Got Books You are Finished Reading? Help Us!

As part of SBU Libraries "Get Your Read On" campaign, we are asking the campus community to go green and recycle the books you have already read by donating them (novels, paperbacks, etc.) to help fill the SS Melville in our new book exchange program. This past Spring, the Melville Library participated in the Roth Pond Regatta, bringing home a trophy for 2nd place in the Speedster Division. The SS Melville withstood 3 races and will now become a Book Exchange Vessel, holding the donated books for students to borrow. It will be kept in the Central Reading Room on the first floor of the Melville Library. Donations will be accepted at the Central Reading Room by either Kathleen Maxheimer, 632-7135 or Kristen Cinar, 632-7104. If you are unable to bring them to us, we will try to make other arrangements. Submitted by: Kathleen Maxheimer/Lib

Let's Fight Hunger This October! Third Annual Food Drive

Please join the Stony Brook University UUP Community Services Committee to help fight hunger and help our friends and neighbors. "Poverty Near Record Levels - Poverty is spreading across many groups, from underemployed workers and suburban families to the poorest poor.", Newsday 7/23/12. We will be collecting during the month of October, and donations will go to L.I. Cares for distribution through their member agencies. Anyone who can collect food in their department please e-mail Nancy.Gaugler@stonybrook.edu. Together we can make a difference! Brought to you by the West Campus Chapter UUP Community Services Committee.
