

Pre-College Exploration and Preparation Program

Who's Eligible: Juniors and Seniors with an autism spectrum disorder, and related developmental disabilities, who live in Nassau and Suffolk Counties. Limited to 20 students.

Program: The Cody Center's Pre-College Exploration and Preparation Program (PC-EPP)

Where: At Suffolk County Community College's Grant and Ammerman Campuses

When: July 5th – July 26th, 2012¹ (Monday–Thursday²)

¹Students are required to attend any additional meetings/workshops which may be announced and are part of the program. Final dates and times to be confirmed)
²There may be one or more meetings on a Friday)

A typical³ day at the Pre-College Program: Students attend from ~8:50 am until ~2:10 pm.

³Times are given for illustrative purposes and are subject to change)

8:50am – 9:00am	Students arrive and socialize
9:00am – 10:00am	Morning workshop on Adjusting to College conducted by Cody Center staff member(s). Sample topics include: Understanding the syllabus and instructor's expectations; Self-advocacy; Understanding and using accommodations at college; Study skills and habits.
10:15am – 12:15pm	Students attend college course taught by SCCC faculty
12:20pm – 12:50pm	Lunch on campus with Pre-College Program students and staff. (Students may either purchase or bring their lunch)
1:00pm – 2:00pm	Afternoon workshop on Interpersonal Communication and Socializing at College conducted by Cody Center staff member(s). Sample topics include: Exploring social opportunities at college; Adaptive coping strategies; Goal Setting (social and academic goals); Social perspective taking; the Social world of college (in and out of the classroom)
2:00pm – 2:10pm	Wrap-up, planning for tomorrow's class, student departure

Why: To support transition planning activities and explore post-secondary options.

How to apply: Application materials are available online at www.codycenter.org

More information: Contact Dr. Makowski (631) 632-8908 or Ms. Barnett (631) 632-8983

A Collaborative Program with:
The Cody Center at Stony Brook University Medical Center
Suffolk County Community College (SCCC)
Eastern Suffolk Board of Cooperative Educational Services (ESBOCES)

Apply Now
Interviews are in
May and June

(you may copy and share this flyer to colleagues and parents)