST: PHYSICALLY OR MENTALLY?

I was involved in a discussion recently regarding the recruitment of young black brothers out of college before they even completed their curriculum, to play pro-ball. It seems that a lot of people approve of this form of recruitment and feel it's O.K. to place academics on the back burner until after their athletic career when they can get around to it. It's hypocritical for these sports associations to tell children to stay in school when they are the ones taking them out. Not only do our youngsters have to battle drugs and guns but they have to battle the man who's promising fast cash to play for the entertainment of an EDUCATED audience.

This system is robbing the cradle of our communities of potential lawyers, doctors, and businessmen.

They're pursuing our youngmen in pre-school now to get them to join this team or that team. When did athletics become more important than academics? When did it get so that now our youngmen train their bodies more so than their minds? Why is it not O.K. to pursue a degree before you pursue a career in sports?

A lot of these players attend some of the top colleges in the country, to achieve a degree from these institutions in an accredited profession is a definite plus under anyone's belt, but many of them blow this off, and this is exactly what the system counts on. Less brains and more brawns is the motto for many of these recruiters. They are willing to give our youth scholarships to the top universities in the country because they know they don't graduate anymore. They purposely draw them out of their communities with the promise of a better life under the guise of higher education which in actuality is a higher form of slavery, because many of these players don't achieve that level of consciousness to recognize mental slavery.

It is possible to make academics a companion to athletics. Don't take any lottery entries until they have completed college or can give a valid reason for choosing not to complete. Raise the level of academic excellence these players have to achieve before entering college. Train them for a profession after sports. Make a mandatory curriculum in an accredited field to achieve a degree that holds some weight. It's fine to gross 2 million dollars a year, but it's excellent being your own accountant.

America has got to be the only country that places athletics over academics. It's time that we turn this around, before all our young people grow up thinking to make it in life one has to be either a player of some pro-sport, or an entertainer. If we were going to promote athletics, let's be fair and promote academics. Where are the lotteries for students with 4.0's, or for students who have made the dean's list 3 semesters in a row? Why do we go 4-5 years to achieve a degree only to receive starting salary of 25-35 thousand a year. Why not get 500- 1 million dollars for the ideas we can bring to the table?

Dr. Szmunn was a Polish Jew who supposedly ended up in a Siberian labor camp during World War II. But after the war he somehow became a privileged person, was sent to medical school in Tomsk, Russia, and married a Russian woman. Hardly typical treatment of an enemy of the Soviet state [under Stalin].

Szmunn's biographer said that Wolf was always reluctant to discuss "those dark years in Siberia." Maybe he wasn't in Siberia. If he [actually] was, he certainly wasn't shoveling salt.

In 1959 the Soviet government "allowed" him to practice in Poland in a public health capacity. Standard policy in all Communist countries is never to allow all members of travel out of the country to the West at the same time.

This eliminates 98 percent of all defection attempts. I have physician friends in Hungary, for example. He can go to a meeting anywhere in the world if she stays home. She can go if he stays home. They can both go if the children are left at home. But in 1969, the entire Szmunn family was allowed by communist Poland to go to a medical meeting in Italy. At that time they "defected" and moved to New York City.

WITH NO AMERICAN CREDENTIALS WHATSOEVER, he immediately got a job as a "lab technician" at the New York City Blood Center. Within a very few years this Polish immigrant was GIVEN HIS OWN LAB, a separate department of epidemiology was created for him at the blood bank and he, like the chrysalis turning into a butterfly, changed into a FULL PROFESSOR OF EPIDEMIOLOGY AT THE COLUMBIA MEDICAL SCHOOL!

In six years this "lab tech" became a full professor AND THEN WENT BACK TO MOSCOW for a scientific presentation and was received as a dignitary, not a defector.

We tell you this amazing story because in retrospect it is obvious that Wolf Szmunn was a carefully groomed ... agent, planted here after years of preparation, to instigate biological warfare against the American people.

Szmunn, with the full cooperation and financial support of the U.S. Center for Disease Control and the National Institutes of Health,¹¹ masterminded the hepatitis-B vaccine experimental program used on homosexual men.

He insisted that only young, promiscuous homosexuals be allowed to participate in the experiment. The experiment started in New York at the blood bank in November 1978.

THE EXPERIMENTAL VACCINE WAS PRODUCED in a government supervised laboratory.¹² The study was completed in October 1979. Within 10 years, most of these young men would be dead or dying from AIDS.

