POWER SHUTDOWN LATE IN DAY - JUNE 15:

We have been informed by FD&C that there will be an eight hour power shutdown starting at 11PM on Friday June 15th. This shutdown is required to tie in a 400A line in our high voltage electrical room for the New School of Journalism's Broadcast and Media Center. After much consideration to the disruption of all activities in the Melville Library and the coordination problems to get several contractors here at the same time, this was the best alternate for everyone in the Melville Library. There will be no elevator service, no HVAC, etc. Please make the appropriate arrangements for any equipment that will be affected during the shutdown and inform your staff of this major event. Everything will be restored to normal after the tie in has been accomplished and all scheduled activities for Saturday the 16th should not be affected. Thanks for your patience and understanding.

Library Services Committee Forum:

Please mark your calendar for June 21(Thursday) from noon - 1:30 pm. We will have a boardroom style set up to exchange ideas between library staff and TLT staff on the following theme -

How TLT(Teaching, Learning, and Technology) and the Libraries Can Work Jointly to Deal With Trends in Information and Content Distribution

Graham Glynn will give an overview of TLT, its resources, and what this department does. Discussion can include how TLT and the libraries mutually partner through projects, support and technology. A large part of this forum will be conversation. There will be handouts.

*If you have any items you'd like Graham to address please send them to Victor by June 15.

He will compile and e-mail them to Graham a few days prior to the forum!

Plan to bring your lunches to the Javits Room. Coffee and other assorted beverages are on us. Let Maryanne know if you can attend!
