March 23th is the Triangle Shirtwaist Fire UUP event on Campus

This week marks the 100th anniversary of the Tragic Fire in New York City that cost the lives of 146 Triangle Shirtwaist Factory employees. Your UUP chapter will be holding an event this Wednesday the 23rd at 3 to 5pm to mark this horrific event that led to public outcry against unsafe working conditions. Even politicians reacted to this great loss of mostly immigrant girls by enacting labor laws to help protect workers. The place will be the Wang Center Chapel and all members of our campus community are invited. It should be noted over 120,000 persons turned out for the 1911 funeral procession in New York City after a citywide day of mourning was called for by organized labor. Those innocent children, young women, and men, mostly immigrants, paid the ultimate price. We all owe them a debt of gratitude, and I hope you can join us at on the 23rd to reflect on this nation and union labor changing event.

The Japan Center at Stony Brook as source for Earthquake/Tsunami & Relief fund info.

The Japan Center is having a seminar this Weds. at 12:50- 2:00pm in Javits Center room 110 "The earthquake in Japan,

What Happened and Why? It also is your source for information on this tragic event that is still unfolding given now the 3rd leg of this event the nuclear power plant problems. Visit their website at <http://naples.cc.sunysb.edu/CAS/japanese.nsf/pages/Earthquake> for more details and for the Relief Fund raising efforts by The Japan Society and The American Red Cross. Thanks for suggestion submitted by your UUP chapter delegate Yumi Yoshino-Hempel,

RSVP No later than three days prior to an event for lunch orders.