In 1980 the program was expanded to major cities all across the U.S. In the fall of 1980 the first AIDS case was reported in San Francisco. Eight years later most of the homosexuals in San Francisco are infected, dead or dying.

Szmunn did not live to see the fruition of this larger experiment. He died of cancer in 1982.

In 1986 Dr. Cladd Stevens, one of Szmunn's collaborators, penned an astonishing report that did not make your local newspaper.

She reported that the majority of the homosexuals in the experimental program were infected with the AIDS virus.¹³ The AIDS-laced vaccine, through the bridge of bisexual men, now infects as many as three million Americans. Mission accomplished.

AIDS was not the first germ warfare attack against Americans.

In the early '60s, millions of unsuspecting Americans took either Salk injected polio vaccine or the live Sabin polio vaccine, which was taken by mouth.

BOTH WERE LACED WITH S.V.-40, A CANCER-CAUSING MONKEY VIRUS.¹⁴

With an incubation period of 20 years, we are only now seeing the grim results of this bio-attack against Americans, largely in the form of brain tumors and leukemia.

Salk didn't like the Sabin vaccine and Sabin didn't like the Salk vaccine. I think they are both right. It is interesting to note that polio was rapidly disappearing WITHOUT a vaccine (J. Trop. Pediat, env. Child. Health 21, 11) ...

Our Soviet enemies not only instigated the AIDS epidemic through clandestine agents within our government, but they now control, through the World Health Organization, the AIDS policies of the free world.

You are probably not aware that the international AIDS prevention program of the World Health Organization (WHO) is run by the Soviets.

You don't believe it? Call WHO and ask them who is in charge in Europe. If you want to save your nickel I'll tell

The following are the contents of a letter placed on the bed of a young African-American incarcerated in the Chicago City Jail in 1992. Please take a minute of your time to reflect upon the severity of this statement.

The Ku Klux Klan would like to take this time out to salute and congratulate all Gang Bangers for the slaughter of over 4,000 Black people since 1975. You are doing a marvelous job. Keep killing each other for nothing. The streets are not yours, niggers...its ours. You are killing each other for our property. You are killing what could be future doctors, lawyers, and businessmen, that we won't have to compete with; and the good thing about it is that you are killing the youth. So we won't have to worry about niggers in generations to come. We would further like to thank all the judges who have over-sentenced thee niggers to prison. We are winning again. Pretty soon we will be able to go back to raping your women, because all the men will be gone. So you Gang Bangers, keep up the good work. We love to read about drive-by shootings. We love to hear how many niggers get killed over the weekend. We can tolerate the niggers with Jungle Fever (for now), because that further breaks down the race. To all Gang Bangers across the world, we don't love you niggers, but we love you Gang Bangers. You are doing a wonderful job in eliminating the black race. Without the men, you women cannot reproduce, unless of course, we do it for them. Then we will have successfully eliminated a race. Thanks to your help and commitment to killing each other. If most of you nigger Bangers can not read this letter, it is okay. Go pull a trigger and kill a nigger. Thank you.

One World Monetary System

Numerous talks have come about recently concerning the New World Order. This topic in itself is a very broad and complicated issue to discuss, mainly because most of our daily lives somehow relate to it. I will attempt to put the New World Order into a concept which is practical and understandable by many. The New World Order as it relates to the economy is a plan to form a One World Monetary System.

First and foremost, a One World Monetary System is an idea in which one form of currency would be used globally. It is rightful to say that this has already been accomplished by the American dollar. The American system of exchange is the only dollar that can be used internationally. Whether you go to Japan, Russia, Italy, or the Caribbean, the American dollar is the only currency accepted world wide. But what does this really mean? This means that today we use paper, tomorrow we use a credit system, next we'll be using a bar code on our hands and forehead for exchange.

It is important to refer to the symbolism on the $1 bill to get a framework of how the New World Order applies to economics. If you turn to the back of the dollar, you will notice that underneath the pyramid is the phrase "Novus Ordo Seclorum," which is Latin for New World Order. As you see the concept of a New World Order in itself is not new but has been around for more than 600 years. If you recall from history class that when Christopher Columbus sailed the ocean in 1492 he was searching for the "New World." That New World is in fact the United States, a place where they could establish a one world government. It is important to note that Columbus was a mason as were the founding fathers of this country.

