

Library Faculty Resolution
February 21, 2006
Jr. Faculty Research Leave

The Library Faculty resolves to implement section §23.7 a. Other Leaves for Academic Employees and adopt this section of the negotiated SUNY labor contract as part of its overall hiring and mentoring processes, and as such, will allow and support its non-tenured (Jr. Faculty) librarians holding tenure track positions to request a paid leave of absence from their library responsibilities for one (1) semester, scheduled to take place between the faculty member's promotion to Senior Assistant Librarian and their application for tenure review and in accordance with all University and contractual application procedures, for the purposes of furthering their personal research or scholarship as part of their overall preparation for their final tenure review.

Resolved this day, February 21, 2006, by the Library Faculty of the Stony Brook University Library System(s)