ANNOUNCEMENTS

GSO Tax Clinics Spring 2012

The GSO will be holding its Tax Clinics every Monday and Thursday from 3-8pm in the GSO office (SAC 227), through April 12.

Stony Brook Free Wheel Collective Open Tuesdays

The bike shop will be open Tuesdays from 6-9pm this semester. You can find more information here: <http://freewheelcollective.wordpress.com/>

The Division of Information Technology (DoIT) values your opinion

Please take a few minutes to provide feedback on Stony Brook's technology services and provide suggestions on how we may better meet your technology needs. DoIT's student survey is available online at <https://survey.stonybrook.edu/TakeSurvey.aspx?SurveyID=mlK36694>

The survey will be available until 5 p.m. on Friday, Feb. 10, 2012.

Special Spring Schedule!

The University Café is open and ready for business:

Now join the GSO 3 DAYS a week!

This week at the University Café, join the GSO for:

This is the first installment of "The Sessions" jazz nights. Open to the public and featuring music students from Stony Brook University with pro trombonist Ray Anderson and many others. The Sessions at the UCafe will be the perfect opportunity to relax and listen to some jazz or join in and jam with the best that Stony Brook has to offer. A professional rhythm section will be there for your accompaniment needs, so arrive early to secure a spot on stage or in the audience. Email James Hubbard with any questions at jameshubbardtrombone@gmail.com.

Then, on February 9 Stony Brooklyn Presents:

Reggae Showcase with Kelvin & special guests. This event is presented in association with WUSB 90.1 FM and their very own No Sound Test DJs.