Another aspect that I would like to get into is the actual pyramid itself which is an African symbol and how it relates to masonry. Masonry started in Europe but stems off of the ancient mystery system in Egypt. Many say that the eye above the pyramid is the eye of God, I don't dispute that because I'm not a mason but it is also argued that the eye represent that eye of Lucifer. Its true meaning is unknown to me, but remains important because above the eye is the phrase "Annuit Coeptis" which means "He has accepted their undertakings." Depending on whether that eye represents God or Lucifer the "He" in he has accepted their undertakings is in direct compliance to that statement. Also, the phrase "In God We Trust" appears on all of our currency, the God in which they trust is the eye. One can only wonder which God they are referring to.

Nonetheless, the combined image of the pyramid with the all seeing eye is the symbol of the Illuminati. Now it is important to note that there are more than one Illuminati. The one that we are concerned about is the Bavarian Illuminati which was founded in Bavarian Germany in 1776, the same year that this country gained its independence. Keep in mind that this is a Masonic symbol and that this country gained its independence on July 4th, but if you count 13 days back from that date you have June 21st, the beginning of the summer solstice which in turn is the sun entering the sun sign cancer and Africa is ruled by the astrological sign cancer.

The dollar bill is not the only place where you can see reference made to the New World Order. If you look at the back of a dime, you will notice a torch. Supposedly this symbol is the torch of illumination which is Masonic and used by the Illuminati. The torch can also be seen during the Olympics. Possibly coincidental, another secret order which is bringing about this New World Order is a group called the Olympians which was founded in England and is currently led by Queen Elizabeth II herself. Now that's important when you think of the torch and how it relates to the Olympics.

The Statue of Liberty also has a torch. The statue was given to the United States by the French Grand Masonic Lodge which has an inscription inside the statue. But if you really knew the truth about the Statue of Liberty you would know that it has nothing to do with the immigrants. In fact there is specific reason why it is in New York. You see, New York is the mecca of international trade and world banking, hence, the World Trade Center, International Stock Exchange, United Nations, not to mention that New York is called the Empire State. As mentioned earlier, when we deal with a one world government or a one world monetary system, New York is the place where this will happen. There is surely no coincidence why the Statue of Liberty is in New York.

If not already stated, the New World Order is basically a surveillance system which your right of privacy will be infringed upon. If you look on any bill that is $5 in value and up, which is a 1990 series, meaning bill that was printed since 1990 that is valued at $5 and above, if you hold it up to the light you will notice a thin strip that reads USA FIVE, USA TEN, and so on respective to the particular bill. That is actually a bar code in which can be detected when scanned and the dollar amount can be determined even within the privacy of your home. A lot of this may seem unrealistic but currently in Baltimore they have actual cameras attached to buildings in which persons are monitored within an 18 block radius on a 24 hour basis. If that still seems far fetched, right here in New York if anyone has a car and have speed through a red light and later received a ticket in their mailbox this is most likely due to the camera on the street corner taking a picture of your license plate. Also if you have ever pulled up to a red light and notice that the light is blinking, just smile and wave at the camera as it takes a picture of you as you drive. In Virginia, the police have scanners in their cars that pick up sound so they can listen in on your conversation.

What will eventually happen is that the dollar will be banned and we will resort to using bar codes. Actually we are using them now. For the time being this is done by use of our social security number. If you ask your parents they will tell you that the social security number not until about 20 years ago was hardly used. Its purpose was such that after a person retires from work they will use this number to receive sums of money for their retirement. But now we use our social security number for almost everything. Without credit it is hard to rent a car, buy a house, or do anything without it. Soon you will notice a change in society toward using more plastic and using less cash. And with the use of plastic comes the barcode. AT&T had a commercial two years ago with the advertisement "You Will" where in the future you could look forward to having your whole medical history down loaded on a card. This is very significant when dealing with the New World Order. Bill Clinton's new health care card resembles what this is. Now everyone is using phone cards, I believe that this is an attempt to get people to start using cards and eventually another telephoning system will be developed. Possibly for convenience purposes phone cards will be little microchips injected in our hands or foreheads.

If this still seems impractical I'd ask to look at an old drivers license and compare it to a newer one. Turn to the back and ask yourself why should there be a bar code on the card. If you haven't received a new drivers license as of yet, like AT&T said "YOU WILL." All of this is necessary to keep in mind for the 21st century.

TAKE IT LIKE AN AMERICAN

In recent weeks I have noticed a common theme in public interest prevailing through newspapers and local magazines. The stories are sometimes categorized under headings about the economy, international markets or perhaps shuffled to the end pages of said publications which editors saved for "everyday people" biographies and stories.

