Sherry commented that the basket we sent is generously full - she brought in a few candy samples today which are on MV's counter!

DISREGARD - CALL FOR NOMINATIONS (Bulletin Number 1515)

I inadvertently put misleading info about the awards. As the deadline to apply was in September - if you did not apply by then, you can not consider submitting a file. Sorry for the confusion.

FOR CSEA MEMBERS:

For those of you who did not attend on November 3rd, you missed a good lunch. The new president, Carolos Speight, spoke briefly about the need for the members to get involved. He encouraged those attending to sign up for a committee including: Health & Safety, Social Events, Men's Issues, and Women's Issues. There is also a need for Shop Stewards, who basically would be liaisons between campus areas and the local officers. Most people left after lunch and some stayed to ask individual questions. Perhaps the individual questions with answers would be beneficial for all to hear.

Our outspoken library attendees mentioned to Carlos that he had a great opportunity to give updates to a large turnout. Individual conferences could be arranged outside a general meeting time. There is no need to get many members together to wait on a line to have individual concerns addressed! There will be other occasions for a social time as summer barbeque and holiday lunch.
