LIBRARY FORUM UPDATE:

Today's forum, Culture Change and Library Services, brought down the house. Aimee really stirred up discussion and William helped to keep it going to give all a chance to share ideas. The blackboard in the large conference room was filled with topics, subtopics and further notions. I wouldn't be surprised if we get the go ahead to put some of the ideas into practice!

CLASS SCHEDULE FOR INFORMATICS EDUCATION :

Across the road are some opportunities to learn at lunch time. Many of these short duration classes run for one hour - one 1/2 hours. If we thought there could be no more "og" words well we're mistaken . . .

How about Vlog: An Introduction to Video Blogging. This meets on Monday, December 11, 2:30 - 4:00 pm at the HSC LIBRARY, level 2. This topic actually ties into the discussion at the forum regarding use of AV presentation of users' library successes.

TRAVEL FORUM:

On Thursday, Nov. 30 there will be a Travel Forum at 12:30 pm in the large conference room. A broad range of information should be presented including geospatial issues, disability services, depository library updates, and imaging techniques. This is a good opportunity to learn from each other! Also, Chris encourages everyone who attends a conference to write up a report of what was learned and then to pass it on to other staff at a forum.