A commonly known disease has somehow mutated outside of its confined sector and is reported to be ravaging individuals and families throughout this vast nation. The disease has traditionally affected minorities, the poor, and "people with color". It's recent spread to areas of middle and upper middle class white America has left its victims shocked and confused. Worst of all the government claims to be unable to address the disease itself and temporarily placates its citizens by ameliorating only the symptoms for a limited time after the initial infection.

These news and public interest stories all include a quote from the affected individual(s) which sound of the

"I never thought it would happen to me" response. This airborne disease that was thought to discriminate on the basis of color and ethnicity, this disease, unemployment, in actuality does not. Middle and upper middle class white males are losing their jobs in ever increasing numbers in America today. They are confused and shocked when the job security their company and nation promised them is lost in the muddy waters of downsizing and mergers.

Several of the stories I encountered involved former employees of the electronic and computer multinationals. Achieving their corporate position by climbing the ladder of a strong growing company for a decade or two they considered their economic position quite stable. After their lay off few if any companies would rehire them because of the high salary that their credentials warranted and the fact that in 10 to 15 years they would be eligible for retirement pay. When their unemployment pay ran out several of the men developed clinical depression and or other stress related conditions and were forced to live off friends or dwindling savings accounts.

What moved me about these stories was not the plight of qualified yet unemployed individuals who are ignored by the system which profited from them for the best 10 or 20 years of their lives. The events in my own country and in those incorporated countries Americans detachedly call "the inner cities" have made me calloused to such situations.

The sense of honest disbelief and absolute conviction that they (the unemployed) were being wronged by the companies and system, this dissasociative state in which the men found themselves was astonishing. These men were unable to conceive that the same market economy which had provided them with everything material in their lives was also responsible for their present condition. They would not accept that the government which allowed them the freedom to choose the job they best saw fit is the same government which now discounts them because they are neither producers nor consumers.

When asked for possible solutions the majority of those interviewed mentioned longer lasting unemployment benefits, government funded retraining, and other types of currently non-existing federal and state aid. They wanted socialist reforms and welfare aid though they would probably never use those terms. Social reforms meant to help out of work citizens are implemented in societies throughout the world. Spain, France, and the Netherlands just to name a few implement socialist policies into their welfare states in order to retain a functioning society. Unfortunately a decade and a half of right wing republican rule have made the words socialist and welfare obscene. Indirectly those who voted the said regime into power are also responsible for implementing and accepting the "welfare queens" and socialist as analogous to evil empire ideology, so when the benefits run out and the rent is due; ground: This was the most serious structural flaw in the BPP. Party members who functioned openly in the BPP offices, or organized openly in the community, by day might very well have been the same people who carried out armed operations at night. This provided the police with a convenient excuse to make raids on any and all BPP offices, or members homes, under the pretext that they were looking for suspects, fugitives, weapons, and or explosives. It also sucked the BPP into taking the un-winnable position of making stationary defenses of BPP offices. There should have been a clear separation between the above ground Party and the underground armed apparatus. Also small military forces should never adopt, as a general tactic, the position of making stationary defenses of offices, homes, buildings, etc.

3. Rhetoric Outstripped Capabilities: Although the BPP was adept at the art of propaganda and made very good use of its own and the establishment's media, still too many Panthers fell into the habit of making boisterous claims in the public media, or selling "wolf tickets" that they couldn't back up. Eventually, they weren't taken seriously anymore. The press, some of whom were police agents, often had only to stick a microphone under a Panther's nose to make him or her begin spouting rhetoric. This often played into the hands of those who were simply looking for slanderous material to air or to provide possible intelligence information to the police.

4. Lumpen Tendencies: It can be safely said that the largest segment of the New York City BPP membership (and probably nationwide) were workers who held everyday jobs. Other segments of the membership were semi-proletariat, students, youths, and lumpen-proletariat. The lumpen tendencies within some members were what the establishment's media (and some party members) played-up the most. Lumpen tendencies are associated with lack of discipline, liberal use of alcohol, marijuana, and curse-words, loose sexual morals, a criminal mentality, and rash actions. These tendencies in some Party members provided the media with better opportunities than they would otherwise have had to play up this aspect, and to slander the Party, which diverted public attention from much of the positive work done by the BPP.

5. Dogmatism: Early successes made some Panthers feel that they were the only possessors of absolute truths. Some became arrogant and dogmatic in their dealings with Party members, other organizations, and even the community. This turned people off.

