GOOD NEWS!

Aimee has been selected to receive a GSO Service award. Here is the announcement letter - Dear Aimee.

I'm writing to let you know that the GSO executive committee has awarded you with a GSO Service Award for your contributions to Stony Brook's graduate student community over the course of the past year. Please let me know if you'll be able to attend the Student Life Awards ceremony on Wednesday, May 6th from 5:30 to 7:30 in SAC Ballroom A to receive your award. I hope to see you there, and on behalf of the entire executive committee, thanks so much for everything you've done to help make the graduate student experience at Stony Brook better.

Sincerely,

Lila (Liliana M. Naydan)

WEDNESDAY, MAY 13 at 4 p.m.

Melville Library Author Series: Passport to Illness: Voyages In and Out of Medicine featuring Dr. Shetal Shah, M.D., Assistant Professor of Neonatology, Department of Pediatrics, Stony Brook University Medical Center. Program: In fourteen distinct narratives, Dr. Shetal Shah outlines in Passport to Illness: Voyages In and Out of Medicine not just the medical cases that make one a physician, but the personal stories, anecdotes, and relationships that each doctor brings to the bedside. From inner-city New York to the streets of Cuba to rural towns in Kenya, he guides you through his unique world, where the summit of Mount Kilimanjaro and the bedside of a fragile, premature infant in New York are not far apart.

Location: Javits Room (2nd floor of the Melville Library) - Free and Open to All.

Sponsor: University Libraries.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 13, 2009 FROM 12:30 - 2 p.m. at the Charles B. Wang Center, Room 301 "Cooking from China's Fujian Province" special lecture featuring food historian and scholar Dr. Jacqueline M. Newman. Reception follows with Fujianese food tasting.

Fujian, a province in southeastern China, boasts a distinct culinary tradition that enjoys a thousand year old recorded history but is barely known in the Western world. Dr. Newman's latest book includes fascinating cultural and historical notes and features a collection of 200 easy to follow, authentic recipes that provide the perfect introduction to this unique cuisine. "Through her insightful writing and well-researched recipes, Ms. Newman is casting much-deserved light on the wonderful Fujian cooking and culture. Her scholarly approach and keen eye for detail make this book a joy to read and a real keeper for any library and kitchen." -- Martin Yan, cookbook author and chef of TV cookery programs

FREE and Open to All. Sponsored by the University Libraries.
