

Event Description from Southampton News:
OCTOBER 10, 2009

Come early and join us at 10 am for the Ribbon Cutting Ceremony celebrating the opening of our beautiful new Library. Dr. Mary Pearl will then welcome the Parents on Chancellor Hall's Lawn. In the afternoon there is live entertainment from Miles To Dayton and Chris Merwin.

COMMENDATIONS TO SPECIAL COLLECTIONS :

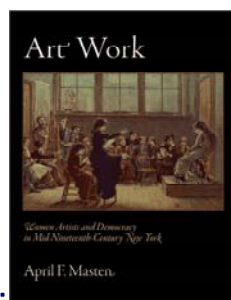

President Stanley, Assemblyman Englebright, Chris and Kristen Nyitray recently received notification that Special Collections and University Archives is the recipient of the 2009 Archives Award for Program Excellence in a Historical Records Repository. This annual award acknowledges excellence in an archival program. The award will be presented in the Cultural Education Center in Albany on Monday, October 26.

Special Collections and University Archives is organizing and developing a collection (still in its beginning stages) about Long Island's history. This is accessible to the public at <http://www.stonybrook.edu/libspecial/acquisitions.shtml>. As part of this initiative, exhibits and educational programs are extended to school children through local historical societies.

President's Inauguration Faculty Lecture Series Oct 21-28, 2009:

InaugurationLectureSeriesFlyer.pdf

FACULTY AUTHOR EVENT:

On October 28 during Campus Lifetime, 12:45 - 2:00 in Javits Room, April Masten will present her book,

ART WORK Women Artists and Democracy In Mid-Nineteenth Century New York.

Between 1850 and 1880, a time of civil war and financial insecurity, thousands of young women moved to New York City to pursue careers as professional artists. This is a story about Mary Hallock and other women who were part of this venture.