6. Failure to Organize Economic Foundations in Community: The BPP preached socialist politics. They were anti-capitalist and this skewed their concept of building economic foundations in the community. They often gave the impression that to engage in any business enterprise was to engage in capitalism and they too frequently looked with disdain upon the small-business people in the community. As a result the BPP built few businesses which generated income other than the Black Panther newspaper, or which could provide self-employment to its membership and to people in the community. The BPP failed to encourage the Black community to set up its own businesses as a means of building an independent economic foundation which could help break "outsiders" control of the Black community's economics, and move it toward economic self reliance.

7. TV Mentality: The 60's were times of great flux. A significant segment of the U.S. population engaged in mass struggle. The lack Liberation, Native American, Puerto Rican, Asian, Chicano, Anti-War, White Revolutionary, and Woman's Liberation, Movements were all occurring more or less simultaneously during this era. It appears that this sizable flux caused some Panthers to think that a seizure of state power was imminent or that a revolutionary struggle is like a quick paced TV program. That is, it comes on at 9 p.m., builds to a crescendo by 9:45, and by 9:55 — Victory!; all in time to make the 10 O'clock News. When it didn't happen after a few years, that is, Afrikans in the U. S. still were not free, no revolution occurred, and worse, the BPP was everywhere on the defensive, taking losses and riddled with dissension, many members became demoralized, disillusioned, and walked away or went back to old lifestyles. They were not psychologically prepared for a long struggle. In hindsight it appears that the BPP didn't do enough to root out this TV mentality in some members, but did in others, which is an aspect to ponder on.

Although the BPP made serious errors, it also gained a considerable measure of success and made several significant new contributions to the BLM. The final judgment of history may very well show that in its own way the BPP added the final ingredient to the Black Agenda necessary to attain real freedom: armed struggle; and that this was the great turning point which ultimately set the Black Liberation Movement on the final road to victory.

FROM THE DESK OF ZEARS MILES

Hotep,

My name is Zears Miles, I am an industrial engineer by training, but for the last 6 years I have researched the most bone-chilling, spirit numbing, horrible premise a Black person can envision. I believe I have uncovered a reality spawned in the bowels of Hell designed by certain elements working within the US. government and financed by the US. taxpayer. That reality is, the determined systematic elimination of the Black race from the planet. African Americans, Africans, African Brazilians, all of us. It is being done through the introduction of ethnically specific biological agents. That is, diseases genetically designed in a laboratory, "such a weapon would be capable of incapacitating or killing a selected enemy population" according to the US. Army. In this case however, the "selected enemy population" is the Black population. A.I.D.S. is one of these genetically engineered diseases; lest you think I'm crazy, let me tell you I have accumulated hundreds of documents and spent hundreds of hours in interviews, and if you heard me lecture and saw my proof in person, you would know fear as I do.

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. once stated, "America is a racist society...and the logical conclusion to racism is genocide." It's essential that you understand this, because once you do, all the research I've done and all the information I have accumulated for you concerning A.I.D.S. as a man-made disease, begins to make sense. The pioneering research into the true origins of AIDS was conducted by Dr. Robert B. Strecker, MD., who practices medicine in Los Angeles. He was the first to discover in the medical literature that the US. government was not only misleading the public, but actually lying to us about this disease. I urge you to watch his astounding video called the "Strecker Memorandum" and see for yourself how A.I.D.S. got started, what it is, where it came from, how it works and how easy it is to catch. When you fully grasp the basic truths discovered by this conscientious white doctor, you will then be ready to assimilate my findings. If you can handle it, I will take you beyond Strecker's discoveries and reveal the elements of the plan for our destruction. I'll show you where the concentration camps already are being set up for us. I'll tell you why new designs for urban mass burn, high temperature trash incinerators are capable of 5,000 degrees Fahrenheit! They are already being constructed around the country! I'll tell you where. All in all, I'll tell you things and show you things that will give you nightmares. But first you must see "The Strecker Memorandum."

After a while you'll be sent information on how to obtain my findings. Admittedly, none of this is pleasant, and I wish to God none of this were True. But it is ALL TRUE. There's no place for us to hide, or hide from the truth except through denial and of course we know what the fate of 6,000,000 Jews who denied what was happening to them as the "selected enemy population" of the German state some 45 years ago. There are things we can and must do, but you must be jolted into awareness NOW.

