VACCINE THAT PROTECTS AGAINST CERVICAL CANCER

UUP announces that the Empire Plan will now cover GARDASIL the new vaccine that is recommended for girls/ young women ages 9 to 26. Empire will cover the vaccine for dependents up to age of 19 under the pediatric immunization program. Eligible young women ages 19 to 26 will receive coverage under the adult immunization program. Special thanks to our own Ed Quinn and Doreen Bango @ UUP Statewide.

SPECIAL DISABILITY BENEFIT FOR DEPENDENTS OVER AGE 19

Once your dependent child turns 19, s/he remains covered provided they are enrolled in a full-time school. There is an exception. If your child becomes disabled, and cannot work through illness, injury or mental health issue, you may be eligible for a disability wavier. If qualified, this provision allows your child's coverage to remain in force for the duration of the disability. For information, call Arty Shertzer @ 2-8948.
