

2013 Florence Writers Workshop Help Sheet

Our application has been retro-fitted to an existing Stony Brook Online system. It will take about 10 minutes to complete, which I know is a lot, but well worth it. At the end you will be asked to pay a $60 application Fee.

Much of it is self explanatory, but there are some things that might get confusing. The following directions might help.

Program Selection

Study Abroad

General Information & Current Information

These are pretty self-explanatory.

Education

If you are a Stony Brook MFA in Creative Writing or Theatre student, where they ask for MAJOR please put OTHER then type in the program.

Transcript Requests

If you are a Stony Brook MFA student, a non-credit student, or subscriber I will give you a waiver that you can upload where it requests your transcripts. If you are looking for graduate credit, you will need to upload your academic transcript. PDF is fine.

Personal Statement

Where it asks you to upload your personal statement, please combine your personal statement and writing sample and upload it as one file. Indicate here if you would like credit, non-credit, or subscriber.

Study Abroad Applicants

You are an OUTGOING Applicant
Please pick Study Abroad in Florence

Conduct

Please fill this out honestly.

Recommendations/References

Please provide 2 email addresses for references. If you are a Stony Brook MFA student you can list Christian.mclean@stonybrook.edu and Carla.caglioti@stonybrook.edu as your references. Otherwise, you will need to list two references that can attest to your commitment to writing.

Language Proficiency

Please check: "I have equivalent preparation"

In the box below write: I don't need any

While Abroad: "I will be taking course in the host language designed for foreign students"

You can mark the rest of the questions in this section to the best of your knowledge.

You can list me as a reference Christian.mclean@stonybrook.edu for this section