Very Sincerely,

Zears Miles

High-Tech National Tatoo

From an Oct. 11, 1993 "The Washington Times" article entitled, "High-tech national tattoo", by Martin Anderson:"

There is an identification system made by the Hughes Aircraft Company that you can't lose. It's the syringe implantable transponder. According to promotional literature it is an "ingenious, safe, inexpensive, foolproof and permanent method of identification using radio waves. A tiny microchip, the size of a grain of rice, is simply placed under the skin. It is so designed as to be injected simultaneously with a vaccination or alone.

"How does it work? Well, the "chip contains a 10 character alphanumeric identification code that is never duplicated. When a scanner is passed over the chip, the scanner emits a 'beep' and your number flashes in the scanner's digital display.

"True, an implanted transponder can't yet hold anywhere near as much material as a smart card. But if the desire is there, larger size implants and tiny microchips could soon increase its storage capacity. Of course, most Americans will find a surgically implanted government microchip repugnant. At least for the foreseeable future, the use of this ingenious device will be confined to its current use: the tracking of dogs, cats, horses and cattle.

But there is no difference in principle between forced to carry a microchip in a plastic card in your wallet or in a little pellet in your arm. The principle that Big Brother has the right to track you is inherent in both. The only difference is a layer of skin.

From the Sat., Oct. 15, 1994 Dr. Fox "ANIMAL DOCTOR" column in the "St. Louis [Missouri] Post-Dispatch":

Dear Dr. Fox: Our local Humane Society has offered, for $25, a lifetime computer chip to be injected with a needle between the shoulder blades of a cat or dog.

Apparently, all new animals adopted get a chip.

Dr. Fox: ...the microchip identification system you describe is an excellent advance in helping with pet loss, owner identification and pet theft.

Microchip ID technology is safe and adverse reactions following subcutaneous implantation are extremely rare

From the "Electronic Leash: The Implantable Bio-Chip Is Already Here. Is Big Brother Just Around The Corner?" article by Lisa Crosby in the Vol. 11, No. 14, June 15-June 21 issue of the "Tucson [AZ] Weekly": The size of an uncooked grain of rice, the silicon computer chip...When inserted underneath the skin, this chip can link an individual to a computer database, or it can track a person's location via satellite.

Sound impossible? Hardly. Microchip implants are in use as you read this.

Today, injecting a microchip into animals is routine.

Microchip pet identification technically known as radio frequency identification (RFID) is available to pet owners nationwide.

The concept seems simple. A microchip encased in biomedical-grade glass and imprinted with a unique, unalterable alpha-numeric code. Over 34 billion individual code numbers are available.

Once implanted, the chip is virtually impossible to remove. Even surgical removal using advanced radiograph techniques is extremely difficult. This is because fibrous tissue adheres to grooves in the glass surrounding the chip to prevent migration of the chip...

Since the chip operates with low-frequency radio waves and does not contain a battery, it remains passive with no parts to wear out. ...the tracking of microchips does occur. Hughes Missiles Systems Company uses microchips to track aircraft and vehicles.

But what about tracking people? While the Global Positioning System can track aircraft, there is a system of satellites in orbit right now that can track microchips injected into humans. Dr. Carl Sanders, an engineer for 32 years and the designer of the Intelligence Manned Interface (IMI) biochip for use in humans, told the "Monetary Economic Review" that "There are new satellites going up (such as the) 66 satellites that Motorola is putting up in conjunction with the Russians. These are low-orbiting satellites." He explains that certain microchips can be picked up by satellite. "We used this with military personnel in the Iraq war where they were actually tracked using this particular type of device.

"The concept of tracking children with microchips is already generating interest. The Associated Press reports that Dr. Daniel Man, a plastic surgeon in Miami, Florida could locate lost children or find Alzheimer's victims...

The device would emit a signal that could be monitored through a cellular system, and possibly by satellite.

But is the microchip actually ready to be injected in large numbers of people?...the technology behind today's microchip is "fairly uncomplicated" and with a little refinement could be used in a variety of human applications.

Sematech in Austin, Tex., developed a computer chip in 1993 that is only 0.35 microns wide roughly 1/200th the size of a human hair.

Dr. Carl Sanders is especially concerned about Big Brother's exploitation of the microchip. Sanders is an electronics engineer, inventor, author and consultant with extensive background in designing surveillance equipment for the CIA, FBI and the Customs Department in Atlanta. Although he worked on designing the microchip years ago, he is now concerned that it will be misused. On a tape he produced to explain his views on the microchip, Sanders says: "Thirty-two years of my life was spent in design engineering with a PhD in engineering, and electronic-designing microchips in the bio-med field. Working on the microchip, we had no idea about it ever being an identification chip.

"Sander feels this chip may eventually be used for life long identification, possibly against people's will. The government may have the legal right authority to do this through the Immigration Control Act of 1986, which gives the president the authority to implement whatever type of identification is necessary to control the population. Sanders fears that a SmartCard, invisible tattoo, microchip under the skin may be used to enforce immigration laws. Currently there are several pending measures before Congress calling for a social immigrant identification with a photo, fingerprint digitization, or bar code....

The injectable microchip has been equated with the "Mark of the Beast" a reference to a Biblical prophecy predicting that only those with a mark on the right hand or forehead in the End times will be able to buy or sell. (The supercomputer in Brussels handling worldwide bank clearings for the Society for Worldwide Interbank Financial Telecommunications is nicknamed "The Beast.") pseudo-science "researchers" they can find, because this tends to discredit legitimate investigators into the unusual.

40. A popular belief is that the Illuminati want power for its own sake. This is true of some of them. But other Illuminated groups exist to support an ideology, to achieve a particular goal, or simply to oppose some other group of Illuminati.

41 One of their chief preoccupations is life extension by any means possible. Nobody who has held ultimate power for fifty years is eager to let it go. Anything you can think of ... yoga, cryonics, body-exchange, magic, cloning, goat (or other) glands, transfusions, computerized personality duplication ... has been tried by the Illuminati at one time or another. And some of them work.

42. Furthermore, powerful Illuminati from past centuries lie waiting to be revived when science allows it. Mummies, pickled corpses, frozen bodies, conscious brains in jars you would recognize the names if we could mention them.

43. You're not cleared for this one.

44. They use disease as a weapon to discipline their own populations or destroy competing ones. Black Death in Europe, smallpox among the American Indians ... The swine flu, a few years ago, was thwarted by opposing forces, or you probably wouldn't be reading this.

45. They have a variety of unhuman and inhuman servants. The dreaded Men in Black are perhaps their best-known agents. No one knows whether the MIBs are androids, golems, or something even worse. Perhaps they were once human...

46. And they really are breeding a Master Race. The Nazis had no idea how they were being used, or why. And they'd be horrified at the Illuminati's idea or perfection.

47. The Illuminati know weird sexual techniques undreamed of in the Kama Sutra. They also know why those techniques are used.

48. The next time you spend too much money to buy something you didn't want or need, and it breaks in a week, you can be sure you've just contributed to an Illuminati fund-raising project.

49. They start chain letters. They also plant rumors that the Red Cross can buy an iron lung if you send them a million cigarette packages, and that dying children in England want ten million business cards. No one knows why they do this.

THE GOVERNMENT USES DRUGS

There are several well known and amply trod upon reasons for the criminalization of drugs. Some of them flounder on thin premises of history morality, and public safety. There are at least as many reasons for the legalization of controlled substances most of which hold their basis on common sense.

Otherwise intelligent and well rounded individuals seem to lose their world perspective and enter the myopic world of nail jewelry and tanning salons when discussing legalization. The words conspiracy and genocide seldom enter into the argument. This country has many economic and political incentives to continue the criminalization of drugs. Their concern or the safety of America's youth and belief in family values do not enter into the equation. Drugs are money and money is power, this sounds quite benign when you imagine inner city corner hustlers and foreign kingpins, but seldom is this applied to the larger picture. The drug war has been slid smoothly onto the plates of Americans as a substitute for the cold war. America needs a n image off which to exist, without a formidable one or seemingly formidable adversary the country is forced to look inwards. Four years of relative peace have shown us the effects of this, race riots, Midwest militias, etc, implosion is a very real concept kids.

The defense budget has faced serious cut backs as a result of the "new world order". Criminalization provides jobs in this country, thousands of jobs just like the defense industry once did. Everyone in the D.E.A., most of the C.I.A. and thousands of correctional and law enforcement officers are employed because drugs are illegal in the U.S.. But what else can this wonderful drug do you may ask, the imposition of drug policies to the satisfaction of American officials is one if not the biggest piece of leverage used on the rest of the continent. The I.M.F. and world bank now deny loans and threaten countries with the same ease they did in the fifties if a tint of red were detected on those impoverished Latin nations. The U.S. has successfully played the commie card for over fifty years in order to manipulate economic trade, stabilize and create their economy, and control the political climate in Central and South America, today they use drugs.

In short this nutritious new staple on the American plate satisfies; necessary leverage over neighbors, provides jobs in everything from law enforcement to chemical companies (because; Colombian laboratories n' don't make their own chemicals but like the rest of the world buy American), create massive amounts of capital which is laundered through American banks, and provides a platform on which even the scumiest of politicians can safely stand. Are there side effects you ask, yes but judging by the economic attention paid to them by the government we can assume them to be minimal. Thousands of people who can't afford clean needles are infected with AIDS every day, a generation of black and Hispanic males are either dead or incarcerated, an uncountable amount of Latin American workers and their families have been devastated as their national economies bend in the face of the U.S. controlled I.M.F. and World Bank, and lastly a biting aftertaste of Hypocrisy may be felt after consumption but as we all know a good 'ol American beer will wash that right down.

you. He's a Russian named Bysencho and he operates out of Copenhagen....

The Soviets control the response to AIDS of the entire free world at many levels, including the top. Dr. Sergei Litvinov, the coordinator of all task forces on AIDS at the WHO, is a high official in the Soviet Ministry of Health. Allegedly Litvinov gave out the order to our scientists and medical organizations in the western world not to discuss the real cause of the epidemic.

At a secret meeting (information supplied the author from a confidential source) between the editors of Lancet, the highly respected British medical publication, and a group of the leading retrovirologists o the world, it was decided not to publish any academic discussion about the possible artificial creation of the AIDS virus in a laboratory.

They particularly agreed not to make any mention of world-renowned biologist Isaac Farlane Bernet's published remarks that molecular biology may get out of hand like atomic physics and be used for evil purposes and "practical applications of molecular biology to cancer research might be sinister."

Other medical journals such as Science and JAMA have lock stepped with Lancet and put all references to the man-made origins of AIDS down the memory hole.

Did Comrade Litvinov have a little talk with the retrovirologists? They, of course, wouldn't need any encouragement from the Soviet [WHO] bosses to attempt a little cover up of their own heinous crime, but Lancet, the British Medical Journal, and the New England Journal of Medicine are another matter.

It took some powerful and sinister forces indeed to get these respected publications to cover up the crime of the millennium.

The notable exception to this appalling censorship of mass murder is Professor Harding Rains, Editor of the Journal of the Royal Society of Medicine. Rains refers to "a conspiracy of silence" covering the allegation that AIDS was man-made. I hope Dr. Rains is watching his backside.

Dr. Zhores Medvedev, unlike Bysencho and Litvinov, supposedly is a Russian exile. Medvedev operates out of London at the National Institute for Medical Research. He's a senior research scientist who continues to communicate freely with his supposed enemies in the Soviet biowarfare laboratories, but we lack the space to catalog all the details [here].

Medvedev is spreading the disinformation that AIDS is rampant in

Russia due to the escape of the virus from a laboratory, a sort of biological Chernobyl.

This tends to divert suspicion away from Litvinov, Szmunn and the other reds that President Nixon allowed to penetrate our biological warfare laboratories at Fort Detrick, Maryland.

Having the Soviets "control" the spread of AIDS in the West has let to some interesting paradoxes. Our masters in the U.S. tell us that there shall be absolutely no restrictions on travel between various parts of the non-Communist world by persons who test positive for AIDS.

Surgeon General C.E. Koop supports this Soviet policy of biological suicide. (Are those the instructions he received when he made his trip to Moscow, where the WHO has set up its main AIDS research center?)

But, our Soviet masters in the WHO tell us, this open policy of international travel does not apply to the communist bloc of nations. If you or I were to visit Moscow and tested positive for the AIDS virus, POW! — out on the next plane!

If they stay clean through their immigration policies and we die because of the immigration policies imposed on us through the U.N.-controlled World "Health" Organization, who needs atomic bombs for world conquest?

Cuba, Dr. John Seale informs me, has a strict asylum system for the AIDS-infected. When their troops come back from "liberating" Africans, they are tested as they get off the boat.

If tested positive the soldier goes directly to hell — euphemistically called a sanitarium. He can visit his family occasionally, but only in the presence of a commissar called a "health official (no hanky-panky).

Unless the West gets its act together and closes down the U.N. genocide division called the WHO, freedom and decency will disappear from planet Earth for a thousand years. But the problem goes much deeper.

How do you close down the U.S. government laboratories such as the Centers for Disease Control (CDC), the National Institute of Health (NIH) and the Fort Detrick bio-warfare lab when the perpetrators of the crime are in control at all levels? I don't know the answer. *****
